

Members of Brea chapter met at chapter hall Monday evening for their first meeting since June 23.

Worthy Matron Elsie Guy and Worthy Patron George Hawkins were in the chairs.

In answer to roll call each member present disclosed some of the summer's activities.

Letters were read from out-of-town members unable to be present.

Another feature of the evening was the farewell to past Worthy Matron Rosa Cone, who with her family was leaving the following day to live in Oregon.

Mrs. Cone was escorted to the east for the evening and led the march into the dining room at close of business.

Mrs. Eva Poore, president of Lina circle presented Mrs. Cone with a gift on behalf of that organization.

A committee composed of Mrs. Marjorie Close, chairman, Mesdames Mabel Potter, Cora Stewart and Marguerite Dixon, served a supper which brought the evening to a close.

On September 27, courtesy night will be observed when the chairs will be occupied by officers from surrounding Orange county towns.

Eleanor Gheen, soon to leave for Hunter college, New York, where she will train for the WAVES, a bountiful picnic was held recently at Pomona's Ganessa park.

Typical picnic food was featured and included fried chicken, salads of various kinds, pie, ice cream and cake.

Among those who enjoyed the day were: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gheen, Eleanor and Paul Gheen, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. William Fanning, all of Brea.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl French of Balboa; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wells and daughters, Barbara and Jo Anna, of Whittier; Mr. and Mrs. Lyndle Gheen of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Smith and daughter, Elva Ruth, and Miss Blanche Noe of Ontario; Judge and Mrs. William R. McKay and Mrs. Ellen Russell of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lindesmith of Pomona.

Book and Basketeers Will Meet Today

The Book and Basket section of Brea Woman's club will meet Friday (today) with Mrs. H. E. Bowers, 339 South Flower, at 2 p.m. All members and friends are urged to be present at this first meeting of the year.

In honor of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith of Lucerne Valley, their daughter, Mrs. Jorgen Hansen of South Flower, held open house on Sunday.

Due to the war a simple informal celebration was planned.

At noon a pot-luck dinner was served in the garden to members of the family.

During the afternoon many friends called to extend congratulations to the honored guests and to wish them many more years of happiness together.

For the occasion Mrs. Smith wore the dress she had worn for her wedding, and Mr. Smith wore his wedding waistcoat and tie.

Colored motion pictures were taken of the celebrants, the many beautiful floral gifts and the anniversary cake which was later cut by Mrs. Smith and served with ice cream to the guests.

All the children and grandchildren of the couple were present on this happy occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are visiting at the Hansen home, having come here to escape the desert heat.

Card Party Held At Gesme Home

Mrs. George Gesme of South Laurel was hostess to her bridge club Tuesday evening.

Attractive arrangements of Cecil Brunner roses lent a festive air to the scene and were used on the refreshment tables later in the evening.

After scores were tallied and prizes presented to Mrs. Ruth Templeman, Mrs. Viva Alexander and Mrs. Ella Stumbo, the hostess served a supper of chicken salad, rolls, relishes and coffee to the following: Mesdames Stumbo, Vera Yarbrough of Fullerton; Charlene Utt and Viva Alexander of Santa Ana; Rosemary Curtis, Ruth Templeman, Eds Hurst and Gene Hurst of Brea.

Glen Connelly Given Farewell Dinner on Departure for Navy

In honor of their son Glen, who was leaving for the navy that week, Mr. and Mrs. Erie Connelly of 241 South Poplar, invited several of his friends to a fried rabbit dinner at the family home last Sunday.

Among the invited guests were: Misses Paula Pepper, Leta Johnson, Genevieve and Helen Connelly, Mrs. D. S. Lang, Ole Scott, Harry Baker, all of Brea.

Mrs. Lillian Byers and three children of El Monte, Miss Betty Davis of Oxnard, A/C Michael Baron of SAAAB, and the guest of honor.

Mrs. Eva Jarvis Hostess at Bridge

Last Thursday Mrs. Eva Jarvis of 112 South Madrona, entertained her bridge club at luncheon.

Following the afternoon's play, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Eva Jarvis, Mrs. Angie Wilson and Mrs. Salome Forster of Fullerton. Others present included Mrs. Alice Lynes of Brea, Mrs. Nora Pryor, Mrs. Eleanor La Force, Mrs. Mary Dauser and Mrs. Linda Queyrel, all of Fullerton.

War Chest Drive Stalls for Lack Of Workers?

Unfortunately not much more money is in the Brea war chest drive coffers than was in it last week at this time.

The weak spot in the armor seems to be the collectors, as far as can be ascertained without the aid of a seerss.

Money is needed—vitaly needed—by the various organizations which will benefit from the money Breans contribute.

But the money isn't coming in.
True, those who are to do the collecting are busy men but nevertheless the job must be done.

Every citizen in Brea should be a willing and generous contributor.
Nearly every home in Brea has a boy or girl in the armed services.
These parents and families will give—just as the war workers and oil workers and citrus workers will give—if they are approached.

It is hoped this time next week the Progress can announce a nice fat increase in the amount Brea has donated to the war chest.

Mrs. Lew Wallace Returns to Brea

Mrs. Lew Wallace returned to her home at 102 South Flower Saturday after a year away. While gone, her mother-in-law, Mrs. DeLance
Wallace, occupied her home.

Mrs. Wallace will remain in Brea for a time, but her future plans are undecided.

Cpl. George S. Tompkins of the marine corps at San Diego visited his brother-in-law and sister, Mr.
and Mrs. Monty Montgomery of 328
South Walnut, over the week-end.

There were a heap of folks at Chiksan last Friday afternoon—about 700 as a conservative estimate—and among those present were a flock of bigwigs including a rear admiral . . . all there for the awarding of the Army-Navy "E" to Chiksan Tool company.

But the star of the whole show was Van J. Kubin who, as the oldest employe of Chiksan in point of service, accepted the "E" pins from Major John Earl Jardine of the U.S. army.

Known as a star tool maker, Ku-bin showed he was an ambidextrous fellow by being a star speaker as well.

Also on the program from Chiksan was Jay Mathews who, after President W. Edgar Spear had received the "E" flag from Admiral Joseph Defrees, took the flag and hoisted it high where all could see.

Joe Cummings, foreman of Chiksan drill press department, accompanied by the U.S. navy band, sang "America" to complete the program.

In addition to those already mentioned, seated on the platform were J. S. Bradford, former president of the company; Frank Ellingsen, vice-president in charge of production; Earl Atkins, vice-president in charge of sales; Mrs.
Blanche Bagnall, widow of one of the company founders; enough army and navy personnel to take a small island away from the Japs.

Beautiful floral pieces vied with the color and glamour of uniforms and bunting on the platform.

The ceremonies took 35 minutes, after which the swing shift of the company started making more stuff and many others.

"We feel that this is an approtime," said Rev. Errol B. Sloan, pastor.

Women's Guild of Service Will Hear Religious Recordings Wednesday

First hearing of the new record-with Mrs. Robert Ross as program chairman.

These records were purchased by church members for religious educational work in the church school and will be explained by Rev. Har-noon.

A 35-cent luncheon will be served at 12:30 by the committee in

Frank Bickels Honor Grandson's Birthday

The Frank Bickel home at 210
North Orange was the scene of a family dinner on Sunday when the second birthday of their little grandson, Michael Miller of El Segundo, was observed.

Michael was accompanied to Brea by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Miller, and his brother Stephen.

Later in the day the family drove to Olive to visit the paternal grandparents, Mr. andn Mrs.
Charles Jones, where the birthday cake was served.

Mrs. Jones was recovering from a recent illness and was unable to come here for the festivities, so the party went to her.

George White Sends Life in Arabia

The traveler explained that the wind blows six months in one direction, then changes and blows in the opposite direction for six months. It is at the turning point of these winds when the shamals appear.

"And it really can get hot here," White continued. "If we are working outside we have a coolie hold a big beach umbrella over us. And if you lay any tools down in the sun they get so hot in a few minutes you cannot pick them up."

"We wear a sun helmet on our head and have a sweat towel around our necks. When the humidity is high the sweat really runs off. The sweat towels are turkish towels two feet long and a foot wide and that's not big enough."

Several months later White writes about a vacation he took. "It was a three-day trip through the wilds of Arabia.

Waldo Minor, Former Brea Merchant, Dies

Waldo Minor, former Brea business man, died at his home at Downey last week, according to word received by friends here.

Minor at one time owned a furniture store where the Imperial cafe now stands.

A world war I veteran, he was an active member of Brea American Legion post 181, during the time of its organization.

Funeral services were held at Downey last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Bea Livingston and Mrs. Earl Templeman attended from Brea.

Those surviving are Mrs. Jean Minor, mother; Ray Minor, brother; Mrs. Leorga Cumings, sister; Miriam Cumings, niece; all of Downey; and another sister in Nova Scotia.

Brea Legion Membership Is Above Quota

Brea Legion post No. 181 again goes over the top!

Figures just released by the California Legionnaire show that Brea with a quota of 45 members and an actual paid-up membership of 51, is in a healthy condition.

Airplane Watchers Get Break As Derrick Burns

Brea's airplane watchers, who spend night after night spotting airplanes—and just watching in tiresome wait—had something exciting to watch Monday evening about 10 when a wooden oil derrick near Imperial and Carolina burned.

The derrick was on property owned by Wood-Callahan Oil company. Damage was estimated at about $1,500.

Cause of the fire was thought to be friction of the belt with other machinery.

Firemen battled the flames for three hours as the fire spread rapidly up the oil soaked timbers.

A slight wind that blew all night fanned the fire and made the fight a hard one for firemen.

Victory Show Nets $1100 In Sales

Standard Oil's traveling show, which came to Brea Tuesday afternoon entertained the populace for two hours, sold nearly $1100 in war bonds and stamps for Uncle Sam.

Entertainment was divided definitely into two groups: planned and unplanned.

The planned entertainment consisted of:

- Song by Georgene Warner.
- Song and hula dance by Alice-laine Marshall.
- High school octet led by Georgene Warner: Bob Wade, Lois Ward, Barbara Tremaine, Beverly Watkins, Glennadean Sutliff, Alice Sage, Albert Warner.
- Girls' glee club song.
- Tap dance by Dick McNabb.

Then, the unplanned part of the show was superinduced by Henry Murtagh, master of ceremonies with the traveling show. These various acts—with "White Cliffs of Dover" and "White Christmas" taking quite a beating—were:

- Recitations by Archie Logsdon, Robert Rowe, Arnold Ross.
- Song by Carol Strickland.
- Recitations by Carol Strickland, Josephine Budd, Mary Jane Budd, Jo-Anne Riley, Glorio Haro.
- Song, Joy Gordon.
- Song, Robert Rowe.

Brea Urged to Plant Victory Gardens If They Want to Eat!

A man spoke at Brea Lions club yesterday, told his hearers bluntly and to the point that local citizens are going to plant their own gardens or, in many cases, go without vegetables later on this year.

Harold E. Wahlberg, Orange county farm advisor, an associate of the United States department of agriculture, was the speaker—and he seemed to know whereof he spoke.

"There was a time when it was more expensive to plant and tend a vegetable garden than the same vegetables cost at a store" the speaker said.

"But no more. Now—or soon—it will be necessary to grow your own vegetables if you have any."

Wahlberg mentioned the large percentages of the current crop of vegetables the government will take for military and lend-lease needs.

Appetite 50% Up!

He answered one question some people ask: Why does the army and navy need so much food? by saying that each boy in service averages 50 per cent more food consumption than he did when he put his feet under mama's table.

There are many advantages of raising your own garden truck, the speaker pointed out, in addition to the food you get. For instance, home gardening provides healthier food than you get in cans; recreation; outdoor exercise.

"Here in Orange county with a continuous growing season it is an easy matter to grow great quantities of food," Wahlberg said, as he again emphasized the fact that it will be necessary for the people to grow most or all of their vegetables if they are to have them later.

Leland Auer, program chairman, also introduced a 15-voice girls' glee club from Brea-Olinda high school who sang three pieces. The singers were accompanied on the piano by Don Critchlow.

Those Who Sang!

Girls who sang were Misses Georgene Warner, Pearl Sharp, Alice-laine Marshall, Beverly Neal, Melba Neal, Juanita Neal, Lorraine White, Genevieve Connelly, Doris Newcomb, Rose Barnes, Mary Jane Craig, Elaine Luther, Mingtoy Johnson, Geraldine Price, Ellen Richson.

President Joe Neuls paid a stirring tribute to Leland Auer for the excellent work he has done in promoting the various activities of the Brea band.

"Not only has he developed a music appreciation in hundreds of

Boy Scouts Will Scour Brea Tomorrow for Your Scrap

First roundup of scrap (metal, rubber, rags) will be made tomorrow (Saturday) morning when local boy scouts board trucks to scour the city for all scraps.

Instructions are easy to follow. All each Brea family is asked to do is to collect every bit of scrap metal, rags, rubber and pile them near the curb.

Make three separate piles—one for metal, one for rubber, one for rags.

Shafter Tool works, Orlissen Tool company, Ed Peterkin and the city of Brea are donating trucks in this important nation-wide drive for scrap. Boy Scouts, under direction of Les Slaughter, will collect the scraps from the curbs.

The scrap will be turned over to the city and will be sold through proper channels. Proceeds will be used to buy local civilian defense equipment.

Collection Depots Named

For scrap missed on this first drive, three depots have been named where the scrap will be collected.

In the north part of town, the Chamber of Commerce will have a depot on the northwest corner of Deodara and Pomona—across from the grammar school. For the central part of town, Brea Lions club will be in charge of a depot on the recent lot next to Daugherty Chevrolet. Brea American Legion will have a depot in the south part of town on the lawn in front of legion hall.

Incidentally, the old cannon

'Weather Surely Is Unpredictable'

Say Hodkinse

Last week end the Joe Hodkins of 421 Orange decided they needed a new roof. Now they have decided to remodel the inside of their home.

Why? Because Sunday night when the weather changed from a clear starry August night to a grey thundering wet one, "the Hodkins had no roof."

In the wee hours of the morning, the whole family could be seen bare-foot, padding and wading through their kitchen, bedroom and other roofless rooms.

But one room was saved! The living room still had enough roof to shelter the family.

mounted in front of the legion hall is destined to road again for it is slated for this scrap drive.

Each organization will have three signs to maintain separate piles for metal, rubber, rags.

As the scrap is collected at these depots, it will be collected and also turned over to the city for sale.

The a Can for the Japs!

Tin cans are needed in this drive but must be cleaned and stripped of the paper covering, both ends cut out, the can flattened.

Leland Auer, general chairman, stresses the importance of collecting any and all types of metal.

Loss of the Philippines, Dutch East Indies and Malaya, cut off fully half of our normal imports of fats and oils. Those fats were of inestimable value to our war industries.

They were used not only for food, but to make the tough paints and varnish now needed in greater quantities than ever for planes, tanks, guns, ships. Much of them went into glycerine, a necessary part of some explosives and gunpowders.

Save Oils, Fats!

Brea housewives can do their part by saving oils and fats. Put them through a fine strainer into a clean wide-mouthed metal can. The can of fats should be kept in a cool place—preferably in the refrigerator.

When a pound or more has been collected take them to your meat dealer.

Brea Lions Enjoy Army Chow Treat

The regular meeting of the Lions club yesterday was held at Brea army camp where they were guests of the officers.

Each Lion lined up with a regular army mess kit and received regular army chow.

Impressed with the importance of this meeting, Charles G. Ourts, local photographer, dressed in his best military uniform and greatly impressed all and sundry.

The photographer finally had to remove his outer uniform because so many soldiers were saluting him. Carl Harvey, program chairman of the day, introduced an army officer who told something of army routines.

Air Corps Chaplain Will Be Guest Speaker at Christian Church Sunday Morning

Lieut. James R. Shaw chaplain at the air reception center in Santa Ana, will be the speaker at the 10:45 service of the Christian church Sunday.

Lieutenant Shaw is one of the youngest chaplains in the service, being under the minimum age required for chaplains but a special concession was made for his admittance.

He is the son of Rev. Shirley R. Shaw, pastor of University Christian church in San Diego.

World's Second Greatest Printer Leaves Progress

George Addison Wright I, who was born and "raised" among the corn fields of old Nebraska, who moved to California eight years ago, who is a present resident of Costa Mesa; who has been the mechanical superintendent of the Brea Progress for two and one-half years resigned this important position last week and went to work in a little country bend in the road, town of Newport Balboa.

It was with regret that his associates at the Progress saw him take off.

George was an excellent workman. A clean fellow too, and a gentleman of the old school. The Progress' loss will be the Newport Beach, Newport Balboa, News-Times' gain.

There is a heck of a hole around the Progress office these days which the gang is having a hard time to fill.

Every best wish was given to George Addison Wright when he left. And with tears streaming down his eyes, G. Addison promised to return to Brea at every opportunity.

After all, after getting used to the sunshine of Brea it is going to seem pretty murky, damp and dismal in the swamps of southwest Orange county.

An aviator, George boy, you still are a great guy and we wish you were here right now!

Lt. Jake Armstrong, Liberated, Now Home

Word that First Lieutenant John L. (Jake) Armstrong, recently liberated from a German prison camp, has been returned to the United States and is enjoying a 75-day furlough with his sister, Mrs. Ella Post at 1447 W. 101 Street in Los Angeles, was brought to the Progress last Friday, August 17, by Mrs. Post.

Mrs. Post, who visited the Progress office that afternoon, states that Jake is in grand physical shape. He found it necessary to wait two months in England for transportation home.

First Lieutenant Armstrong was in this area himself last week-end when he visited Captain William Schubert in Olinda.

According to Mrs. Post, Jake had been imprisoned at Stalag Luft No. 1 for nine months, and was liberated by the Russians in Barth on May 2 of this year. Fighter Pilot Armstrong had been a prisoner of the Germans since August, 1944, when he was shot down over Aachen.

A graduate of Brea-Olinda Union High School and a former resident of Olinda, Jake is a cousin of Mrs. W. C. Hirth of 214 North Orange Avenue.

Du Chene Couple To Improve Elm Home

Mr. and Mrs. C. Du Chene, who moved back to Brea last April after having lived for some three years in Strathmore, Northern California, now are busily engaged in modernizing their home at 506 East Elm Street.

It will be remembered that the Du Chenes moved their present one-bedroom house in from Los Angeles this spring. Now they are building on a back porch and are arranging to add an extra bedroom.

There is one child in the family, Loren, aged 4. Both Mr. and Mrs. Du Chene have lived in the Brea area most of their lives.

Mrs. Gordon Writes Son Now Recovered

Mrs. C. F. Gordon, now of Elainore, California, writes that her friends have been much concerned over the news that her son, Lieutenant Bruce W. Gordon, had been wounded in the Pacific. She wishes the Progress to state that Bruce is "all right again and back on regular duty."

Bruce, who is a graduate of Brea-Olinda Union High School, was wounded last June while at Okinawa.

He is the son of the late C. F. Gordon who edited the Progress around the early 1930's.

WONDERFUL NEWS!

... but there's still a war to win!

Yes, victory in Europe is wonderful news, but we still have a war to win in the Pacific. This is no time to let down and take things easy.

Greyhound realizes that it must continue to provide vital war transportation. All Greyhound employees are sticking to this important job.

