

OCT
Wed May 29, 1912

→ Brea

more
above
beck
about
at articles
Brea
old hotel Dr. H. Fuller will soon begin the erection of a ten-room hospital building at Brea on the lots south of the Randolph school. Dr. G. J. Venezuela will be associated with Dr. Fuller.

C. H. Sweet of Titusville, Pa. has purchased the Leland Crockwell livery barn. He has moved his family from the east and located in Brea.

Fred Holser formerly with the Delaware Union has gone to work as driller for the Brea Canyon Oil company.

Ernest Priestly of the Birch was taken very ill last week of fever.

Mrs. Wm. Sutherland was a Los Angeles visitor Friday.