Let's all carry on to COMPLETE victory. Let's buy more War Bonds. Let's continue to support the Red Cross. Let's give more blood to save lives.

to do business as a pool room at 103 South Pomona was canceled by the city council at its meeting at city hall Wednesday evening. A motion was taken after seven minutes and a local police official stated that the place was largely by under-age persons as young as 10 or 12. It was stated at the meeting that the law forbids anyone under 18 years of age, entering a pool room. In reply to this action, the operator of the pool room had submitted a request for a permit to larger quarters, install a main, conduct card games to state laws. The city of Advance Roofing Fullerton, for re-roofing man's club building (now under suspicion), was accepted. The city of Fullerton, 141 South Walnut, had permission to keep the bid of $100 for a city on South Laurel was ac-

Finds Wife in Marine

Friday morning about 1:30, Officer Ray Phillips received a call to look for a certain automobile "with a woman driver in it." A few minutes Phillips saw a car driving around Brea. He followed them, phoned Placentia for orders. Placentia police officer came at a sailor as a passenger. In a long story short, the sailor's wife, the wife of the sailor—and he was in the triangle met, there was no bad feeling whatsoever. The sailor took his wife and the marine was hauled to Brea 101 by the Placentia officer. You see funny sights sometimes. Officer Phillips.

Pinkie Hyde's Son Wins Sweepstakes At Baby Show

Richard Hyde, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Pinkie Hyde of North Orange, walked away with first honors at the recent Fullerton Rebekah lodge baby show and was crowned supreme king of the entire show at a coronation pageant held at Fullerton high school Friday evening.

Contestants were placed in three age groups and were scored for health, beauty and personality.

And that wasn't all. For king of the junior division was Billy Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Davis of South Flower.

And in the infants' division it was Jimmy Warfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Warfield of South Pomona, who carried off honors as king.

Richard was presented with a loving cup in recognition of his victory while the other two Brea boys were given statues.

A Brea young lady was fortunate enough to win an honorable mention, little Sandra Logsdon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Logsdon of South Redwood.

Another honorable mention went to Bobby Jennings of South Orange.

All in all, Brea made a very fine showing, but we didn't need a contest to find out that the cream of the baby crop is right here at home.

Local Delegates Attend C. E. Convention

A large delegation from the Christian church attended the annual Orange County Christian Endeavor convention at the First Christian church in Santa Ana last Sunday afternoon and evening.

The junior group of the local church sponsored by Mrs. A. J. Everhart, presented a number on the program of the junior section of the convention. Honors went to the group likewise for having the second largest delegation present.

Attending were: Lois Ward, Ruby Sutliff, Glennadean Sutliff, Virginia Vance, Nelda Budd, Maxine Meredith, Mrs. Earl Ward of the young people. Mary Budd, Josephine Budd,

The Army-Navy "E," highest honor the United States government gives to industry for outstanding production of necessary war material, has been awarded to Chiksan Tool company of Brea.

The official announcement came from none other than James Forrestal, under secretary of war, in Washington, D. C.

Tremendousness Of South America Revealed to Lions

This continent of South America is a beeg-a place, according to Louis Hoskins, genial postmaster of Anaheim, who spoke at Brea Lions club yesterday on the wonders of that great continent.

Rich in minerals, oil, hardwood, waterfalls, scenic wonders, grain, fruit, livestock . . . in fact, South America has everything it seems but a high degree of literacy, as records show only 40 per cent are literate.

Shaffer Tool works of Brea ships machinery and equipment to nearly every South American country, it was pointed out after the talk.

Two Brea Boys Meet For Moment in Alaska

Hobart Turley, a Seabee, was working on a dock in Alaska recently when a boy yelled: "Hey, Hobart!"

Looking up, the stalwart son of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Turley, South Flower, saw his old Brea buddy, Dan Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ward of South Madrona, a sailor on the ship Turley was operating on.

Brea gossip flew thick and fast for a short time when Ward and his ship pulled out for another island.

After the parting, Turley said: "Imagine seeing old Dan here."

Ward muttered: "Imagine seeing old Turley here."

Of the thousands of industrial plants in the United States making war goods, only a comparatively few have received this coveted award.

Not only is this a great honor to the Chiksan Tool company and its personnel but it is equally a tribute to the city of Brea and Orange county.

Obviously an acknowledgment of this magnitude will not go unnoticed by the Chiksan company and the city.

So, at a time to be announced later but no doubt within a week or two at the most, a formal presentation of the "E" award will be made in Brea by high-ranking army and navy officials.

When this presentation is made, all of the Chiksan employees will be present and every citizen of Brea and the county will be officially invited by Chiksan and the government.

In next week's Progress it is hoped to announce the time, place and names of celebrities who will be present when the "Congressional Medal of Honor" of war production—the famous Army-Navy "E"—will be made to Brea's Chiksan Tool company.

After a sea food dinner at a popular restaurant, they spent the evening playing bridge and 500.

Another industry is coming to join the many industrial plants here which make Brea the industrial hub of Orange county.

R. J. Quandt, late of Louisville, Mississippi, has rented the large warehouse at the rear of the Oil-fields bank, will set up a machine precision shop there as soon as he can get the necessary work done.

Once under way, Quandt will make small parts, he said. And the size and scope of his plant will be determined by how things go. To start he has bought two ma-

BREA, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1942

NUMBER FORTY

More Breans Will Register for Draft Next Three Days

Brea men between the ages of 20 and 45 years, who have not already registered, will have to register at the council chamber at the city hall either Saturday, Sunday or Monday (February 14, 15, 16) to comply with the national Selective Training and Service act.

Mrs. Ralph Nicodemus is in charge of local registration and she will be assisted by Mrs. George Gesme, Mrs. Ralph Irwin, Mrs. James Pearson, Mrs. Kenneth Sutliff, Mrs. William Watkins, Mrs. Virgil Kiger, Mrs. Veva Holland, Mrs. Ernest Jones.

Council Chamber Open Sunday

The council chamber will be open from 7 o'clock in the morning to 9 o'clock at night, including Sunday, Mrs. Nicodemus said.

Age requirement as specified by Brig. Gen. Joseph O. Donovan, state director of selective service, includes all male persons not previously registered, who attained their twentieth birthday on or before December 31, 1941, and who have not attained their forty-fifth birthday on or before February 16, 1942.

Men between 21 and 36 years of age who registered in 1940 and 1941 are not required to register again.

Questions Asked

Each registrant will be asked the following questions:

1. Name of registrant.
2. Place of residence.
3. Mailing address (if other than place of residence).
4. Telephone.
5. Age in years and date of birth.
6. Place of birth.
7. Name and address of person who will always know registrant's address.
8. Employer's name and address.
9. Place of employment or business.

After the registrant has answered all questions and signed his name to the registration card, he will be given a registration certificate signed by the registrar. This certificate must be in the personal possession of the registrant at all times.

Failure to possess certificate, or to show it to authorized authorities, constitutes a violation of selective service regulations and is considered prima facie evidence of failure to register. General Donovan warned.

Brea Legion Invites Public to Hear Speakers Tonight

Winners of the American Legion essay contest from high schools throughout Orange county will be guest speakers at the Legion county council meeting tonight beginning at 8 o'clock at the Brea Legion hall.

Brea's unit is host for this meeting and have extended an invitation to all who may wish to hear these speakers contesting for first place award.

Legion members and their wives will meet for dinner at the hall at 7 o'clock and after the dinner meeting will be open to the public.

Six high school students from Orange county will speak tonight. They are winners of district contests and will meet tonight to decide championship.

Condits Threaten Suit Against Union Oil Company

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Condit of 114 South Flower avenue, parents of little Bert Condit who was drowned in a water reservoir on Stewart tank farm January 31, contemplate suit for damages against the Union Oil company, according to their attorney, Elmer R. Guy, 201 East Birch.

Basis of this suit, it is said, will be the keeping of an "attractive nuisance" where inadequate protection is given local children from a dangerous pool of water.

Junior Guild Is Sponsoring Benefit Rummage Sale

Rummage sale will be held today and tomorrow in the vacant building just north of the postoffice and is sponsored by the Junior Guild of Service. Proceeds from the sale will be added to the hospital loan chest maintained by the guild.

Guild members will appreciate all articles which anyone wishes to donate to the sale. These articles may be brought to the building.

Mrs. Harriet Shadforth, guild president, is in charge of the sale and will be assisted by all members of the guild.

The sale will again be continued Friday and Saturday of next week, February 20, 21.

P.-T.A. Will Observe Founders' Day at Tuesday's Meeting

Founders' day will be observed Tuesday afternoon when members of Brea's Parent-Teacher association meet at 2:30 o'clock at the Laurel Kindergarten school.

Mrs. A. D. Yost, past president of Brea P.-T.A., will relate the history of the local organization and what it has accomplished.

Included on the program will be a candle-lighting service.

Kindergarten grade mothers and executive board members will be hostesses for Tuesday's meeting.

Today all rooms in the Laurel and Grammar schools will have valentine parties sponsored by grade mothers of the P.-T.A.

P.-T.A. executive board will meet today at the home economics buildings at the Grammar school with Mrs. Conn Baker and Mrs. Ira Millar as hostesses. The board will meet for a luncheon and business meeting.

Mrs. Vivian Nicodemus Completes Canteen Course

Mrs. Vivian Nicodemus of 327 South Flower avenue completed nutrition and canteen classes this week held at Fullerton junior college and will help serve an emergency dinner, as part of her training, Tuesday night at the Episcopalian church there.

After the dinner members will be present with certificates and uniforms as visible evidence of their training.

Brea Has Its Second Blackout

War—which to most Breans is something our boys fight in France, Burma, the Philippines or Java—came mighty close to home early Wednesday morning.

At 2:45 the blackout whistles blew. Within 10 minutes the auxiliary police were at their stations, Chief of Police J. M. Pearson and Night Officer Raymond Phillips were on the job, Brea was really blacked out.

Of course at that time in the morning there are few lights on anyway. But except for a light or two in the business district and a few night lights in homes, Jap bombers would have had few light targets at which to shoot.

The blackout proved several things were wrong. One is the weak blackout whistle. This will be arranged so that any future blackout or air raid signals will be heard by everyone able to hear.

Because of the weak signals, many of the auxiliary police did not know there was a blackout, consequently showed up missing at their stations.

Here are some thoughts for all of us to think about. And if we aren't right and ready, it is best to get going because we will have more blackouts before this man's war is over:

1. Have blackout windows made or material to cover windows and doors so you can get around in the house without killing yourself.
2. Have some dry sand in your house, also garage, in case of incendiary bombs.
3. Always have a hose attached to a faucet with a spray on the end of the hose—again for incendiary bombs.
4. When the blackout or air raid signal comes, turn out or keep out all lights, and stay inside your home. You are safer there than anywhere on the street.

5. If you are driving your car, pull over to the side, turn out your lights and stay in your car or walk home. No cars are allowed on the streets or highways during a blackout except emergency cars specified by law. Some army trucks went through Brea early Wednesday morning—without lights—going at least 60 miles an hour. The highway is no place for a civilian's car or a civilian either.

6. Put an old blanket or two in your car and leave it there because you may need it should you have to wait for hours alongside the road somewhere.

7. Be a good sport if you are caught away from home

Mrs. W. A. Swindle, Former Brea, Died Wednesday

Mrs. W. A. Swindle, 48 years old, passed away at a Fullerton hospital Wednesday morning.

While death came as the result of a stroke suffered 10 days before, Mrs. Swindle had been in poor health for 15 months.

Mrs. Swindle, a resident of North Long Beach for four years, resided in Brea for 16 years before moving to North Long Beach.

While her husband's work with Union Oil company took them away from Brea, Mrs. Swindle always felt Brea was home, came here as often as she could to visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Nora Todd Gates of the high school staff survives her mother, as do the husband, W. A. Swindle; Edna Mae Hyde, granddaughter who resided with her grandparents; Mrs. Nannie Feagins, North Long Beach, mother; Mrs. Pearl King of Fullerton, sister.

Chester Gates, son-in-law, will come from his work at Boulder City, Nev., for the funeral.

Funeral services will be held today (Friday), 3:30 p. m., at McAulay & Suters funeral directors, Fullerton. Rev. Arthur LeMaster of North Long Beach Calvary Baptist church will be in charge of the services with Rev. B. H. Blanchard of Brea assisting.

Interment will be at Loma Vista cemetery.

Defeating their arch rivals Tustin Farmers, Coach Franklin's varsity five copped Orange league basketball championship Wednesday afternoon. Brea-Olinda high school score of 29-25.

This victory dethrones Tustin as champions for the first time since 1936 and gives Brea's high school its first championship since Brea lost but one league game of the 10 games played this season.

Wednesday's victory placed the Wildcats in a deadlock with Tustin high school for county championship. And the game to decide the county title will be played today in the Fullerton high school gym beginning at 3:30 o'clock. Tickets are 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for students with body cards.

Brea-Olinda played a tight game all the way through with Tustin at one time holding a 10-0 lead on the Wildcats.

The outcome looked gloomy for the Wildcats at the end of the first quarter and at the end of the second. For Tustin held a one-point lead at the end of both periods.

Wildcats came back in the third quarter all fired up and by the end of the third quarter had a two-point lead as Tustin failed to match Brea basket for basket. This lead was built up to 10-8 in the early part of the fourth quarter until Tustin knotted the score at 25-25 with a few minutes to play.

However, Brea again pulled in front and with the final buzzer lead, 29-25, did a magnificent job of freezing the ball and allowing Tustin to score.

Hobart Turley, Wildcat leading captain, tipped the ball into the hoop for 11 points while Art Suttill netted 10 points.

The lineups were:
Brea-Olinda (29) (25)
Strickland (4) F (9)
Turley (11) F (9) 1
Varner (2) C
Oxandaboure (2) G
Suttill (10) G (1) 1

Second Nutrition Class Will Start If Enough Attend

First Red Cross nutrition class in Brea has been started with 24 members attending and is being taught by Miss Alice Routt. Another class will be started if enough women are interested.

Not only is this emergency preparation under Red Cross sponsorship but furnishes information vital to the well being of every family whether in wartime or peace.

Mrs. Joe Neuls of Berry avenue is Brea's chairman and is in charge of local organization. All those interested in joining this class to study foods should see or call Mrs. Neuls.

The course is composed of 20 hours of classwork and will meet in the evening at the most convenient time that can be arranged, Mrs. Neuls said.

Red Cross is urging mothers with growing children to join these classes and benefit from them.

Brea City Council Votes D. F. Hancock as City Assessor

D. F. Hancock of 523 South Walnut avenue was appointed Brea's assessor for the ensuing year at the council meeting held Wednesday night in the council chamber.

Council members held a lengthy session discussing a variety of problems.

They acted on a number of measures, the more important of which are:

1. Passed resolution accepting a deed from the county tax collector for 13 tax delinquent properties located within the city limits of Brea.
2. Accepted $50 bid by C. E. Andrews of 544 South Madrona avenue for the tax-delinquent lot adjoining his lot. Title to the property is to be cleared and paid by Andrews.
3. Passed resolution calling election for April 14. See the Notice of Election on page 5 for more news about Brea's election.
4. Discussed corrections and adjustments to Brea's defense preparations.
5. Fred Boxall to fill up two fish ponds in the park to prevent children falling in and drowning. Boxall said all Breans who want goldfish to leave their names with Mrs. Grace May, city clerk. There are a number of goldfish in the ponds which are to be filled, Boxall said.

Filling Station Personnel Has Several Changes

Three prominent Brea filling stations underwent changes this week. Up at the corner of Pomona and Central, Grover C. Wilhoit, long-time operator of that station, opened one of the newest and most modern stations in Orange county. Wilhoit moved his old station to the rear of the lot, built a new one that would be a credit to Hollywood and Vine.

Bud Phillips moved his activities to the Associated filling station at Imperial and Pomona. It is understood the Pacific Electric bus station in Brea now will be at the Associated station.

Phillips had been at Pomona and Birch since 1932. Before that, for four years, he operated the Associated station to which he now has returned.

Charles McCormick, former accountant at Barton's garage here and secretary for several years of Brea Coffee club, has become operator of the Union Oil station Bud Phillips vacated.

McCormick has operated stations in Anaheim and Olive for the past two years, says he is mighty glad to be working again in Brea. He resides here.

W. F. Morton of 244 South Walnut, who operated the Associated station the past eight months, has no plans for the moment but he

The horrors of a gas attack on Brea were portrayed yesterday at Brea Lions club by a man who has made a study of this fiendish type of war—Sergeant John Trezise of the Fullerton police department.

Trezise recently traveled to the government's school in New Jersey where picked police officers from all over the United States were taught effects of gas shells and ways to combat their destructiveness.

"There are four general types of gas shells—mustard, lewisite, chlorine and phosgene," Trezise said.

Four Gases to Know!

Actually there are hundreds of different kinds of destructive gases in existence but these four, as far as are known, are the only ones which have been adapted for destructive war against armies or civilians.

"And the use of these bombs from the air is about the only way we ever may expect them," Trezise continued, "because when shot from artillery they must have a shell so thick their effectiveness is lessened."

Gases are divided in two classes: persistent and non-persistent. Persistent gases, according to Trezise, are those which will linger from 10 minutes to six months in a given spot.

Non-persistent gases are ones which evaporate quickly after they explode.

Chief Pearson Talks!

Dr. C. Glenn Curtis, program chairman, next introduced Brea's own police chief, J. M. Pearson, who told of plans for making Brea as well protected as possible during blackouts and air raids.

Pearson stressed the point that we all are in the same boat during this war and that we all must cooperate in every way to help ourselves as well as others.

Five sectional alarm wardens have been appointed by Chief Pearson who in turn will appoint block wardens. It will be their duty, in case of trouble, to police each block, keep all lights out.

Auxiliary police, Pearson explained, have the same authority as police in restricting traffic and fulfilling their duties during blackouts. Citizens are asked to do all they can to make these volunteer citizens' jobs as easy as possible.

Army Has Right-of-Way!

"While it works a hardship to many, during a blackout, to have to stop," Pearson agreed, "nevertheless the highways must be kept clear for several reasons, particularly in case the army wants to move troops or equipment.

"When we realize that those army trucks went through Brea the other night at 60 miles an hour without any lights on whatever, it may be a good thing for motorists—and pedestrians—to want to be off the highways," Pearson pointedly remarked.

Doc Fixed Up!

Friends of Dr. Curtis, represented by Ralph Nicodemus, who had heard the doctor may be called out during a blackout, presented him with several pieces of equipment to use at those times.

One was a "sandwich" sign with a large white "E" on front and back. A blackout lantern, a steel helmet and a letter of instruction on how to use the equipment also were given to the program chairman.

Honored guests were Fred Boxall, Dr. Elmer Otis, Dudley Canavella, Earl Doty, Ralph Nicodemus of Brea, Hiram Smith, Fullerton; Louis Hoskins, Anaheim.

Woman's club members Mrs. Joe Neuls, Mrs. G. C. Wilhoit, Mrs. Jorgen Hansen, Mrs. Carl Harvey, Mrs. Dean Millen and Mrs. Dudley Hodkins, Jr., served a swiss steak and blackberry pie luncheon.

Brea Merchants Invited to C of C Monday

To discuss what the chamber of commerce can do for Brea, officers are asking all Brea merchants to attend the regular meeting Monday night at the American Legion hall.

Dinner at 8:30 will precede the regular business meeting.

Principal topic to be discussed, according to Vincent Jaster, president, is how the chamber can help local merchants and how it can promote local trade.

John M. Johnston, secretary of Anaheim C. of C., will be principal speaker and he will analyze problems confronting Brea's chamber and tell how other similar groups have solved them.

Johnston is a Stanford university graduate and has had a lot of experience in C. of C. work, according to Carl Harvey, program chairman.

The chamber is not asking Brea merchants to help it—but to help themselves.

Community Dances Will Be Twice a Month

Beginning Friday, March 13, a community dance will be held at Brea Woman's club every second and fourth Friday evening. Dancing will begin at 7:30.

While this will be a community affair, with the whole community invited, it also will serve as a social affair where the folks of Brea can help to entertain soldiers from nearby camps and stations. Forty soldiers will be here next

Then, on March 27, another committee will be in charge of the community dance and residents of another street will be asked to donate the refreshments.

Brea Woman's club has pledged the clubhouse free for these dances and everything will be free to the guests who come.

Brea Now Has a Shrapnel-Proof House

There is one house in Brea now that should give extra protection in case shrapnel should fall.

Dr. Elmer Otis has just completed putting a layer of one-inch thick boards on the attic floor of his new home and office at 216 East Birch street.

On top of these boards he has spread a layer of old carpet. Over the part of the roof that is flat, he has laid two layers of one-inch thick boards, crosswise.

Dr. Otis has boxes of sand handy in case the jets should hit his house with incendiary bombs.

If there are any other houses in Brea on which special wartime precautions have been made, the Progress will be glad to tell about them.

O. R. Meissner Talks About Lemons Florida Grows About

This man, O. R. Meissner of 410 South Orange avenue, must grow the lemons Florida thinks it raises.

For as one authority so plainly writes, "Botanically the lemon is a syncarpous, polycarpellary, many seeded, pale yellow berry, of oblong form, usually umbonate at the apex."

That all may be so but Meissner's lemons are not oblong but are downright fat. And not only are they fat but extend downward for better than four inches from the "umbonate apex."

Four specimens, which were undoubtedly the only ones he could sack, weighed about 14 ounces each.

Emil Carlson Files for City Councilman

First petition filed for city councilman was filed yesterday (Thursday) at 8:30 a. m. by Emil C. Carlson of 623 East Elm street.

Mrs. Grace May, city clerk, said Carlson's was the first petition to be filed.

Ontario Man Jailed Who Hit H. A. Rudds

Vernon C. Youngblood of Ontario, whose car smashed into Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Rudd of 310 West Birch about three weeks ago, was fined $75 and given a six months' jail sentence Friday morning at the trial held in Ohio.

Mrs. Rudd is better but is still confined to her bed and not allowed visitors.

Youngblood was charged with reckless driving and was claimed to have been drunk. His two companions in the car at the time of the accident escaped and have not yet been located.

Brea Baby Is Born on Way to Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pew of 414 East Birch Saturday morning started for a hospital in Whittier. Reason: a child was expected.

But on the way the stork caught up with them. So at 6:30 they routed out a La Habra doctor, then and there Baby Pew was born. After the birth an ambulance was called, mother and baby went to the hospital where they are doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Pew of 315 East Birch street are the grandparents of the new baby who has a sister, Virginia Belle, 5 years old. Grandpa Pew drove the car which made the detour to La Habra.

Postoffice Employees' Work Accompanied by 'Fowl' Jive

For a while Wednesday it sounded like Brea's postoffice employees had annexed post incubation duties to their already busy day as a chorus of "cheeps" emanated from the rear of the building.

But no, the music was furnished gratis by a group of baby chicks which Uncle Sam was delivering from San Jose to a Brea resident. Having nothing else to do and apparently satisfied with life the chicks settled down for a songfest interrupted only by a little jive.

We have received packages of baby chicks several times, Leonard DeGroot, postmaster, said.

erty is to be ceded and paid by Andrews.

4. Discussed corrections and adjustments to Brea's defense preparations.

5. Fred Boxall to fill up two fish ponds in the park to prevent children falling in and drowning. Boxall said all Brea's who want goldfish to leave their names with Mrs. Grace May, city clerk. There are a number of goldfish in the ponds which are to be filled, Boxall said.

Filling Station Personnel Has Several Changes

Three prominent Brea filling stations underwent changes this week. Up at the corner of Pomona and Central, Grover C. Willholt, long-time operator of that station, opened one of the newest and most modern stations in Orange county.

Willholt moved his old station to the rear of the lot, built a new one that would be a credit to Hollywood and Vine.

Bud Phillips moved his activities to the Associated filling station at Imperial and Pomona. It is understood the Pacific Executive building in Brea now will be at the Associated station.

Phillips had been at Pomona and Birch since 1932. Before that, for four years, he operated the Associated station to which he now has returned.

Charles McCormick, former accountant at Barton's garage here and secretary for several years of Brea Coffee club, has become operator of the Union Oil station Bud Phillips vacated.

McCormick has operated stations in Anaheim and Olive for the past two years, says he is mighty glad to be working again in Brea. He resides here.

W. F. Morton of 244 South Walnut who operated the Associated station the past eight months, has no plans for the moment but he expects to find work shortly.

Two 'Prowlers' Are Scared More Than They Scared

Two local men, considerably under the influence of John Barleycorn, scared several residents on the west side of town late one night last week.

But the residents apparently were not half as scared as the "prowlers," according to authentic information.

It seems the nightawks were on the way home but because of their befuddled condition mentally (to say nothing of their condition physically) they got into the wrong yard (or yards).

Floundering around in strange flower gardens, they awakened some of the fast sleepers who turned on floodlights, went a-searching for guns.

The interlopers finally got away before they were arrested or shot, but one, in his haste to "get these hence," lost a shoe.

Later, when told what had happened, told how close they might have come to being shot, they were much impressed. In fact, one night lifer was so impressed he solemnly swore—with hand held high: "Never again!"

Soldiers Are Here!

Starting yesterday, members of Uncle Sam's army began moving into Brea.

It is understood there will be several groups of soldiers come here during the next few days or as soon as quarters can be arranged for them.

Co-operating with the Office of Censorship and in compliance with the Code of Wartime Practices issued to newspapers, the Progress will not give further details.

However, it is no secret that soldiers are here . . . for a day, a week, a month, or for the duration.

Next week, after the officers are here and the soldiers located, it may be possible to give more information—of a non-military nature—about our new guests.

In the meantime, it behooves every citizen to be friendly, considerate, generous to these new neighbors of ours!

Norman Barnharts Are Bruised, Cut in Auto Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Barnhart of 509 East Imperial highway were shaken up and she received numerous cuts and bruises in an automobile accident in Fullerton last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnhart were returning home from Fullerton and at the intersection of Wilshire and Harvard streets another car crashed into the rear of their car, spinning the Barnhart car around and turning it over on the top.

He only received a little bump and was able to climb out but she was knocked unconscious.

Ambulance was called and Mrs. Barnhart was taken to the Fullerton Cottage hospital where she stayed Thursday evening but came home Friday morning where she was confined to her bed for two days.

She was badly bruised and received numerous cuts, many about her face.

Body of their car was smashed but not a single tire blew out, they exclaimed.

Their son, Laurence, was not with them at the time of the accident but was staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Everhart.

At Last! Young Ted Craig Can Smile!

Ted Craig, jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Craig, 111 West Imperial, enlisted in the army air corps in April.

Since then he has waited to be called. He waited a bit impatiently at times and finally reached the point where it was even hard for the once genial football star to smile.

But all things come to those who wait, 'tis said, so now Ted has his orders to report for training this coming week.

Craig was captain of the 1941 football team at Brea-Olinda and last year he starred on the championship Santa Ana junior college squad which won the championship.

For his stellar work on the grid-iron, Craig was awarded a gold football and a travel jacket, a rare honor for a freshman to receive this coveted prize.

Tommy, Ted's younger brother, will carry on, he says, while Ted is gone.

May God Bless the Great Mrs. Alice Massey!

Mrs. Alice Massey left Brea a short time ago to be with her husband, Harry, who is engaged in war work at Vallejo.

This week the Progress received a postal from Mrs. Massey which read:

"Please send my paper to 918 Branchforte street, Vallejo, Calif.

"The arrival of the Progress from home is the highlight of the week. I couldn't get along without it."

Brea Theater Will Be Reopened Sunday

Brea theater will be reopened Sunday for business after being closed for several months.

Trigg Gumm, owner, has been working the past several days to clean it up and have it in top shape for Sunday.

He is also working to procure the best pictures which are at all available.

So again the theater lights will blink on Pomona avenue—a welcome sight, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fike Are Parents of Baby Boy

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Fike of 301 North Pomona avenue recently in a Whittier hospital.

He was a husky chap weighing 8 pounds and has been named Wayne Lafayette.

Grandparents of the new baby are Mrs. Mary Bearden of Duncan, Okla., and Charles Hulsey of Dallas, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Fike moved to Brea recently from Duncan, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. William Finley Have New Granddaughter

Mr. and Mrs. William Finley of 243 South Laurel avenue have received word from their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Farrell Finley of South Gate, of the arrival of a new granddaughter.

The young lady arrived Wednesday, July 1, and weighed 8 pounds 4 ounces.

She has been named Claudia Joan and is the second child in the family.

Claudia is the fifth granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Finley who, alas, have no grandsons.

Has Your 'Pooch' a New License?

Brea police are now collecting dog licenses which became due and payable July 1.

The new license is good from July 1, 1942, to July 1, 1943.

If you want to keep out of the doghouse with your "pooch" you better buy him a license pronto.

Concert Scheduled Wednesday Night at City Park

First of a series of weekly concerts is scheduled for Wednesday night beginning at 8 o'clock in Brea city park.

These concerts will be given every Wednesday evening for eight weeks.

The new band bowl, near the swimming pool, is now under construction.

Don't Forget Your Scrap Rubber!

Those who haven't turned in their scrap rubber to their nearest service station still can add to the drive by acting today (Friday) or tomorrow.

What may happen if this drive is not successful has already been fully discussed elsewhere.

Complete report of amount collected will be given next week.

Oliver Crowell, Former Brean, Dies in Michigan

Word was received last week by Ed Curtis, president of Brea-Olinda union high school board of trustees, of the death of his brother-in-law, Oliver Crowell, former Brea resident.

Crowell had a battery and ignition business located where Ed Peterkin now has his transfer office on South Pomona.

Mr. and Mrs. Crowell lived here about eight years and moved to Michigan in 1934.

He was engaged in defense work in Detroit, Mich., recently.

USO Recreation Center Opens for Business Today

Grand official opening of Brea's first USO recreational center will be held today (Friday) at 12 o'clock noon, 109 South Pomona avenue.

While the center has been prepared for the benefit of boys of the armed forces in Brea and those who come here to visit or pass through the city, the citizens are cordially invited to drop in this afternoon to see how the place looks.

Punch and cookies will be served as refreshments.

Lots of Labor!
A great deal of work has been done to get this building ready for the soldiers.

First, Joe Witten, owner of the building, donated the use of the large room.

The USO authorized repairing the floor, painting the walls, putting the building in condition.

The Union Oil company donated the use of all the chairs and desks needed.

Kenneth Horton of the Imperial cafe donated the use of an upright piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Craig of 111 West Imperial highway donated a ping pong table with complete equipment.

However, more equipment is needed such as easy chairs, rugs of any kind, lamps, books, magazines. Anyone having any of these articles is asked to call at the USO center and tell them about it.

A Touch of Home!
As everyone knows, this USO spot will give our soldiers a place to go, to write letters, to read, to play the victrola, piano, badminton, to meet their friends.

A Brea woman—who will donate her services—always will be on hand. That is, there will be a local woman in charge from 2 p. m. until 11 p. m. seven days a week.

Much credit is due a group of public spirited women who laid plans and finished the job this week. They are:

- Mrs. Ada Hawkins, general chairman.
 - Mrs. Hazel Ve'Del, home furnishings chairman; Mrs. Thomas Miller, Mrs. Earl Doty, Mrs. Leonard DeGross.
 - Mrs. Frank Bickel, food committee chairman; Mrs. Ray Wheeler.
 - Mrs. Vivian Nicodemus, home hospitality chairman.
 - Mrs. Ray Cole, social committee chairman; Mrs. Lolita Russell, Mrs. Leo West.
 - Mrs. Mabel Harden, girls committee chairman; Mrs. Ruby Ferree, Mrs. Leonard DeGross.
 - Mrs. Bea Livingston, typist.
- No doubt there will other committees formed and other workers added as time goes on.

Brea C. of C. Works to Get Brea Put in Defense Area

To have Brea put in a defense area, Brea Chamber of Commerce Monday night sent a telegram to Congressman Harry Shepard telling of the shortage of housing.

The telegram told of the more urgent need now than ever before for local building.

The local C. of C. took this action at the board of directors meeting at the home of B. H. Blanchard, secretary, 108 Redwood.

Board members asks all Breans, particularly organizations, to co-operate with the local theater. Since there are no shows on Wednesday, organizations are urged to have meetings on that night.

The theater is co-operating with the band by not having shows Wednesday evenings and the chamber board asks Breans to co-operate with the theater.

P. J. Fackelman Builds Bomb Shelter

Just in case bombs start falling around here, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Fackelman of 420 West Imperial highway won't have to guess what they will do.

For he just completed a bomb shelter which he believes will weather any bombing as long as there is not a direct hit.

Mr. Fackelman did all the work himself in his spare time. He began construction right after all the guns out loose that night along the coast.

The shelter is next to his home. He excavated dirt from one side of a small ravine and poured reinforced concrete. Top of the shelter is 10 inches thick and is still further strengthened with metal strips and blocks.

Front wall is 14 inches thick and made of stone. Side walls are 12 inches thick. The whole shelter is covered with dirt except for the front.

And what if bombs don't fall? Well, Mr. and Mrs. Fackelman have the best storeroom you have ever seen. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, according to the old adage.

Ancient Palestine Lives Again at Brea Lions Club Meet

The mists of thousands of years were rolled away yesterday at the Lions club by Rev. Wesley A. Havermale who talked on "Digging Up Buried Bible Cities."

Rector of the Episcopal Church of the Messiah at Santa Ana, the speaker's avocation or hobby is archaeology.
For one year he was with an expedition that dug down and discovered old forgotten cities, civilizations.

As physical evidences of those ancient peoples, Rev. Havermale displayed a fascinating collection of chalices, lamps, perfume bottles, even a bronze mixing bowl used by a Van Arsdale or a Close of three thousand years ago.

A Bottle for Tears!
Perhaps most interesting of all the archaeological finds exhibited was a tear bottle. Their use was similar to the modern way of sending flowers to a funeral. Instead of flowers the mourners would take these long necked bottles, shed tears into them, then the bottle would be stoppered, deposited in the tomb or grave.

Age of exhibits ranged from 2000 B. C. to late Roman empire.

In one place his group uncovered a doctor's office equipped with scalpels and probes quite similar to those used by doctors today.

Across the street from the doctor's office in that long forgotten city a beauty shop was found which coincided accurately with the description of women's adornments found in the sixth chapter of Isaiah.

"Palestine is the archaeologist's happy hunting ground," Rev. Havermale said, "because it is a narrow strip of land—one one side the mountains, on the other the Mediterranean—across which armies and civilizations from Mesopotamia, Syria and Egypt flowed back and forth."

Honored guests were Chief of Police James Pearson, Hugh Johnson, Rev. Errol Sloan, Rev. Thomas Matthews.

Music was supplied by Miss Glorianna Daugherty who played three piano numbers in her usual professional-like manner.

A swiss steak and ice cream meal was served by Woman's club members Mrs. T. P. Wallace, Mrs. J. H. Griest, Mrs. John Daugherty, Mrs. Clare Wilhelm, Mrs. Joe Cummings.

Religious Services at Nazarene Church Many People

Religious meetings of Rev. J. L. Wilde, evangelist, and artists and religious workers are proving most popular. The next meeting will be held on Saturday (except Saturday) at the Nazarene church. An interesting couple will be bringing their message to Brea until Sunday.

Rev. K. Mathews, pastor of the Nazarene church, reports a good attendance at church services and a large number of people at school.

Benefit Card February 13

The benefit card party at the Nazarene church on February 13, at 8 p. m., will be in charge of Mrs. J. L. Wilde. Tables for contract bridge, pinochle, 500, and cribbage.

Refreshments will be served at the evening. See membership card.

Target Old Time

The target evening, February 13, will be a well-furnished box party at the Brea Parent-Teachers Association.

Laurel kindergarten will be successful in their efforts during the evening.

Things are going well at the Brea Parent-Teachers Association.

Brea Boy Wounded In South Pacific

Cecil Johnson of East Birch has received official notice that his brother, Corp. B. C. (Bill) Johnson, was injured in the battle of the South Pacific on January 16.

Bill, who was a Brea resident before he joined up two years ago, made his home with Mrs. A. Calderwood, 228 Randolph. He has been in foreign service for nearly a year.

Mrs. Georgia Johnston, 233 South Pomona, is a sister-in-law of the young man.

Three Breans Selected For 1943 Trial Jury Panel

When Presiding Judge Kenneth Morrison and Superior Court Judges Scovel and West announced the 1943 trial jury panel for Orange county this week, there were three Breans among the 196 men and women selected.

Breans are William, E. Homme, of 203 Poplar; Charles Harvey of 238 South Madrona and Mrs. Cora Gatchell of 241 South Pomona.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brooks Will Reside in East

Mrs. A. Elizabeth Brooks of Central avenue, long a Brea resident, sold her household goods and left last Friday to visit with her daughters.

Going first to the home of Mrs. George Maronda in Long Beach, she plans to leave about March 1 for Primos, Pennsylvania, her girlhood home. There she will make her home with her recently married daughter, Elizabeth.

Harold Ireton's Parents Of Son

A 9 pound, 12 ounce baby boy was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ireton of La Habra.

Mrs. Ireton is the former Margaret Ramage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ramage of 137 South Flower.

Joint Board Will Manage Woman's Club Building

Some time ago it was decided that, because the government as well as the Lions club and the Woman's club had financed Brea's Woman's club house, a joint board should be appointed to operate this community building.

This board has been appointed; consists of W. D. Shaffer, mayor; Mrs. T. Parks Wallace, president of Woman's club; Mrs. O. S. Close, Mrs. Rollo Fleisher, Mrs. A. A. Voorhees.

As many will recall, when the building was built, the government—through the WPA—put in some money, as did the Lions and the Woman's club. Then all furnishings and equipment were supplied by the two local organizations.

As always, the clubhouse is open for use of any local individual or organization. Any one interested should contact Mrs. Close at Close drug store or Mrs. Grace May, city clerk.

Former Brean Called By Death

Joe O'Neil of Long Beach, for many years a resident of Brea, passed away Tuesday night after a brief illness that terminated in pneumonia.

O'Neil worked in the oil fields around Brea for many years and spent some time in South America in the same capacity.

Leaving Brea about ten years ago he has since been a resident of Long Beach and has worked in the shipyards there.

His wife, four children, and one grandchild are left to mourn his passing.

Funeral services will be held at 11:30 a. m., Monday in Long Beach. The deceased was an uncle of Mrs. Dyer Bennett of 247 North Pomona.

Many Breans Prepare For War Work At F. J. C.

A list of Brea men and women taking training or who recently took training in national defense classes at Fullerton junior college was released this week by E. Michael Crotty, director of adult education and training here.

They are as follows:

MACHINE SHOP
Bivens, Leo B., 336½ South Madrona; Cogbill, James Q., 140 North Orange; Markham, Arduth, P. O. Box 63; Navarro, Frank M., 126 South Laurel; Nedderman, Gerald, 412 Maple; Swenson, Raymond H., 533 South Walnut; Taylor, Bruce, 407 West Date.

How good are the various civilian defense groups in Brea?

How well would they function if an actual bombing took place here?

Answers to these questions, and perhaps many others the local civilian defense command has in mind, will be found Monday evening, February 8, when Brea has its first practice air raid.

Under the local defense set up, Brea is divided into five districts. In one of these districts Monday at 7 p. m., bombs (theoretically, of course) will fall.

At that moment all civilian defense organizations will go into action.

Where the theoretical bombs will fall will not be made known until it theoretically happens, according to Leland Auer, who, with Mayor W. D. Shaffer, is head of the OOD here.

Also, what damage the bombs do will not be announced until the zero hour.

That is, will ambulances be needed? Or the auxiliary fire department? Or the auxiliary police? And so on.

Art White, jr., chief air warden, has asked all his block wardens to be ready. Also he suggests that each block warden commandeer helpers to assist him in his duties.

There will be no sirens blow, no traffic stopped, no lights out, no interference whatsoever with the citizens. No one should get excited because the whole thing is mock . . . simulated . . . practice . . . rehearsal.

The alert comes on at 6:45 Monday evening; the raid happens at 7; it will be over at 8.

Then at 8:30 all those who take part in the civilian defense practice raid will gather at the band room of the high school for skull practice on what was done wrong and what was done right.

The heads of the defense units should or will contact each member of his group to tell him where to be and what to do during this practice raid.

Brea Theatre Has New Screen

Brea theatre has just received, by express from New York, a new screen 20x15 feet. This is much larger than the one damaged.

Installation was made Wednesday and Thursday of this week by John F. Filbert company, screen experts, of Los Angeles.

As the screen is larger the sound shell and baffle plates will have to be increased in size. Also a complete change of set-up of projection equipment and a change over to more powerful wide angle lens.

These were located only after considerable trouble and expense.

However, notwithstanding the expense and trouble, Mr. Gumm seems especially jubilant over the fact that he was successful in finding a pair of Ross imported lenses of the focus and type suited to his

Mrs. Henry Rudd Honors Mother on Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. John Quinliven of Willits, parents of Mrs. Henry Rudd, are guests in her home.

Yesterday Mrs. Quinliven observed her 76th birthday and in honor of the occasion, her daughter entertained with a chicken dinner.

The dinner table was centered with a birthday cake decorated in blue and white and nut cups in the same shade carried out the chosen color scheme.

Many were the gifts showered upon the honoree accompanied by wishes for many happy returns. Plans were laid for Mr. and Mrs.

Orange County Has Few Boys At Whittier School

Only three boys out of the 324 inmates at the Fred C. Nellis School for Boys in Whittier, are from Orange county, Brea Lions were told yesterday by one who should know, Paul McKusick, superintendent.

Introduced by Program Chairman William Rodger, the speaker said the average of juvenile delinquents is going down—the average now being 13 to 14 years.

At this corrective school they try to get the boys interested in a hobby so they will get an interest in life, the speaker said.

Pvt. Frelen Kelley of Camp Cooke spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kelley of 223 South Walnut.

Misses Virginia Williams, Marilyn Johnson and Mrs. Robert Johnson of South Pomona, were Saturday visitors in Los Angeles, where they saw Betty Jo Curtright, formerly of Brea, who now resides in Montebello. Betty Jo reported that she missed all of her school-mates.

Longhorn Cafe No. 2

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Self last week became co-owners of Tom's Longhorn cafe No. 2 on South Pomona.

Long time friends in Texas and California of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson, the Selfs have one daughter, Marjorie, 16 years old.

They are living at 238½ South Pomona.

Modest Mr. Burgess Retires After 27

Years with Union Oil

S. L. Burgess of North Pomona is well and favorably known as a (1) valued executive of Union Oil company; (2) collector of moustache cups; (3) thrifty boy who buys and sells real estate, citrus lands, beach cottages.

But withal, this fellow Burgess is a modest man.

For on June 14 he retired from Union Oil company after 27 years 9 months of labor and being present.

But not a word did he say so the Progress could hear. He roamed the streets and groves as of yore, looking busy and prosperous as ever.

Moustachio Collectorio Burgessio hopes to get in some fishing and hunting if and when gasoline comes back.

In the meantime he and Mrs. Burgess will continue to reside in the same spot and the same house where they have lived for 27 years and 11 months.

Baptist Church Will Have Sunday School Picnic This Eve

First Baptist church of Brea will hold its annual Sunday school picnic Friday (tonight) at Brea park.

Games for children begin at 5 p.m. and there will be planned recreation for all from that time until dinner at 6:30.

During the afternoon there will be lemonade available to all. Prizes will be given for winners of games in all age groups.

To those who may read this item as their first information concerning the party, the committee in charge suggests that you bring a covered dish or two, as the evening meal is to be "potluck" style.

A surprise has been planned for the children.

All members and friends of Baptist Sunday school and church are cordially invited to come and enjoy this good time.

Ross Warner Raises Cain With Watermelon Pop

Ross Warner, Brea's leading roadside merchant, last Sunday draped a long line of stands on North Pomona, sold more than 200 watermelons to the passing throng.

He also sold 200 lugs of peaches, as well as other vegetables and fruits.

"This way we get a lot of outside money for Brea," Warner mused.

Elan Candle Co. and Old Timers Club Change Buildings

Elan Candle company and the Old Timers club decided last week it would be mutually advantageous if they exchanged locations. The candle company needed more room for manufacturing, the Old Timers could get along with less space for their deliberations and cogitations.

So now the candle factory is at 133 South Pomona while the mature ones are at 129 South Pomona.

Broadcast Reports on Condition of Nephew of Mrs. Chas. Harvey

Missing on May 26 when his P-38 fighter plane was shot down over enemy territory, Lt. Clarence Scrivener, nephew of Mrs. Charles Harvey, South Madrona, has been heard from indirectly via a German short wave broadcast.

According to Mrs. Harvey, her sister, mother of Lt. Scrivener, received a telegram from the U. S. provost marshal general, which read:

"Unofficial short wave broadcast from Germany has been intercepted as follows:

"Lt. Clarence Scrivener no longer has temperature. Salve bandages still being applied to burns. General condition of the patient is good."

Apparently Mrs. Harvey's nephew was burned when shot down.

He received his preliminary army air force training at Santa Ana and has visited his aunt and uncle here many times.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Canavello sr. of West Imperial learned this week that their son Pvt. Dudley Canavello has been transferred from Pueblo, Colo., to Lincoln, Nebraska.

An army truck, driven by an Italian war prisoner, tried to make the turn at Pomona and Central Wednesday morning—and didn't.

As a result, eight army automobile motors were dumped into the lap of G. C. Willholt's filling station while the truck itself made a complete somersault—with the Italian in it—landed north and south across Central.

Two trucks were in the convoy—an empty one driven by an American soldier led the procession.

Either the Eyette was going too fast or he didn't notice the turn signal of the soldier.

Strange as it may seem, Senior Mussolini was unharmed except for a small scratch of his wrist. But he was scared.

Of course this fright may have been a hangover from the time he was captured in Egypt by the British.

The reporter for the Progress has a long and interesting conversation with the prisoner who was about 19, big, handsome, who did not look like a furriner at all.

He said he was with the Italian army that went into Egypt and nearly reached the gates of Alexandria. That was just before Montgomery started the long drive to chase the Hitlerites out of Africa.

In describing this operation, the ex-Rommelite said: "Alexandria... whoosh... Tunisia."

(The way the local reporter was able to have such an enlightened confab with the war prisoner was because the American truck driver was of Italian descent, acted as interpreter.)

War From Pomona Apprehended Here

A German prisoner of war, one of three who escaped from a Pomona work camp on Sunday, was taken into custody Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Aldrich of 411 West Imperial highway.

The German, who gave his name as Kurt Langner, had gone to the Aldrich home seeking food. He did not speak English but without the aid of several interpreters it was evident that the man preferred capture and food to further wandering and hunger.

Mrs. Aldrich notified police authorities and Langner was turned over by them to the army and FBI.

Before he was taken from her home Mrs. Aldrich stated that Langner had bolted a large amount of food and apparently had not eaten for several days. He was also given a package of cigarettes.

Asked why he had left camp the prisoner replied that he wanted to see the country.

Langner's fellow fugitives, who have been identified as George Meindell, 21, and Warren Urt, 20, both about 5 feet 8 inches in height and weighing 140 pounds, are suspected of being responsible for the theft of Joe Neal's Oldsmobile car and two turkeys from the Millen place on Berry avenue.

Shoepriints found near where the car was stolen are similar to shoes worn by prisoners of war and as some Germans have been taught that Argentina is less than 100 miles from the United States it is thought that the escapees may be trying to make their way to that country.

Police authorities express the opinion that the men are still somewhere in the vicinity of Brea or Fullerton, hiding by day and attempting to travel by night.

Sergeant Carner Jr. Presented Medal

Sergeant Irwin W. Carner Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Carner of 203 east Elm street, has been awarded the bronze star medal, according to information Mrs. Carner received May 8. With General George Patton's fourth armored division, Sergeant Carner wrote his mother of the award in a letter sent from Germany April 2. Further specific details of the individual basis for this award are at present lacking, but the medal normally is presented for extraordinary heroism in action.

Married and father of a young boy of eighteen months, Sergeant Carner is a graduate of the Brea schools. His wife, the former Miss Dede Cox, and their son, Bob, are now living in Fullerton with her parents.

25 Germans, War Captives, Pick Fruit

Twenty-five German prisoners of war were put to work over the week-end picking oranges from trees on the 143 acre Brea Ranch, located on south Pomona avenue. The prisoners have been hired by the Orange Belt Citrus Fruit Distributors of Pomona, owners of the ranch, with the cooperation of military authorities.

Benoit Oxandaboure of 711 south Pomona avenue, who is in charge of affairs on the local ranch, stated Monday night that most of these prisoners of war by now at last seem to have become convinced that Germany has lost the war. One has even condoned, it was reported, to admit that Hitler did do a stupid thing when he entered into war with the United States!

Oxandaboure judges that the prisoners range in age from about seventeen to twenty-three. Generally, they seem to be in good health. One apparently has a good knowledge of the English language, and most of them speak some French as well as German. There have been one or two cases of minor difficulties in dealing with them but, on the whole, it seems that what work they do is usually done well.

Each prisoner of war is expected to pick a quota of thirty-two boxes of oranges a day, according to Benoit. He is of the opinion that if the Germans had treated our prisoners of war as well as these are being treated we would not have had so much cause for concern. (Editor's note: See the item in this issue in which the Progress cites Sergeant Mervin McHenry's information on the subject.)

In April, German prisoners of war also helped pick lemons on the Brea Ranch.

Souvenir Received By Mrs. W. Jeffress

Private First Class Pauline Wagner of the WACS, serving with the armed forces in Italy, has sent her friend, Mrs. W. E. Jeffress of South Walnut avenue, another unique souvenir. This time it is a copy of the Mediterranean edition of the service newspaper, Stars and Stripes, dated May 3, announcing that the "Nazl Armies in Italy Surrender."

Since the signature of surrender took place in the Royal palace at Caserta, Italy where WAC Wagner has been stationed, the occasion must have had special meaning to her.

The issue of the paper was mailed appeared to request an ordinance that would protect business places and homes against a repetition of the damage and flying sand that was caused last week when a Santa Ana contractor sandblasted the Oilfields National Bank building. The council expressed the belief that similar situations might be controlled by a more strict observance of the licensing of out of town contractors doing business in Brea.

Harold McCabe, a Fullerton lawyer, sat with the councilmen as legal adviser in place of Elmer Guy, who has been ill.

After the meeting adjourned Mayor Carlsson and Councilmen Crowe, Jones, Monroe and Schryer bought personal memberships in the new Chamber of Commerce from Membership Committee Chairman Ernest Taylor, who attended the meeting with Elvin Wilson of the Shaffer Tool Works.

Mrs. M. Jeffress and Granddaughter Share Honors at Party

Celebrating both Mother's Day and the birthday of her granddaughter, Mrs. Marie Jeffress was one of two honor guests at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McIlroy of Burbank, Sunday, May 13.

The granddaughter, Patricia Rose McIlroy, who had reached the age of twelve the day before, shared honors.

Guests at the occasion in addition to Mrs. Jeffress and her daughter, Gaynelle, included: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jeffress and daughter, Sylvia, Mrs. Ruth Jeffress and daughter, Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jackson and daughter Patricia, Miss Louise Church, niece of Mrs. Marie Jeffress, and Technical Sergeant D. Vimini of the Santa Ana air base.

Gifts were exchanged and a delicious dinner was served the guests.

City Officials to Attend Meeting of Joint City Leagues

Brea city officials, headed by Mayor Emil Carlsson, plan to attend the joint meeting of the City Leagues of Orange and Los Angeles counties to be held next Thursday night, May 24, at Huntington Beach.

The Brea delegation is looking forward to a well spent evening as Lawrence Olson, Washington representative for California cities, will be the principal speaker.

Others wishing to attend this meeting should get in touch with the Mayor at his home on 622 East Elm street.

Linguists Jaster, Schweitzer, Help In P.O.W. Case

Brea Grammar School Principal Vincent Jaster and his neighbor, Frank Schweitzer, took on the holes of interpreters Tuesday night when Brea found an escaped German prisoner of war on their hands. Jaster has given the Progress a first-hand account of what took place.

Bill Atkins of the local police phoned Jaster around 9:15 p.m. Tuesday, and inquired if there was a teacher who could interpret German. Jaster volunteered his own services as interpreter and then asked his neighbor, Frank Schweitzer of 1019 East Elm street, who also knows the language, to help.

Atkins picked the two of them up and drove them over to the Aldrich house on West Imperial Highway where they found the Aldriches feeding the escaped prisoner.

The boy—he gave his age as eighteen—appeared to be of medium height. He had dark hair, and looked freshly shaven. He was still wearing his prisoner of war clothes.

The escaped prisoner whose name, it was learned, is Kurt Langner, surprisingly had asked to be taken to the police. Jaster states that the main purpose of his and Schweitzer's conversation was to give an answer, and to tell the fellow both that he was to be put in jail overnight and that he would be turned over to the FBI the next day. However, they incidentally learned something of Langner's own background.

Stating that he had come from Pomona, the escaped prisoner said that he was a spray-painter by profession. It appears from his statements that he was captured in Holland in the fall of 1944, sent to Oxford, England, and then to the United States. His brother, he told Jaster and Schweitzer, was killed in the battle for Stalingrad. He sidestepped the question as to who had won the war.

Oh, yes, when asked if he had any lady friends, he said no, he had gone to war at the age of sixteen and hadn't had time!

School Election Held Today at Laurel

Election for two posts as trustees for Brea-Olinda Union High School and one member for the local elementary school board are being held today at the Laurel school from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The trustees posts which are to be filled are those held by J. F.

Other committees will also be named if the present plan Ernest Taylor and those who with him materialize.

An effort is being made to get Col. William H. Evans of Linda as guest speaker and the secretary of the Fullerton Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce.

On Wednesday evening, Mr. Taylor reported at a meeting of his membership committee at the Brea Furniture Store close to fifty members have been secured and that his committee had promises of more.

Lawrence Wagner, Ralph McEarl Templeman, Hugh Brown, Jack Raburn, Elvin Wilson and several others have been working the past several weeks on the membership drive.

The committee to hire a secretary will be chosen from among the elected officials and members of directors. It is hoped that a suitable man will be available; a list supplied by the place bureau of the professional societies association.

At the time of the temporary committees first fact-finding trip to the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce, information about secretaries association was placed in the hands of Elvin Wilson, temporary committee chairman. Others who went to Huntington Beach were: Earl Templeman; D. R. Derhoof and Harold P. Fry.

Volunteers Needed Help Pack Clothing Tues. and Wed.

On Tuesday at 1:00 o'clock the Brea Grammar School in room 5, Mrs. David Brown, chairman, assisted by a group of women, pack the clothing which was collected during the month of April to be sent overseas. Those helping are: Mesdames Melvin McMac, A. O. Henderson, E. B. Sloan, J. Swindle, Elva Bush, E. Johnson, E. Millar, George Johnson, Clay Rels, Jack Bordeaux, L. Gordon, Becker, Joe Hopkins and Hodges.

On the following evening, Wednesday, at 7 p.m. a number of volunteers to help with final packing. They are: E. B. Sloan, Kenneth Suttiff, David Brown, J. Bordeaux and L. E. Gordon.

Additional volunteers to aid workers both afternoon and evening will be greatly appreciated.

Johnson Writes Of Surviving Man Industry

the terrific destruction on Germany by allied forces, millions of dollars of modern machinery and underground plants of that are still standing. Part of plants in fact, are even now being goods by and for German. This is the core of the sent Paul Poore of 289 Poplar Avenue from his former Shaffer Tool works. Otho Johnson, now with S. armed forces in Germany. letter in which it came was July 15, Munich.

Following is Otho's letter cited in " . . . Paul, I quite agree with The boys did do a darn good over here. I have been across many from Holland to Munich times by truck and four times plane. I have been in some of larger cities such as Aachen, Munchen-Gladbach, Frankfurt and of course here in Munich. I'll say the boys did a darn job. In many of the smaller towns the size of Brea there is not a single building standing.

However, the damage to industry is not so great as it appears. As example: Our quarters and shops in a large auto manufacturing plant that had been converted to make radial (?) and jet-propelled plane engines as well as for experiments with a rocket by which they had planned to bomb New York. Above the ground the plants were well knocked down, but one did not go down underground directly beneath these ruins and find machine shops and warehouses in perfect condition.

"This underground plant is complete with modern locker rooms, with showers, and with latrines for the workers. There are also mess halls and sleeping quarters. The plant will soon be back on production; in fact, part of it is producing now, operated by and for German civilians. There are millions of dollars worth of fine modern machinery and tools here in this underground plant, some so new it shows no use at all. A lot of it is very complex with an assortment of optical instruments attached for making precision measurements. I sure wish I could send a shipload of it back to

Small Plane In Crash On Ridge

Stating that a light airplane crashed in the hills to the south of Brea at 3:55 p.m. Sunday afternoon, July 29, a representative of the County Sheriff's office told the Progress by phone Tuesday that no injuries had been reported. Apparently coming from a nearby airport, the plane was reported to be a two-seater commercial plane.

The site where the crash occurred was near the Union Oil Company well, Hole 18, to the south of the city.

As the story came into the Progress offices here from various sources, it appears that the plane got out of control as it neared the top of a ridge, got caught, then slid down the hillside.

Union Oil's Hole No. 18 is about a half-mile east of Pomona Avenue.

Pfc. James Luttrell Coming Home Soon From Europe

Authorities with the Cavalry Reconnaissance Squadron in the Assembly area, Communications zone, European theater of operations, notified the Progress Monday, July 30, that it is in a "big hurry to get home and on its way to the Pacific . . ." With the squadron, according to the notification, is Private First Class Jimmie W. Luttrell whose parents live at 343 South Walnut Street.

This offered verification of a sort to Jimmie's mother, Mrs. Rhoda Luttrell, who stated Tuesday morning, July 31, that she had received a letter from her son over two weeks ago stating that he expected to be home soon.

Becoming operational on December 13, 1944, at Linnich, Germany, just before the German breakthrough, the 44th Squadron spanned the Roer river under the 9th Army's famous artillery canopy of February 23, and in 16 days was on the Rhine. "It spearheaded the drive to the Elba, patrols contacting the Russians," the report continues.

Jimmie, who is 23 and a native of Young Moody Infant, Grandson of Mrs. Meadows, Passes

"Another infant tragedy has struck members of the Brea community.

Clarence Ray Moody, grandson of Mrs. Effie Meadows of the 100 block South Orange Avenue, passed away Sunday afternoon, July 29, at 2:30 p.m. at the Catholic Sisters Hospital in Fullerton. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Moody of 137 East Glenwood, Fullerton.

Private Clarence Benton Meadows, husband of the baby's grandmother, and Private First Class Gervis Moody, brother of the baby's father, arrived in Brea Monday night for the funeral. Corporal Lee Moody, of Florence, South Carolina, had also notified the family of his intention to appear.

Funeral services were scheduled for last Wednesday afternoon, August 1, at 2 p.m. at the McWane Funeral Home in La Habra with interment at the Loma Vista cemetery, Reverend Robert Hargis officiating.

Others of the family who arrived for the ceremony included Mrs. Olive Berry and Mrs. Irene Smith of San Diego.

Other relatives include Mrs. Marie McDaniel of the Brea Hotel, a sister of Mrs. Meadows, and Andrew Moody of Santa Ana, a brother of Dallas Moody.

Thomas Woodard Returns To U. S. By Snowball Fleet

Arriving at the Presque Isle Army Air Field, Thursday, July 28, aboard an Air Transport Command plane of the North Atlantic Division's Snowball fleet, Private First Class Thomas H. Woodard, 23, has returned to the United States after 24 months service overseas.

Woodard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodard, of 445 South Madrona Avenue. Tom's comment on his flight home via the ATC plane was brief and to the point, "very good."

While overseas the Private was a bandsman in the European Theater of Operations. He has been awarded the following medals and decorations: Good Conduct ribbon, European Theater of Operations ribbon, five campaign stars, presidential unit citation, and the American

German Escapees Try For Second Time--- And Fail Again

This time armed with ten-inch knives and wearing civilian clothes, the two German inmates of the prisoners-of-war camp at Pomona who allegedly had stolen an auto from the home of Joe Neuls on Berry Avenue last May, again have attempted to escape punishment—and have failed.

The prisoners, Georg Meindl and Werner Ehrt, broke out of their guardhouse at the Pomona camp, cut their way through two wire fences, and escaped a week ago Wednesday night, July 25. Upon their escape they left a note which indicated to authorities that the prisoners had considered the five-year penalty for their previous adventure too severe.

Five days after their escape, the men were apprehended through the cooperation of both Buena Park and Fullerton police as well as men of the California Highway Patrol.

According to report, one was seized on Nicholas Avenue, in Buena Park. The other hid in an orange tree in a nearby citrus grove until discovered.

In their first escape attempt the men passed through Brea together with one other escaped prisoner, a Kurt Langner, who was apprehended after he had stopped at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Aldrich of 411 West Imperial Highway. Meindl and Ehert, however, had fled down the coast in the auto they had stolen until stopped six miles south of Tijuana in Mexico. They were then taken into custody again and returned to the Pomona camp.

Neither of the men are said to be able to speak English. Last May Vincent Jaster and Frank Schwelzer, who know the German language, interpreted when Langer was interrogated.

Catch German Escapees in Mexico--FBI

Aftermath of Brea's recent affair with escaped German prisoners of war came Tuesday, May 22, when San Diego Federal Bureau of Investigation Chief William Murphy announced that the two men still at large had been apprehended in Mexico. Murphy stated that they were picked up by a Mexican patrol car at 2 a.m. Tuesday morning as they were hiking along the highway six miles south of Tijuana.

According to the Los Angeles Times, the pair, Werner Ebert, 20, and George Meindl, 21, still clad in prisoner-of-war uniforms, said they had been using the stars to guide them in a southerly direction while traveling afoot only at night. It was their impression, they told Mexican authorities, that Mexico was neutral and would give them refuge, according to the paper's account.

Meanwhile, the auto which the pair allegedly had stolen from the Joe Neuls home on Berry avenue west of town, had been recovered
last Friday near San Diego State College. The two fugitives denied stealing it, when captured. They also claimed to have subsisted on candy bars and bread taken from the Pomona camp from which they had escaped.

F.B.I. man Murphy stated that Ebert and Meindl will be held in a Mexican army barracks near Tijuana until released to the United States through State Department channels.

Birthday Dinner by Citrol Lodge Tonight

A birthday pot luck dinner is being held tonight at the Masonic Hall by the Citrol Lodge, No. 656,
F. & A. M. for members and friends, according to Roy Monroe.

Everyone is asked to bring meat,

Poppy Drive Sale Today, Tomorrow

Today and tomorrow, May 25 and 26, have been set aside for the sale of veteran poppies in Brea by the Women's Auxillary
Post of the American Legion.
Mrs. Hattie Neal, 421 South Madrona avenue, Poppy Drive chairman, has gathered a sizeable crew of helpers who plan to sell 1200 poppies.

Posters publicizing the drive have been put on display in store windows along Pomona avenue, and the whole front of the empty show windows of the former J. H. Purves store is full of paintings. The posters were made by local grade and high school students in a contest sponsored by the auxillary and the local art teachers.

Sergeant Thomas Out of Service

Staff Sergeant Donald Thomas, mustered out of the service on May 5 with a medical discharge, is now residing at 212 South Madrona avenue. Born in Bakersfield, he has been in the service for some time.
After an earlier period of service with the army, he had been discharged in February, 1942, due to a physical defect. Nevertheless he joined the Marines that month, then was shipped out almost directly to Guadalcanal.

A rear-gunner in a dive-bomber, Sergeant Thomas was wounded in both legs and in the shoulder at Tulagi. After being returned to the states, he was sent to the Marshals only to receive a burst of shrapnel.
He was returned to the United States in the fall of 1944 and has been convalescing in service hospitals since.

ORDINANCE NO. 173

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF Brea
RELATING TO AIR RAID PRECAUTIONS

The City Council of the City of BREA does hereby ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. As used in this ordinance the following words and phrases shall mean:

"Air raid warning signal" shall mean a signal, by siren, whistle, horn or other audible device, of two minutes duration consisting of either a fluctuating or warbling signal of varying pitch or a succession of intermittent blasts of about five seconds duration separated by a silent period of about three seconds.

"All clear signal" shall mean a continuous signal, by siren, horn or other audible device, of two minutes duration at a steady pitch.

"Period of air raid alarm" shall mean the interval of time between the giving of the air raid warning signal and the giving of the next succeeding all clear signal.

"Blackout structure" shall mean any space so enclosed that any illumination maintained or existing therein is not visible from any point outside such enclosure.

SECTION 2. The Chief of Police is hereby authorized and directed to cause the sounding of an air raid warning signal and of an all clear signal when, and only when, the district in which the city is located is notified so to do by the United States Aircraft Warning Service.

SECTION 3. Any person who effects or maintains any illumination, or permits any illumination under his control to be effected or maintained, at any place within the City of BREA during any period of air raid alarm in the hours of darkness, except within a blackout structure, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SECTION 4. The maintenance or leaving of any illumination, except within a blackout structure, without provision for its extinguishment, within one minute after the commencement of a period of air raid alarm by a competent person over the age of eighteen years attendant at the place where such illumination is controlled, is hereby prohibited.

SECTION 5. In order to enable the Chief of Police to conform to the request of the United States Aircraft Warning Service for the obscuration, diminution or extinguishment of any illumination, whether in or out of doors, which increases the vulnerability of the City of BREA, or any portion thereof, to air attack, or for the regulation of traffic during the period of air raid alarm, the Chief of Police may adopt and promulgate reasonable rules and regulations for such purposes, and any rules or regulations so adopted by him shall be and remain in effect for thirty (30) days thereafter, but no longer unless approved within said time by resolution of the City Council; provided, however, that any rule or regulation so adopted by the Chief of Police may at any time be rescinded by resolution of the City Council. Violation of any such rule or regulation so adopted and promulgated is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor.

SECTION 6. It shall be unlawful to disobey any lawful direction or order of a peace officer, highway patrolman, or fireman given during a period of air raid alarm, which order is reasonably necessary for the maintenance of public order or safety or to effect the extinguishment or obscuration of light.

SECTION 7. Any illumination contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, or to any rule or regulation adopted and promulgated in accordance with section 5 hereof, constitutes a public nuisance, and the same may be summarily abated by any peace officer, highway patrolman, or fireman. Any structure may be entered by any peace officer, highway patrolman, or fireman, using reasonable force if necessary, for the purpose of abating such a nuisance by extinguishing such illumination.

SECTION 8. At the commencement of a period of air raid alarm, the operator of any motor vehicle shall forthwith bring such vehicle as far as possible to the side of the street, road or highway off the main traveled portion thereof, and the operator of such motor vehicle, and the operator of any street car, shall bring such motor vehicle or street car to a stop clear of any crossing, intersection, fire house, fire plug, hospital or other emergency depot or area, and during the hours of darkness shall extinguish all lights therein or thereon and said motor vehicle or street car shall remain so situated during the period of air raid alarm, unless directed or ordered to move by a peace officer, highway patrolman, or fireman.

SECTION 9. The provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to blackout emergency vehicles, which shall include the following:

- 1) All Army and Navy vehicles;
- 2) All vehicles with United States Government credentials indicating the necessity of emergency movement;
- 3) All authorized emergency vehicles as defined in sections 44 and 44.1 of the Vehicle Code of California;
- 4) All vehicles being operated by members of the California State Guard while actually on duty;

5) All vehicles of volunteer personnel engaged in the operation of the Aircraft Warning Service of the Fourth Interceptor Command while such personnel are actually going to or from their posts of duty.

6) All vehicles certified by sheriffs, district attorneys, the California State Highway Patrol, police chiefs, and fire chiefs, when within the respective territorial jurisdictions of the certifying office, as being essential to the preservation of the public peace and safety or to the dissemination of public information or to the national defense; provided, however, that such vehicles shall conform to the uniform lighting regulations approved by the Department of Motor Vehicles and the California State Highway Patrol for blackout emergency vehicles. No certificate shall be issued which conflicts with any regulation or order of the United States Army applicable in the area for which the certificate is issued.

SECTION 10. It shall be unlawful for any person without authority, during any air raid alarm, to use, wear, exhibit or possess any uniform, insignia, credential, or other indication of authority, or any imitation thereof, adopted and issued by any official civilian defense organization.

SECTION 11. Any person who shall operate a siren, whistle or other audible device in such a manner as to simulate an air raid warning signal or an all clear signal, except upon order of the Chief of Police, or other proper authority, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SECTION 12. The provisions of every ordinance of this city and every administrative order made pursuant thereto, requiring any illumination to be maintained in conflict with this ordinance or with any rule or regulation made pursuant to section 5 of this ordinance, shall be deemed suspended during the period between any air raid warning signal and the next succeeding all clear signal.

SECTION 13. Any person who shall violate any provision of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300.00) or by imprisonment in the City Jail or in the County Jail not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 14. This ordinance is required for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and the following is the statement of facts constituting such urgency: The United States is at war and this city is in great and continuing danger of air and other attack by the enemy.

SECTION 15. If any provision of this ordinance or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this ordinance are declared to be severable.

SECTION 16. The City Clerk shall certify to the adoption of this ordinance and cause it to be published once in the BREA PROGRESS a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in this city and thenceforth and thereafter the same shall be in full force and effect.

This Ordinance Approved this 17th day of December, 1941.

Charles W. Rist, Old Timer, Dies En Route to Hospital

Charles W. Rist of Maple avenue, an old-timer in Brea, passed away last Thursday, September 4, en route to an Orange hospital after an illness in his home here.

Rist, 59 years old, came to Brea from Colorado in 1908. He rode a bicycle to Brea, from Fullerton to get a job on the Graham Loftus lease, secured the position and drove a team of mules for the lease for some time.

He and his wife later resided at the G. P. lease before moving to their present home in Brea.

For the last 10 or 12 years, as his health permitted, Rist worked on well pulling units around Bakerfield.

More than ever, the last few years he had been a lover of books. Since he was interested in such subjects as surveying, carpenter work, chemistry and mining, he enjoyed reading about those subjects.

Rist worked for the county helping put in curbing and doing carpenter work; he helped oil and grade the Olanda boulevard the first time the work was done and also helped to erect the buildings years ago at the old Loftus airport.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at Flanagan mortuary in Fullerton with burial at Loma Vista cemetery.

Those surviving him are his wife,

Ellingsen Elected Vice-President of Chiksan Tool Co.

Frank Ellingsen of 326 South Orange, for years a prominent citizen of Brea, was elected vice-president in charge of production of the Chiksan Tool company at the annual stockholders' meeting Monday.

This promotion was a reward for long and faithful service Ellingsen has given the company.

Ellingsen for years has been plant foreman.

In Chiksan's report to its stockholders, business was reported as improving.

Officers and directors elected for the new fiscal year were:

J. S. Bradford, president and director.

Earle R. Atkins, vice-president in charge of sales and director.

Frank Ellingsen, vice-president in charge of production.

George Peppardine, director.

Howard F. Isham, director.

Brea Will Have Air Raid Practice

A meeting has been called by Les Slaughter, Brea Legion commander, for Tuesday evening at Legion hall to discuss ways and means for the air raid warning practice soon to be held in Brea.

Working with the army, Brea will be "protected" by air raid watchers for 24 consecutive hours.

Location of observation point, and date, have not been decided yet, Slaughter said.

There will be 22 observation points in Orange county when the warning is practiced.

Army planes will fly over the county at unexpected times—night and day—the watchers will detect and report on them.

In addition to Legionnaires, there will be a goodly number of local volunteers.

Revs. Prior, Stipp No Longer Chaplains at CCC Camps

Rev. Cecil L. Prior and Rev. Frank V. Stipp Brea ministers who resigned their charges here some months ago to accept chaplainships with CCC camps, have received their honorable discharges.

Because so many boys in the camps found work in defense industries or joined the armed forces, it is said the CCC camps are fast shrinking in membership, need fewer and fewer officers.

Rev. Stipp was in Brea the lat-

B. H. Templeman, who came to Brea from Quincy, Ill., about 11 years ago, who had adopted Brea and Brea's interests as his own, succumbed to illness at the age of 70 at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning.

While in Quincy, Templeman was a plastering contractor and helped to plaster most of the big buildings in Quincy before coming to California.

While in Brea, he carried on his work until his health failed.

Although Templeman had only been seriously ill for the last four weeks at his home at 112 South Walnut avenue, he had been failing for some time.

Before his illness his greatest delight was to walk up town, meet and talk to old friends. He particularly enjoyed the time he spent at the hardware store.

He was a craftsman of the old school, loved his tools and could do almost anything with them.

His family came first during his lifetime, however, and he was always kind and unselfish towards them and his friends.

Templeman's wife passed on about 11 years ago. He is survived by a daughter, Miss Cecile Templeman, member of the faculty of Brea grammar school; a son Earl Templeman, owner of Brea Hardware company, and a brother, Henry Templeman of Bedford, Va.

Funeral services will be conducted from McAulay and Suters funeral home in Fullerton this afternoon, Friday, at 2 o'clock with the Rev. George Kellogg of Yorba Linda officiating. Entombment will be in the Loma Vista mausoleum.

to the united nations.

Lemons Look Good, Too!

Unlike oranges—which come as a full crop at the same time—lemons are picked all year. In other words, on a lemon tree there will be found bloom, all sizes of lemons up to ripe ones, at any time of the year.

Crops from Brea groves are picked by packing houses, then the fruit is sold through various associations.

Most Brea oranges and lemons will compare favorably, in quality, with and other citrus district in the world, according to experts who know.

In addition to oranges and lemons, Brea also is the center of a substantial grapefruit and avocado acreage.

years should produce something like 4,000,000 lbs. of grapefruit.

Grapefruit picking season here usually is in May through June.

That rare and delicious "new" fruit called avocado is produced here to the tune of 50 acres. Fruit is of the finest quality, mostly Fertes, winter variety.

It is difficult to estimate the yield of avocados, say the citrus men, but all signs look like this year's crop will be better than average.

Picking season for avocados is from the last of November through May.

So, all in all, when the industries of Brea are considered, citrus certainly rates high. And there is every reason to believe citrus will continue to be a large scale, profitable crop for many years to come.

Tom Miller Resigns As Brea Red Cross Chairman

"I'm going to work," said Tom Miller yesterday, in announcing his resignation as chairman of Brea chapter, American Red Cross.

What Miller really meant is that he is going to work out of town. He has been working here harder than he ever worked when he was top man for General Petroleum in this district.

Miller was loud in his praise of all local Red Cross workers and said that his successor would find an organization high in skill, willingness and patriotism to help keep Red Cross work here going on efficiently.

A meeting has been called for 2:30 p. m. Monday, November 2, at Red Cross headquarters, Ash and Pomona, to elect a new chairman.

Miller asks all Red Cross chairmen and workers who can to be present.

Surprise Party For Mrs. Leonard Phillips

Mrs. Leonard Phillips of 340 North Pomona, was honored at a surprise birthday dinner given by her daughters, Vera, Mae and Doris, and daughters-in-law, Norma and Jennie Phillips, Saturday evening, October 24.

The theme was patriotic, with red and blue streamers extending from the chandelier.

The centerpiece was a musical cake plate which held the birthday cake playing "Happy Birthday."

The honoree was presented with many beautiful birthday gifts.

Those present were: Mr. L. A. Phillips, Arnold and Norma Phillips, Don and Jennie Phillips, Vera and Doris Phillips and the honoree.

Miss Sadie Kitaoka Weds In Arizona

Miss Sada Kitaoka, formerly of Brea, was married last Friday in Arizona, her present home.

The former Miss Kitaoka is well known in Brea, and was graduated from Brea-Olinda high school in the class of 1942.

One of the guests at the wedding was Emory Ferree, 419 South Flower, who was vacationing in Arizona last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ambuehl and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harvey were co-hosts at a dinner given Sunday at the Harvey home on East Elm, in honor of visiting guests.

Present were Mrs. Harvey's mother, Mrs. Louise Boulett of National City, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Johnston of Riverside, Mrs. Margaret Hazen of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hall and baby Jackie of North Hollywood.

Imperial Highways Here Tomorrow Eve

The annual Brea birthday meeting of the Imperial Highway association will be held tomorrow (Saturday) evening at Brea Woman's club.

Always a big event, Jim Wilson and Earl Templeman, co-chairmen for this meet, say the food, entertainment and speaker this year will excel anything that Brea has done before for the Highwaymen—and that is saying a lot!

All citizens of Brea, whether members or not of the association, are invited. Dinner starts at 6:30 and tickets are 75 cents each. They may be obtained from Vincent Jaster, Leland Auer, Brea Sweet Shop, or Brea Progress.

Mrs. Guy Returns From Grand Chapter Meeting

Mrs. Elmer Guy returned last Thursday evening from the 69th annual session, Grand Chapter O. E. S., held at Oakland.

She reports that the local district of north Orange county was honored by having Mrs. Harry Leadley of Brea appointed to the office of Grand Esther.

Mrs. Leadley is a former matron of Yorba Linda chapter, and was deputy matron of this district in 1940.

The new deputy grand matron of this district is Mrs. Ethel Launer of the LaHabra chapter.

Tremaine Builds War Shelter

William D (Two-Ten) Tremaine, constable, deerlayer and all around re-man, has just completed an air raid shelter in the rear of his home at 239 South Madrona.

Not that Tremaine is afraid. He is afraid of nothing but he always has believed in preparedness he says, and this shelter may come in handy should the Japs ever start tossing bombs too large for ~~him~~^{him} to catch and throw back at them.

The shelter is seven feet deep, six feet wide and 10 feet long. Over the top there is a large steel tank which has been cut in two, made into two arches.

Regular cellar steps have been dug & there is a full and complete door over the entrance.

Two feet of earth rest on top of the steel roof.

It is Tremaine's plan to put in some shelves where food can be stored. Also when T comes home with a few dozen over-sized bucks, he will smoke meat in this shelter.

"But there always will be room to get into it in case an air raid should come," opines the constable.

By-product of this creation has been a two-week illness from flu as a result of working too ~~hard~~ hard, according to Mrs. Tremaine.

What Your Friends Are Doing

Paul Woodward surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Woodard of 445 South Madrona, by arriving late Tuesday night for a ten day Christmas visit. He has just been graduated from the naval training course at Tucson, will go east after Christmas for further training.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jones of South Laurel, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Jones' parents in Ontario, on Tuesday.

Duane Ve'Del, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ve'Del of South Laurel has been moved from a Washington army camp to one much nearer home—which doesn't make his folks mad.

Mrs. Harry Clouse of South Pomona, who went back to her old home in Ohio for a long visit several months ago, is becoming weary of the cold, snow, absence from husband Harry, plans to come home to sunny Brea shortly.

Clarence E. Andrews, post office employe and husband of one of the beautiful young ladies working at Safeway, left Brea last week for Las Vegas, Nev., to take up civilian pilot training. Andrews hopes to become a pilot for ferrying planes.

Herbert T. Cogbill of 140 North Orange enlisted in the navy last week.

Deward McCabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McCabe of North Orange, who has been hardening himself for active sea duty by doing some plain and fancy deep sea fishing, leaves shortly for merchant marine training.

It's Open House For William Tremaines Christmas Day

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Tremaine, long residents of Brea who moved to Yucaipa four months ago when Four Buck Bill retired as constable will be honored here Christmas day by an open house at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Tremaine, 408 South Madrona.

All of their numerous friends are invited to call after dinner and see these good folks who lived here so long and who contributed so richly to the building and refining of Brea.

Breans Urged To Buy Bonds By December 23

Brea, through its War Bond chairman, Ralph Barnes, has been entered in the mythical Tournament of Roses parade.

Instead of a flower parade, a bond selling drive is being held all over the southland.

Cities of comparable size will vie with each other in seeing which can sell the most bonds.

All citizens are urged to buy all the War Bonds they can to help

Jap Submarine Pays Visit Here

The wall of a siren early yesterday morning heralded the arrival in Brea of the small Jap submarine captured when the Japs struck at Hawaii, December 7.

As far as submarines go, it was plenty small. But it still was no kayak or rowboat in size.

Whirled through Brea on its way from Santa Ana to some other California city, its length was estimated at 75 to 100 feet, with the long part perhaps 8 feet in thickness. Added to this was a conning tower of another 8 feet.

Lions Christmas Party For Youths Is Saturday

Tomorrow the Brea Lions resume an old custom of giving a free Christmas show for Brea boys and girls.

In cooperation with Trigg Gunn, owner of Brea theater, a free show that will please the heart of every boy and girl will be started at 2 p. m. Saturday.

In a way, the boys and girls of Brea helped make this show possible because of the generous way they collected scrap in the recent drives here.

Infant Baby Is Found Dead In Bed

Patty, the four month old baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roberts of 120 North Orange, was found dead in her crib Tuesday noon by her mother. The cause of death was undetermined.

The Roberts family has lived in Brea for the past few months, having come here from Oklahoma.

Roberts is the son of Rev. Preston Roberts, pastor of Brea Assembly of God church.

Funeral services, held Wednesday afternoon beside the grave in Loma Vista cemetery, were conducted by Rev. Lynn, pastor of Assembly of God church in Santa Ana.

Little Patty is survived by her parents and two older sisters, 1½ and 3 years old.

A Personal View of The Marinship Yard As Seen by Breans

What is in a seventeen million dollar shipyard and what takes place there?

Mayor Emil Carlson, Councilmen L. A. Crowe and H. A. Monroe, and M. R. Norins tried to find out when they were conducted on a thirty minute tour of the Marinship six-way yard after participating in launching ceremonies for the tanker La Brea Hills.

The whole-view impression of the yard is one of massiveness—huge stockpiles of metal and continually moving throngs of workers.

Facing the yard from Sausalito, one looks out over a fascinating network of frameworks, buildings, moving cranes, partially completed or completed vessels, and an indescribable pattern of human activity.

Pass Railway Track

As they drive into the yard, the guests pass a railway track and numbers of trucks. Nearby a semi-truck drops its "trailer" load of steel tonnage, wheels quickly and heads away for another.

Huge cranes here on the ground are steadying a motor potentially capable of generating 8,250 horsepower. Elsewhere, one is told, such a motor is usually assembled on the ship. In Marinship it is assembled separately, then lifted by cranes and placed in the vessel. To the left there is a huge sign where one reads about the yard's "job in 1945" and notes "36 delivered."

Again the auto stops, and the group walks up a stairway onto the "outfitting dock." It is elevated so that one can bring things directly onto a ship instead of having to "climb" up and down into the vessel. The La Brea Hills is already there, back at anchor. Less than an hour and a half after the launching the yards is putting more "outfitting" work on it.

Inspect Hull Interior

The party inspects the interior of a hull, witnesses the menacing guns set upon a deck, and is told than an eighty man crew will run the La Brea Hills; of these about twenty-three will be a navy gun Tanker S. S. La Brea Hills Satur- day, February 24.

When the La Brea Hills, named in honor of the Brea oilfields, glided into San Francisco bay from the Sausalito shipyard ways of Marinship Corporation, its ample cargo space and bristling defensive guns jointly became yet another symbol of the city's military role. The ship takes its place in history just as the millions of barrels of oil pumped from local wells and the thousands upon thousands of tons of war equipment fabricated in local factories have also become symbols of Brea's fighting home front efforts.

After a brief statement by Company Press Supervisor Fred Drexler, and a musical selection Superintendent of Ship Assembly William B. Hanna took over as master of ceremonies.

"This ship is the twentieth of our Hills class tankers named for important California oilfields," he stated. "The Brea oilfield in Orange county was discovered before the turn of the century. Together with its companion Olinda field, it has provided more than 170 million barrels of petroleum. "Through this launching we have developed a very happy relationship with the people

Ford, Son of Mrs. Brown, Made Chief Warrant Officer

Tommy Ford, son of Mrs. George Brown of 242 south Madrona avenue, has been promoted to the position of Chief Warrant Officer in the Marine corps, according to a letter received by his mother April 17.

Chief Warrant Officer Ford enlisted in the Marines in 1932, his mother states, after graduation from Brea-Olinda high. He then went to Quantico and spent ten years on reproduction drafting work. He went overseas in July, 1943, and then began extensive service in the Pacific war area, in the New Caledonia and Guam regions, also participating in the recent attack on Iwo Jima.

Mrs. Brown came to Brea in 1916 and was married to Mr. Brown in 1922. When Tommy attended kindergarten, she states, his classes were held in the old church building on the site of the present Oilfields National Bank.

Ford's wife, the former Dottie Adams, is residing in Fullerton with her sister, Mrs. Carol Christie.

Lions Club Meeting Features Gardening

Members of the Brea Lions Club were privileged to hear an address by University of California extension service representative Longfellow at the weekly luncheon Thursday, April 19, in the Woman's club building.

Longfellow spoke on gardening.

Members of the organization were invited to attend a dinner meeting of the Orange county chapter of the Lions Club at Santa Ana the same night.

was successively transferred from San Diego to the hospitals at Corona and Spadra where he has been since October, 1944.

He married his wife, the former Honora Snyder, in August, 1943, at Tulsa. They have a child, Beverly Jean, aged nine months. Robert's brother, Pfc. Edward L. Johnson, is serving with the U. S. armed forces in England as an airplane mechanic for the 315th service squadron, 8th air force. Edward writes to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Johnson of 123 south Pomona avenue, frequently, and often sends them copies of the serviceman's newspaper, Stars and Stripes, and the army weekly, Yank.

Mrs. Agnes Stanger Dies at Age of 80

Mrs. Agnes Stanger, 80, who had resided in Brea for the past twenty-four years, passed away Tuesday night in her home at 112 west Ash street.

The late Mrs. Stanger is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Livingston of Brea; a son, W. H. Stanger of Torrance, California; a sister, Florence McGregor of Milwaukee; and a granddaughter, Miss Ruth Livingston of San Juan Capistrano.

She was active in the Brea Congregational Church and in the Amata chapter of the Eastern Star of Fullerton. Operator of the Stanger apartments on west Ash street, she had been a widow since 1936 when her husband, C. Fred Stanger, died.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 3:30 p.m. at McAulay and Suters mortuary chapel, with Reverend Harold E. Baber in charge. Loma Vista Memorial Park will be the site for interment.

P. D. Lake, Anaheim Man, Purchases Casa Brea Apartments

P. D. Lake, owner of Lake's Mens Store in Anaheim, purchased the Casa Brea Inn of east Ash street on Wednesday, April 18, from J. W. Burch of La Habra, it has been learned. Mrs. Fay Brandenburg, well known resident manager, will remain in her present position.

The new owner is married to Mrs. Clara Lake. They have no children. He has lived in California thirty years, mostly in Anaheim.

By telephone Thursday, Lake informed the Progress that he has the highest opinion of Brea and anticipates that he will have increasing business dealings with the city merchants in the future.

European Theater of Operations . . .

According to the citation, Griffiths and his comrades engaged in "intensive aerial activity as combat crew members . . . in the resupply of Allied armies advancing across France, Belgium and Holland and in the air evacuation of casualties. In addition, they participated brilliantly in the greatest airborne operation in military history, the vertical envelopment of the German armies impeding the progress of our ground forces in Holland. . . ."

Now in France, Corporal Griffiths has been in the military service for two years, one year of which has been spent overseas. He received training in Mississippi, Georgia, and Illinois.

Roy Smith Writes of Seeing S. S. La Brea Hills in Pacific

Pharmacist Mate First Class Roy E. Smith, whose wife Mrs. Gladys Smith recently reopened their home at 245 south Flower avenue, has written the Progress from the south Pacific that he has seen the S. S. La Brea Hills in those embattled waters. This is the first word received here that the ship named in honor of this city has reached Pacific battle area.

Smith writes that one of the copies of the Progress which he had just received was one showing the 'S. S. La Brea Hills' and "I wanted to tell you that I saw her out here in the Pacific just the other day and just knowing that she had some connection with the 'old home town' made me very proud and yet homesick too, all at the same time."

Both Pharmacist Mate Smith and his wife attended school in Brea in their younger days, and the former was with the National Guard for six years before he entered the service in January, 1942. He went overseas in November, 1943.

In his letter, dated April 7, Roy illustrates the ruggedness of his sea duty by pointing out the many things he had just done on his daily allowance of a half bucket of water. As he puts it, he had "1. Shaved, 2. Took a bath, 3. Washed skivvies, 4. Washed dungarees, 5. And, lastly, washed a pair of sox."

"Sometimes," he adds, "by being careful we are able to do more with our water. We always have plenty of drinking water tho."

Mrs. Ove Olsen and daughter Nadine of 527 east Elm street spent the weekend at Pasadena with Mrs. Olson's mother who celebrated her eighty-fifth birthday.

At last reports Staff Sergeant Kenneth G. Lockwood was a waist gunner on a B-17 Flying Fortress and had been awarded a third Oak Leaf Cluster for his Air Medal as a result of "meritorious achievement" during Eighth Air Force bombing attacks on military and industrial targets in Nazi Germany. This week he strolled into town.

Staff Sergeant Lockwood arrived in Brea on a three weeks' leave late Saturday night, April 14, and now he bears a fourth Oak Leaf Cluster. He is staying with his wife, Mrs. Dorothy M. Lockwood at 334 south Madrona avenue.

He has been a member of the 34th bombardment group, a unit of the Third Air Division which was cited for bombing Regensburg, Germany.

Kenneth is a graduate of North Hollywood high school and was employed as an aircraft mechanic by Lockheed in Burbank before entering the army Air Forces in September, 1943. He has taken part in bombing attacks on a variety of objectives ranging from Nazi airfields, "buzz-bomb" launching platforms and synthetic oil refineries to strategic road junctions, railroad yards and front line positions.

Bassett, Bickel Set Out for War Duty

Harold Bassett and Bob Bickel, well known local boys, left Thursday, April 19, for induction into the armed services. Both took their physical examinations and were accepted for navy duty March 1, but have been waiting for the orders to commence induction which ultimately came Tuesday, April 17.

Both natives of Brea who went through local schools, they are graduating seniors this semester at Brea-Olinda high school. Harold is noted as a former backfield player on the Brea-Olinda high football team. He has also participated in basketball and track, and acted a part in the 1944 junior play. Bob Bickel is a three-letter man in both football and basketball, and in 1944 was captain of the Brea-Olinda high football team. He is also vice-president of the high school student body.

Harold's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Bassett, reside at 228 south Poplar avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bickel, Bob's folks, live at 20 south Flower avenue. The boys are to take their "boot" training at San Diego.

Miss Freda Shepherd and Miss Jane M. Brumley of Pomona registered at the Brea hotel on April 17. They were to have remained a week

Ted Craig Jr. Missing, Bob Brunot Wounded in Action

The tragic side of war was brought home to Brea this week with two announcements from Washington:

Lt. Ted Craig jr., night fighter pilot of the army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Craig, 111 West Imperial, is missing in action.

Pfc. Robert Brunot of the marines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brunot, is wounded in action.

Both are in the South Pacific area.

No details were revealed in the respective telegrams. But detailed information was promised by war and navy departments as soon as any details are known.

Mr. and Mrs. Brunot received their telegram Saturday; Mr. and Mrs. Craig Monday.

Letters received from the boys by their parents recently have been optimistic and full of interest.

Both boys are graduates of Brea-Olinda high school. Craig was football captain in 1939-40. Brunot played on both football and basketball teams.

Brunot was born in 1924, Craig in 1923.

Particularly hopeful news about Lt. Craig's chances of return were received by the wives of Ted's major and captain, who live in the southland. Ted's fellow officers expressed hopes and opinions that he will turn up safe and sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Brunot have three sons in the marine corps: Lt. Kenneth, a fighter pilot; Robert; Lloyd, 17, who left Wednesday for active duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig have one other son, Tommy, 15 years old, a student at the local high school.

Organization of Cub Scouts Is Held

Wednesday evening the organization meeting of Brea Cub Scouts was held at the Boy Scout house on North Pomona.

Melvin Russell, cub master, was in charge and was assisted by Les Slauter, scoutmaster, Assistant Cub Masters Conn Baker and Bruce Taylor, Rev. H. E. Baber.

The troop is sponsored by the Brea Congregational church and is served in an advisory capacity by the following committeemen: John Daugherty, Earl Templeman, Arthur Beckman and Dr. D. W. Goodwin.

Charter for the troop was financed by Brea Women's league.

Boys aged 9 to 12 are eligible for membership in Cub Scouts, and 22 prospective members were at Wednesday's meeting.

Application blanks for membership are available to all Brea boys in this age group at Russell's jewelry store.

Various activities are planned for the cubs, including an outing once a month, according to the cub master.

Lt. Paul Ledbetter Is Home on Furlough

After ten months of active duty in the European theatre, Lt. Paul Ledbetter is home on a three-week furlough.

Serving as bombardier, Lieutenant Ledbetter has participated in 25 bombing missions over Germany and France.

He has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters.

A graduate of Brea-Olinda in 1936, the flying lieutenant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ledbetter of Olinda.

Do You Want to See Your Draft Board?

If so, better take note of the change in hours, for the board governing Brea meets Monday evenings, 7 to 9, at Spadra and Wilshire, Fullerton.

This is in addition to the regular daily hours of that board.

Elmore Taylor's Father Dies in Las Vegas, Nevada

Elmore Taylor of 230 South Laurel was called to Nevada by the death of his father, Samuel Ellis Taylor, who died at Las Vegas last Saturday.

Taylor, ill but four days, passed away in that city.

Remains were brought to Anaheim and last rites were held Wednesday with entombment at Melrose Abbey mausoleum.

Twenty million garments are needed for clothing men, women and children and both new and used garments may be used.

Clothing of every size and type is needed as well as low-heeled shoes.

Three classifications have been established for these donations. First, used clothing not needing repair or alteration. Must be clean, durable and practical.

Second classification, clothing needing minor repairs, providing garments still have good wear in them.

Third, clothing needing complete rehabilitation and alterations. This means new garments made from old.

Sheets, towels and pillowcases are badly needed and can be mended

Brea Passes Half-Way Mark in War Fund Drive

$2,388.11 has been collected to date for Brea's War Fund drive, according to Mrs. E. W. Curtis, Red Cross chairman.

"This puts us well over the half-way mark to our goal of $4,302.76," said Mrs. Curtis, "with Chiksan Tool company and Brea's business district yet to report."

One more week of the drive remains in which contributions may be made to this genuinely worthwhile organization.

Brea-Olinda Relays To Be Run Tuesday

The oft-postponed relays will be run off at Brea-Olinda Tuesday, March 28, when athletes from 25 schools will compete.

This is the largest list of participants in the history of the school, according to Shorty Smith, athletic coach at Brea-Olinda.

Vincent Wall Returns Home from Solomon Islands

Lt. Vincent (Soko) Wall, son of Mrs. Catherine Wall, 100 North Main, arrived home unexpectedly Friday, after 16 months overseas with the U. S. marines. Even but short notice "over" to get ready for a trip home, the old marine gathered his duds rather quickly, hopped aboard a flying machine, was in San Francisco after 36 hours of flying. He stopped over a day at Honolulu on the way. Soko notices many changes in life. Lack of people on the islands, lack of fellows he knows, and social goings-on are the ones mentioned in particular. On leaving Brea and the States, the lieutenant has seen New Zealand, the Solomons, and other islands out there in the Pacific. Solomon Islanders take the unusualness in natives, Soko. Most of them have kinky hair and it is dyed some sort of a native dye that they use to kill lice. On a two week leave, Lt. Wall returns to duty.

California Jewelers War Bond Drive

Jewelers, Mevin A. Russell and George Folkemer, are two of the jewelers of California who will sell a total of $1,000,000 worth of bonds during May. The million dollars will be used to purchase a mercy squadron of rescue planes.

The drive is made through retail stores and any townspeople who purchase bonds, thereby helping the jewelers toward their goal.

Two Young Ladies Start Candle Factory Here

Starting this week, some of the most attractive candles in America are being manufactured right here in Brea. Co-partners in this new venture are Miss Ann Griessel and Miss Elizabeth Day. They have rented the store where Brea Electric formerly was located at 129 South Pomona. Until other quarters can be found, they also are residing there.

Their line of candles is distinctly for the carriage or quality trade. No old time white candles in the conventional shape for Manufacturers Day and Griessel. No tapers! They make candles that look exactly like Valencia oranges. Then there are floating candles, clubs, diamonds, spades and hearts; some are floaters in pastel shades; some have fluted edges; one is frosted white while another is wine colored with frosted trim.

This new Brea enterprise will send forth these Brea candles in glassine bags, or wrapped in green floral paper.

Both of these young ladies are go-getters, have had interesting backgrounds.

Miss Day was in the WAACS for a year as a classification specialist. She was stationed at Daytona Beach, Fla.

After a siege of pneumonia and malaria, she was given an honorable discharge from the WAACS, became personnel counsellor at Calship.

Miss Griessel at present is employed at Naval Drydock as a personnel counsellor.

Before that she held the only certificate ever issued to a woman in the United States for the

Will Burn Mortgage of Nazarene Manse Sunday Morning

Special ceremonies will mark the Sunday morning service at the Church of the Nazarene when the mortgage which was placed on the parsonage of the church a few years ago will be burned.

With this act the church will go on record as being clear of debt. Most Breans will remember when this home was erected some four years ago, with members of the church working side by side in its construction.

Dr. H. Orton Wiley, president of the Nazarene Pasadena college, will give the morning address.

Musical numbers will be given by Robert Woodroof, a duet by Anna Lou Gough and Gabriel Folles, selections by the men's trio, Earl Hill, Howard Swoap and Reverend Matthews.

Howard Swoap will trace the history of the early parsonages in honor of the occasion!

4 Tons Waste Paper Collected Friday

Goodwill Industries report 100 calls were made in Brea last Friday. They picked up four tons of paper, 500 lbs. of rags, some old clothing and furniture.

Many of these calls were listed at the Progress, others were of the "yoo hoo" type, as neighbors saw papers being gathered up at the house next door.

Last paper drive netted two and a half tons. Latest drive necessitated several trips to headquarters before all were collected.

The Goodwill will come to Brea again when enough requests are listed at the Progress, phone 111, to warrant collection.

Railroad Pull

The engineers may have hairy ears, according to the song, but these Brea engineers don't let any grass grow under their feet.

Because yesterday 40 enlisted men arrived to start putting Camp Brea on Stearns lease in condition for the several hundred officers and men due Monday.

Then, early in June, more soldiers will arrive until 750 to 800 are here. They are expected to train in all fields work for at least 90 days.

Quite a number of officers or their wives have been in Brea this week, seeking places to live. Only a few have been successful.

From the entertainment side of the picture, Mrs. George Hawkins has dusted off her scroll showing she is president of Brea USO, has several projects under way.

Dances for the boys are planned, which no doubt will be held at the Woman's club. Girls interested in coming to these dances should sign up with Mrs. Ed Harden, 417 West Imperial, phone Brea 174-W.

Mrs. Hazel VeDel and Mrs. Leo West have volunteered to help with the local USO.

Arrangements of some sort are being discussed whereas the soldiers may have the Brea Boys' club rooms several nights a week.

Other ideas will be suggested at an early date.

In the meantime, greet the boys and make them feel at home.

Council Seeks Man to Manage Plunge

Chief discussion at Wednesday evening's council meeting was over the opening of Brea city plunge soon after the closing of school in June.

A sign designating chamber headquarters will be erected at the office of B. H. Blanchar, new secretary, 107 South Pomona. This sign will be erected primarily for visitors to Brea seeking information about the city.

Elmer Bakkedahl gave a report on present building conditions in Brea.

John M. Johnston, secretary of the Anaheim chamber, was guest speaker and gave a short, entertaining and to-the-point talk. His talk concerned chamber work and organization.

He told Brea merchants what they must do to increase and hold local trade. He said local merchants should have their stores stocked with complete lines of goods and to present an active and attractive merchandising campaign.

Shaffer Speaks

Mayor W. D. Shaffer made a short talk discussing what the city has done and its desire to co-operate with the chamber.

A sparerib and gingerbread dinner was served to approximately 50 merchants present by American Legion Auxiliary members. Mrs. Florence Mathews was kitchen chairman and was assisted by Mrs. Irvin Carner, Mrs. Mary Crowe, Mrs. Ann Carpenter. Mrs. Roy Bagby was dining room chairman and was assisted by Mrs. Vivian Nicodemus and Miss Georgene Warner.

Women's Guild of Service Will Give Tiny Piper Dinner

A Tiny Piper dinner will be served beginning at 6 o'clock next Thursday (March 19) in the dining room at the Congregational church. Women's Guild of Service is sponsoring the dinner.

Proceeds from the dinner will be turned over to the church building fund. Tickets are 55 cents (including tax) and may be purchased from Mrs. A. A. Voorhees, 228 Slev-ers.

Any Rags, Bottles, Bones, Today? Scouts Want 'Em!

Brea's Boy Scouts will be on the loose tomorrow (Saturday) all day.

The jamboree will be an old paper, magazine, rags, rubber, aluminum, anything-valuable collecting campaign.

According to Scoutmaster Les Slaughter, each business and each home in Brea will be solicited.

So . . . if you have anything along these lines, please get them ready. It will help your local Boy Scouts earn a few dollars and it will help your country.

Brea city assessor will be D. F. Hancock and Orange county assessor will be J. J. Smelia.

Taxable property of all classifications, real, personal, improvements, intangible, etc., is to be assessed against the name of record ownership as of March 1.

Previous to the trial, an Anaheim man was fined $150 after he pleaded guilty to driving on Pomona avenue March 7 while intoxicated.

People of Brea

TONIGHT (Friday, March 13), 7 p. m., at Brea Woman's club, the citizens of Brea, as a community, will have their first opportunity to do something socially for soldiers of our country.

This community dance, of course, is for all the citizens of Brea. But as our specially invited guests, there will be approximately forty soldiers here from the army station at Orange.

These boys are being trained to protect their country and us. They are from the cities and farms, poor homes and homes of wealth. But with those uniforms on, they are soldiers—our soldiers—our guests.

A committee composed of Miss Kathryn Burke, chairman, and Mrs. Mary Canavello, Mrs. Mabel Harden and Mrs. Anita Ward has worked hard to have everything in readiness when they come.

These patriotic ladies have collected money from merchants and residents of Pomona avenue (this week's host street).

They have prepared refreshments, music, novelties for the soldiers and all local folks who attend.

Now . . . what the committee wants to be sure of is: LOTS of dancing partners for the soldiers.

While girls of high school age are most welcome, the committee urges older girls and married women to turn out, too. After all, they say, these soldiers will vary in age from 18 to 35 years. Therefore, the committee is particularly desirous for the women of Brea to come out. Sweethearts and husbands of these ladies also are invited to come. All the committee wants is to have plenty of partners for the soldier boys, see that the soldiers have a good time, make them feel that Brea is a swell town, a live-wire town, a patriotic town.

There will be plenty of local ladies to act as hostesses, a master of ceremonies, Barney Barnes and his orchestra, other good music to keep things lively.

WILL ALL LADIES WHO EXPECT TO DANCE WITH THE SOLDIERS PLEASE BE AT THE WOMAN'S CLUB BY 7 OR A LITTLE LATER?

The committee wants to have plenty of partners on hand when the soldiers arrive. They are expected to be here by 7, must return to camp at 10:30.

Be patriotic . . . Lady Dancers! Please come out! Oh, yes. Everything is free to everyone!

Drowns in Brea Reservoir

Daniel Hightower, 7-year-old Olinda boy, was drowned last Friday afternoon in a water reservoir on the Stearns lease, north-east of the high school.

It was the old tragic story of boys going swimming where they shouldn't.

According to investigation of Coroner Earl R. Abbey, little Dan, along with his brothers, William and Jack, went to the reservoir late in the afternoon for a dip in the water. A few moments later the older brothers noticed that Dan was missing.

A quick search resulted in finding Dan in a portion of the reservoir too deep for the child. While one brother went to his assistance, dragging him out, the other ran to Brea for help.

Dr. W. E. Jackson rushed to the reservoir at once where he "found a boy 14 or 15 doing a fine job of resuscitation." The doctor took charge, sent for the pulmotor, Officer Ray Phillips responding immediately.

But after 45 to 50 minutes of work, it was discovered the spark of life was gone.

Daniel was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hightower of Olinda. He is survived by his two brothers, a twin sister, Nan, and another sister, Mrs. Edna Marsh of Orange.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from McAulay and Suters mortuary chapel in Fullerton with Rev. Frank Purnell, Fullerton Christian church pastor, officiating. Interment was in Loma Vista cemetery.

Kenny Wells Is In Again, Out Again, IN!

Some time ago Kenneth Wells, chief meat surgeon at Gheen's market, signed up with Uncle Sam's navy for the duration.

Since that time the Progress several times has announced his departure for the briny deep, only to see him back at Gheen's—in civvies—cutting meat.

Integrity of the press was being undermined, what with so many farewell announcements which meant no farewell.

Having no admiral jobs, Wells was tossed back and forth from one department to another.

Finally now, Wells says, he is going away. His official rating is ship's cook, second class. But in telling this rating, Wells particularly emphasized not to phrase it "Second Class Ship's Cook."

Anyway, Ken says he won't be a cook at all but a hewer of meat.

Well, Ken Wells is a great lad and a fine friend of the Progress but this is absolutely the last time we "pipe" him out of town . . . at least until after he comes home on a furlough!

Community choir, under the direction of Leland Auer and which sang at the high school baccalaureate service, will provide the musical program.

Auer asks and invites anyone who wants to join the choir to meet for rehearsal at the Congregational church Saturday evening between 7 and 8 o'clock.

The USO recreation center will be the place. Also the USO will install a fancy record-playing Victrola and records.

Anyone having comfortable old davenport, chairs, even a piano, is asked to loan it to this good cause. The Progress can be contacted about any of these items until the USO is functioning.

City of Brea Welcomes Soldiers

On behalf of the city of Brea and its citizens, I bid the officers and soldiers in our midst a most hearty welcome.

As we were not sure you were coming until you arrived, we were not organized for you. However, we are getting various activities for your entertainment and pleasure under way and we believe that within a week we shall make your leisure time more pleasant.

A USO recreation center will be ready for you in a few days. The city plunge has been made available at certain hours. Dances for you are being planned.

Each Wednesday night, you probably know, there is a free band concert in our city park.

Other things are being planned to make your stay here an enjoyable one.

Again I say, a cordial welcome to you all!

Fortunately an army ambulance came along soon after the accident, two medical men expertly carried the boy to Dr. Curtis' office for emergency treatment.

Later the boy was taken to the Fullerton General hospital where his broken leg was set.

Other injury was the mangling of a facial nerve which has produced a partial paralysis in his left cheek. This may be only temporary.

Jerry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McKnight of 209 South Flower, came to Brea in November from Colorado. The father works at Douglas aircraft.

There are two other McKnight boys, Clarendon 16 and Merlin 8.

Mrs. Fred Boxall, Mrs. C. M. Young Are in Auto Crash

Mrs. Fred Boxall of 267 Poplar and her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Young, of 208 East Birch street escaped serious injuries Monday night in an automobile accident.

The accident occurred about 8 o'clock at intersection of Valencia and Imperial. Mrs. Young was driving on Imperial and the driver of the car approaching Imperial failed to make the boulevard stop, Mrs. Boxall said.

Mrs. Boxall received many bruises. Mrs. Young's right hand was broken, received a blow on the head, but neither was seriously injured. Mrs. Young was taken to a Fullerton hospital where she remained overnight.

Occupants of the other car were from New Mexico and were not injured.

Both cars were damaged and had to be towed to a garage. Front end and front left side of Mrs. Young's car was smashed but, Mrs. Boxall pointed out, not one tire blew out.

Both cars were going slow or the accident would have been much more serious.

Nearly 25 Tons of Scrap Rubber Are Collected Here

Scrap rubber drive in Brea brought in approximately 25 tons of rubber to local service stations.

Collections ranged from little over 100 pounds to nine tons at individual stations.

Orange county's drive for rubber netted a total of 1,573,222 pounds of the scrap material, according to figures compiled from all of the wholesale plants which served as final collection depots.

Bill Collins of 314 Birch lane recently quit an airplane factory, is now employed as a civilian mechanic in engineering at March field.

Robert Cromwell, brother of Whit Cromwell, local postal executive, has been accepted for training as a naval air force pilot.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Fleisher of 335 South Flower drove to Vista Sunday to visit an old friend who was seriously ill.

Miss Dorris Witten of the Oilfields National bank leaves tomorrow for her vacation. Her sister, Ruth, will take her place while she is gone.

Brea received $150 from the board of equalization recently as the city's share of liquor taxes for this apportionment. This money goes to the general fund.

Ralph Irwin Tries to Please His Cash Customers

The story has just been released for publication (a la other censored war news that might give aid and comfort to the enemy) that Ralph Irwin, assistant postmaster in Brea, recently was party to the bombing of Tokyo.

At least it looked that way to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson of 128 South Pomona avenue.

"When we were in the postoffice buying a defense bond from Ralph, I ask him to see if he could arrange to have the money used to buy bombs to drop on Tokyo.

"Ralph looked wise, smiled a knowing smile, said he would see what he could do with MacArthur.

"The next morning I read where Tokyo had been bombed!

"This fellow Irwin must know his stuff," mused Wilson.

Members of this class are Mesdames Velma Bickel, Edna Brambley, Marge Cox, Stella Fanning, Florence Harvey, Lulu Matthews, Elma Neuls, Zilpha Pearson, Seville Peralta, Edith Stives, Mossie Wallace, Claire Wilhelm, Mamie Wolf, Cora E. Baldwin of Whittier.

Mrs. Vivian Nicodemus completed a canteen class earlier in Fullerton and will assist in serving the dinner.

"Joe Ogle for President!" Say Lions, Kiwanians

The new Orange county counsel, Joe Ogle, addressed a joint meeting of Brea Lions, La Habra Kiwanians at Brea Woman's club yesterday and practically received the nomination for president, so well was he received.

His talk, "What a County Counsel Is," cleared up various reports on that controversial subject, at least as far as Orange county is concerned.

M. J. Pickering, president of La Habra Kiwanians, presided. He said Brea and his town had much in common: Oil, citrus, nuts . . . that is, walnuts!

Jack Cookerly of La Habra played four pieces on the accordion in a professional manner.

A swiss steak and apple pie meal was served by Woman's club members Mrs. Charles Harvey, Mrs. D. W. Goodwin, Mrs. Laura Inge, Mrs. Ernest Jones, Mrs. J. W. Burquist.

New Home Atop Air Raid Station

Because it is used 24 hours a day, seven days a week, the cubby hole clubhouse at the air raid station long ago became inadequate.

So the boys—and girls—got busy, did some foraging, promoting.

Now there is an enlarged, modernized observation post clubhouse for which all the members wish to thank those who so generously donated wood, celotex, windows, paint, labor.

"All we need to make the place as comfy as can be are several easy chairs," says Les Slauter, chief observer.

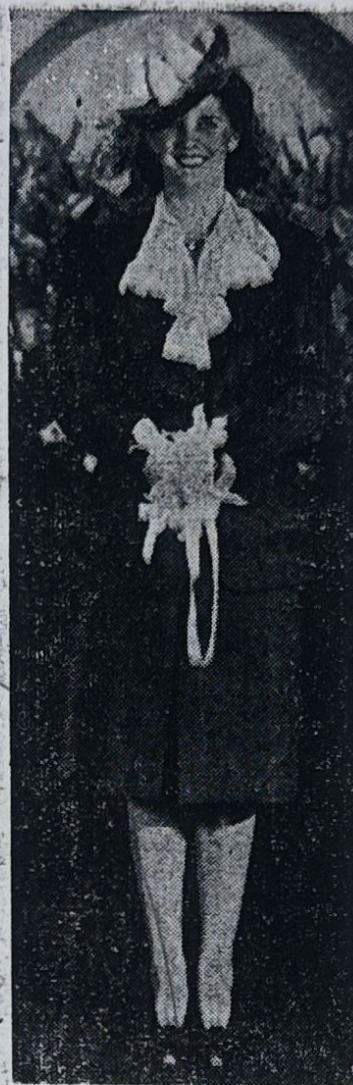

"Will anyone who has an old easy chair or two please notify John Swiderski, meat cutter at Safeway, and he will see they are delivered."

Finch and Mrs. Ruth H. Rehder, volunteered this week to donate blood to the Red Cross blood donor service. Quota of seven set by the Red Cross for Brea has now been reached.

Mrs. J. L. Cummings was the first to volunteer. Others who volunteered were Mrs. John Pfeiffer, Archie Logsdon, Mrs. Floyd Rogers, Mrs. Florence Mathews.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson last Friday moved from 241 South Walnut to 240 South Slevers.

Now ordinarily when a comes up with a black eye, customary excuses are: Ran door in the dark; you shook the other fellow; and so on.

Not one of these did Luther the Luminous Lamp lament.

No, sir! But before his excuse is and in case anyone does not Luther Hyde, let it be said quite a person locally.

First, he is married to a young little lady. He is a local citizen who has reared a family here. He is city treasurer. He is secretary of the A. Free and Accepted Masons.

a teacher in the Sunday school at the First Baptist church in Brea. No one would think of a Luther of the Luminous Lamp being "in his cups" when the dent happened because never drains a dram.

But in spite of all of Luther's good qualities, he is, after a man. And doesn't it say somewhere that "to err is human?"

And in the explanation of the shiner, he it said that Luther erred plenty.

He actually tells everyone meets that his wife gave him a black eye!

Now . . . newspapers, little bird on Nellie's hat, the etcetera, have ways of finding truths.

And, as a purveyor of truth, a seminator of news and protector of the young, weak and sinned at Luther Hyde's newspaper has facts about how this black came to be.

It was NOT given to him wife. The whole affair was Luther's doing and if he stop accusing the innocent, the treasurer's friends will find who, what, where, when, why and HOW the shiner came.

Baby Girl Is Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foy

A new baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foy at South Laurel avenue Friday at Fullerton General hospital.

She is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foy and has named Ellen Marie. She weighs 6 pounds 14 ounces. Ellen's older sister is about 2 years old.

Grandparents of the baby are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Nixon of Buena Park and Mrs. C. Foy of Yakima, Wash. Mother and baby are expected home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hood last week moved from 228 East North Pomona avenue.

Mrs. Esther Sandman of 921 East Elm last Thursday was appointed deputy grand matron of this district, Order of the Eastern Star.

This high honor came to her when she was attending grand chapter session, Order of the Eastern Star, in San Francisco last week.

Mrs. Sandman has been an active worker in the Eastern Star for years and was matron of Brea chapter in 1943.

At the regular meeting Monday evening, Brea chapter had a homecoming for its member who has been so signally honored.

Other Breans who were present at the San Francisco session last week were Mrs. Laura Inge, matron of Brea chapter; Mrs. Florence Green, associate matron; Grant Sandman; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leadlay who belong to Yorba Linda chapter.

Mrs. Blanchard Vacations In Palm Springs

Mrs. B. F. Blanchard of 204 No. Orange returned home Sunday from a four day stay at Palm Springs where she was the guest of Flight officer and Mrs. LeRoy Rodenberg and little daughter, Jeanie.

Mrs. Rodenberg, a niece of Mrs. Blanchard, and Jeanie spent two months last summer in the Blanchard home, during which time they made many Brea friends.

Flight officer Rodenberg has just returned from Australia and will soon be sent to Florida.

The Rodenberg home is in Long Beach.

because of the encouraging, hopeful note that his messages bring.

In June of 1943 the university of Redlands honored Dr. Brougher with a doctor of divinity degree at the same commencement ceremony attended by Governor Warren and at which the governor was given an honorary doctor of laws degree.

Music for the evening will be furnished by local and outside talent and will be of outstandingly high quality.

All proceeds in excess of the Banquet expenses will go directly into the building fund of the church.

Tickets are available through Joe Wade, chairman of the ticket committee, Box 65, Brea, or through the Progress office.

The church is grateful for the cooperation of all who have shared in announcing and advertising the banquet. All reservations must be made on or before Monday, October 30.

Sam Johnsons New Sweet Shop Owners

Lou Johnson of the Brea Johnson brothers recently sold the Brea Sweet shop to still another brother, Sam Johnson of Compton, who has also become a Brea Johnson through his transaction.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and their daughter Viola who is a junior in high school will make Brea their home as soon as arrangements can be made.

Lou Johnson is now employed by Pacific Lighting corporation.

Barbara Lucille Tremaine, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Tremaine, 408 South Madrona, was born in Brea April 30, 1925.

She was graduated from Brea elementary schools and Brea-Olinda high school in 1943.

She had worked at Vultee since her graduation.

A lovely bud, so young and fair
Called hence by early doom,
Just came to show how sweet a

We loved her, yes we loved her
But the Angels loved her more,
And They have called her from us,
To yonder Golden Shore.

The Pearly Gates were opened,

And with sad farewells unspoken
She gently entered home.
A FRIEND.

Funeral of Virgil Cox Will Be Held Saturday Afternoon

The funeral of Lt. Virgil Cox, killed in an automobile accident last Friday morning while riding with Miss Barbara Tremaine who also was killed, will be held Saturday (tomorrow) afternoon at 2, McAulay & Suters, Fullerton.

Army officials had held up release of the body because, it was said, his official papers were lost at the time of the accident.

In addition to his grandparents mentioned in another story, Lt. Cox is survived in Brea by his aunt, Mrs. Luther Hyde, of 142 North Orange.

Nineteen years old, Lt. Cox was well and favorably known to many persons in Brea. He neither drank nor smoked, was an excellent example of a high class American boy.

He was the only child of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roma Cox of Fillmore.

Various rumors lately that Lt. John L. (Jake) Armstrong, former Olinda boy and graduate of Brea-Olinda high school in 1940, had been captured by the Germans were confirmed this week.

His sister, Mrs. Ella Post of Los Angeles, received word from the United States government that Jake had been shot down over Aachen.

A few days later came word from the Red Cross that Jake was a prisoner of war in Germany.

A "hot" fighter pilot, Lt. Armstrong was said to have destroyed several Nazi planes. He also was adept at ground strafing and flying protection for American and British bomber squadrons.

Hills developments east of the junior high school and a school immediately east or north of the Pleasant Hills area.

In his projection and planning MacKain has divided the school district into six areas and there will be one or more schools in each. With the exception of the Mobil tract there has been no pin-pointing of school sites.

On MacKain's map Area 1 is made up largely of the Mobil tract, which will have 398 homes, and the surrounding acreage.

Area 2 is bounded by Brea Blvd., Deodara, Juniper and Puente served by the Arovista School. Until new schools are built in adjacent areas this school will have to accommodate some pupils from outside of the boundaries indicated.

Six Schols Planned

Area 3, served by the Laurel School serves an area west of Brea Blvd. to Randolph St.

Area 4 includes a parcel of land east of the high school owned by the elementary school district and a new school will probably be built on this tract after construction on the Area 5 tracts on Deodara St. east of Brea Blvd.

There will also be a new school in Area 6 east of the new Brea Canyon Freeway when this area is developed.

In all six new elementary schools and a second junior high school are planned.

"It is difficult to imagine Brea will soon have two families for every one now residing here," MacKain said today. "It with active war preparation starting in 1942, Brea joined with many coastal cities to safeguard its citizens. For many long months the patient plane spotters served at their posts, watching and reporting the movements of all planes.

The Red Cross went into action, the American Legion took up its job of home defense with support of the medical profession and nurses supporting. The public in general buckled down to the grim duties of war, that threatened the coast, according to reports published in The Progress.

Edgar Spear became president of Chiksan Co., as they became geared for defense work, along with Shaffer Tool Works, McGraw Foundry, Enterprise Equipment and other Brea industries.

California Foods started in the brine business turning out orange and lemon peel, and McCoy and Mills closed their Ford branch that year thus ending more than 20 years as a local Ford agency. Former Mayor Charles McCart was an employee in its early years.

Before the close of the year 1943, national recognition was given to Brea industry for the commendable manner in which it so efficiently shed its peace-time program and turned to an all-out defensive effort. The Chiksan company received the first "E" Army-Navy award from Rear Ad-

Exhibit Work In Two New Shows

A prize winning Brea Artist, Pamela Mason is preparing four paintings for entrance in two art shows in the near future.

She will also enter the Orange County Art Show to be held in Laguna Beach in the month of December. Although miral Joseph Rollie Defrees, USN. Then followed Shaffer Tool Works and the McGraw foundry with like honors. The latter concern was cited for their help in building 45,000 landing craft.

Brown and Dauser, who had been in the lumber business since the early beginning of Brea, sold their yards to Ward and Harrington.

Many changes took place along the main street during the next few years of the world conflict. There were vacant buildings as stock scarcity and inductions into service came with the rationed period.

In 1945 Fred Kirkpatrick bought one of the early landmarks at 106 S. Pomona (now Brea Blvd.) and remodeled it into a ceramic manufacturing business. He moved his plant from Laguna Beach and set up a wholesale business known as "Ceramics by Kirk."

In 1946, Brea revived from the impact of war and gradually new faces appeared in the heretofore vacant business places to give impetus to the growing city.

Brea Student Among Science Award Victors

Alan Sharka of Brea-Olinda high school is among Southern California high school students outstanding in scholastic achievements in science and technology who are the recipients of the first Youth Medalist Awards under the sponsorship of the Southern California Industry-Education Council.

"The Medalist Award Program was initiated to inspire and inform the youth in Southern California schools regarding the opportunities, needs, and qualifications of scientific and technological manpower," said Rollin Russell, president of SCIEC and chairman of the award program.

Shift of City Departments Continuing

Municipal departmental moves by the Brea City Council may continue at tonight's meeting.

Termination will probably be made on what use to make on the room in the City Hall which the building and other departments occupied before they were moved to the building on Date St., which now has sign announcing that it houses the "Department of Public Works."

It seems probable that city finance department and bill collecting facilities will be moved to the Room in the City Hall which will also house the new switchboard.

One of the recommendations made in the Ernst and Ernst reported in August, 1962, was:

"Remove water billing, collection, and meter reading from the city clerk's office and establish these functions in the water department under public works."

The report pointed out that: The water billing and collection functions are now being handled by the city clerk's department. This not only creates added duties for the city clerk, but does not provide adequate internal control. The deputy city clerk, one full time clerk and the treasurer are now performing these tasks. The effort expended involves approximately one and one-half person's time, the balance of the time of these persons being consumed by other duties, such as accounting, treasury, and clerical.

"Removal of the water billing and collection from the city clerk's office will reduce the load in that department so that the city clerk and her deputy can adequately maintain their true city functions. The treasurer will then be freed of her duties of water billing and collection, allowing her to perform other duties as indicated.

"Since the water billing and collection require more time than one person can provide, it will be necessary to hire one additional clerk for this function. However, since the duties do not currently require two full time persons, the additional help provided

TONIGHT (Friday, March 13), 7 p. m., at Brea Woman's club, the citizens of Brea, as a community, will have their first opportunity to do something socially for soldiers of our country.

This community dance, of course, is for all the citizens of Brea. But as our specially invited guests, there will be approximately forty soldiers here from the army station at Orange.

These boys are being trained to protect their country and us. They are from the cities and farms, poor homes and homes of wealth. But with those uniforms on, they are soldiers—our soldiers—our guests.

A committee composed of Miss Kathryn Burke, chairman, and Mrs. Mary Canavello, Mrs. Mabel Harden and Mrs. Anita Ward has worked hard to have everything in readiness when they come.

These patriotic ladies have collected money from merchants and residents of Pomona avenue (this week's host street).

They have prepared refreshments, music, novelties for the soldiers and all local folks who attend.

Now . . . what the committee wants to be sure of is: LOTS of dancing partners for the soldiers.

While girls of high school age are most welcome, the committee urges older girls and married women to turn out, too. After all, they say, these soldiers will vary in age from 18 to 35 years. Therefore, the committee is particularly desirous for the women of Brea to come out. Sweethearts and husbands of these ladies also are invited to come. All the committee wants is to have plenty of partners for the soldier boys, see that the soldiers have a good time, make them feel that Brea is a swell town, a live-wire town, a patriotic town.

There will be plenty of local ladies to act as hostesses, a master of ceremonies, Barney Barnes and his orchestra, other good music to keep things lively.

WILL ALL LADIES WHO EXPECT TO DANCE WITH THE SOLDIERS PLEASE BE AT THE WOMAN'S CLUB BY 7 OR A LITTLE LATER?

The committee wants to have plenty of partners on hand when the soldiers arrive. They are expected to be here by 7, must return to camp at 10:30.

Be patriotic . . . Lady Dancers! Please come out! Oh, yes. Everything is free to everyone!

AIR RAID PROTECTION INSTRUCTIONS

Here are instructions issued to the people of Brea to be followed in case of blackouts, air raids or other conditions which may arise from war conditions.

They come direct from headquarters . . . they are designed to protect our citizens in groups . . . they MUST be followed.

1. Familiarize yourself with your local blackout and all clear signals. Four long blasts on the siren with short pauses between blasts is the BREA BLACKOUT SIGNAL. (The "all clear" signal will be a long steady blast of the siren.)

2. When the signal comes, turn out all house lights if you have not blackened out your windows. Stay home. If bombs fall, lie down on the floor to avoid flying glass or try to find a place where you are protected from sides.

3. If you are driving, pull car into curb, turn out lights and get under cover and lie down. Keep away from crowded places and stay off the streets. Streets must be kept clear.

4. If incendiary bombs fall on your house, cover them with DRY (wet sand is dangerous) sand. Keep sand bags in your home. Keep garden hose attached to faucet. Use a fine spray only on bombs. A splash or jet of water will make them explode.

5. If you have a soda-and-acid extinguisher (the kind you use upside down), place your finger over nozzle to make spray. Do not use the small cylinders of liquid on bombs. They can be used on ordinary fires.

6. If poison gas is used, go to the most inside room of your house (fewest doors and windows). Paste paper over windows, stuff cracks in doors and windows with rags.

7. Appoint one member of the house now as air raid warden to take charge and remember all the rules.

8. Don't believe rumors—spreading false rumors is part of the enemy's technique.

9. Should you get an air raid warning, remember to shut off gas stoves, gas furnaces.

10. Anti-aircraft fire means falling shrapnel. You are safe from it indoors, away from windows.

11. Above all, keep cool. Stay home. Put out lights. Lie down. Keep away from windows.

Various Brea officers and those in authority from other cities say they doubt if the average person realizes the danger we all face.

These possible dangers not only are from enemy air raids but from saboteurs . . . those who would destroy our plants, our oil wells, our dams, our means of communication, transportation, existence.

Remember: Every country in Europe that fell before Hitler and his gang were "softened" up by fifth columnists, who spread lies, discord, tried to make the people hysterical when trouble came.

Brea may never see air raids or saboteurs. But let's be ready if they come and keep calm!

BREA BLACKOUT

Unannounced, Brea had its first blackout Wednesday evening, starting at 8 o'clock.

Whistles of Shaffer Tool Works blew loud and long.

And then the lights of the city started going out.

Be it said for the citizens, they responded nobly. A walk around a goodly portion of the city about 9 showed but a few lights. Several of these were night lights in stores where the owners were gone and no one could enter.

By and large, the blackout was a success.

However, there were some things PLENTY WRONG!

One was the large gang of boys and young men who roamed the city as though on Halloween prowling. They signaled with flashlights, one shot off a gun. They gathered on Pomona avenue and yelled at motorists. Parents of these boys must keep them home during blackouts or else.

Autos drove around town with their lights on . . . or turned them on when they came to intersections.

Here are orders from Washington about blackouts and air raids worth studying and keeping:

Don't drive with lights on.
Stay at home. Get off the street.
Put out lights. Stay away from windows.

Don't scream—keep quiet and do not run for shelter—walk.

Don't believe wild rumors await official notice from local officers.

Keep your radio turned on.
When bombs fall lie down whether at home or outside.

and opportunity and freedom, America, he could scarcely believe in this heaven on earth. After tak- ing five years to prove to the American consulate that he was an American, he arrived in New York harbor in 1927. The greatest diffi- culty that now loomed up was not knowing so much as one word of English. Soon he was with his brother in Iowa. Here he caught his first impression of the great American automobile in the model T Ford, which had to be vigorously cranked and "strangled."

His imitation of Mussolini and Hitler was a high point in the lec- ture and brought forth great laugh- ter and applause.

Conquering the English language was a very difficult problem for Risk to overcome. Cursing and profane language, picked up in the conversation of his fellow workers at a meat factory, managed to get him in many embarrassing situa- tions. This being his limited vo- cabulary, he used this vulgar lan- guage until his brother heard him and explained the meaning.

Upon the advice of a friend he got a job as a shoeman and was finally set to work for an educa- tion. His seven months at Iowa university started him off on the right track and he made many friends. The public library and friends proved to give forth with the most help. For every word his friends taught him he paid them one cent and each history book read to him was worth 35 cents.

Closing with a serious note, Salom Risk made a plea to all American youth to wake up and appreciate all the wonderful opportunities this great country offers to one and all.

Basketball Game Casualty

Valencia was not the only loser last Friday at the game. Anna Lou Hill lost valuables which meant as much to her as the championship means to Brea-Olinda.

Doing her duty for the G. A. A. by selling candy for them, Anna found it necessary to lay her purse down in order to carry a loaded tray. Upon returning, she found that her purse and its contents had disappeared from the place on the grandstand where she had left them.

A thief was the only answer. What good could its contents, her boy friend's gold track shoe, a pair of $25 glasses which might make anyone other than Anna cross-eyed, a bit of change which could buy but little, and two foun- tain pens treasured by the loser, be to the burglar?

Anna Lou will not press charges and promises to keep mum as to who the taker is if her valuables will be returned to her in some way.

May Anna's and the "Wildcat's" plea bring back the treasured ar- ticles.

Kitaoka Scores for Junior Wins

In the final half of a fast game of hockey last week, Martha Kitaoka cracked the ball swiftly and squarely into the cage to give a 1-0 victory to the juniors over the freshmen. Both teams played with only 10 girls and were equally matched for the second interclass game of the season.

When the final whistle blew to end the scrappy game of hockey last week the score read juniors 2, sophomores 0. Anna Lou Hill hit the ball to Martha Kitaoka for both points in the first quarter of a fast moving game. Eleven girls made up a full junior team while the sophomores were handicapped with an eight-girl team.

At the hockey feed which will be held in the near future the jun- iors will be honored guests, for they won the interclass tournament.

Wildcat Band Plans to Entertain Whittier Band

Planning a new combination of bands this year, the Whittier band and Brea-Olinda bands will play two concerts together, one at Whit- tier and one at Brea.

The Whittier band will come to Brea for a rehearsal in the after- noon from 2 to 5 and then they will be invited to partake of a ban- quet with the Wildcat band as hosts. After the banquet the two bands will play a very colorful con- cert to which the public is invited. This event is planned for the last part of March. Probably on a Fri- day night.

A concert is also being planned to be given quite soon. This con- cert will consist of the music heard at the assembly concert and also many added pieces of, which the

POPPY DAY

WHEREAS, when the forces of ruthless autocracy committed aggressions against the United States in 1917, the best young men of this nation offered their lives in the nation's defense; and

WHEREAS, among these young men were many from Brea, who served gallantly and sacrificed greatly in the conflict; now

THEREFORE, I, Emil C. Carlson, mayor of the city of Brea, believing that the memory of their high patriotic sacrifice should be kept bright for the inspiration of America, urge all citizens to wear their memorial flower, the Poppy, on Friday and Saturday, May 25 and 26, and give for the Poppy as generously as they are able to aid the war's living victims, the disabled veterans and dependent families.

To that purpose, I do hereby proclaim Friday and Saturday, May 25 and 26, to be Poppy day in the city of Brea.

Official Visit of Esther Sandman at Eastern Star Meet

Deputy Grand Matron Esther Sandman made her official visit at the regular meeting of the chapter of the Eastern Star on Monday, May 14.

About fifty members and officers were present with Worthy Matron Florence Green and Worthy Patron Roy Monroe presiding.

Worthy Patron Roy Monroe presented Deputy Grand Matron Esther Sandman with a gift from the members and she received several other gifts from the officers.

Tables were decorated with many spring flowers and nut cups in shape of May baskets. Ice cream, cake, tea and coffee were served in the dining room.

The dining room committee were: chairman Betty Dennis, assisted by Erin Biggs, Rachel DeGross, Viola Branch, Sam Dennis and Arthur Branch.

German Prisoner of War From Pomona Apprehended Here

A German prisoner of war, one of three who escaped from a Pomona work camp on Sunday, was taken into custody Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Aldrich of 411 West Imperial highway.

The German, who gave his name as Kurt Langner, had gone to the Aldrich home seeking food. He did not speak English but without the aid of several interpreters it was evident that the man preferred capture and food to further wandering and hunger.

Mrs. Aldrich notified police authorities and Langner was turned over by them to the army and F.B.I.

Before he was taken from her home Mrs. Aldrich stated that Langner had bolted a large amount of food and apparently had not eaten for several days. He was also given a package of cigarettes.

Asked why he had left camp the prisoner replied that he wanted to see the country.

Langner's fellow fugitives, who have been identified as George Meindell, 21, and Warren Uri, 20, both about 5 feet 8 inches in height and weighing 140 pounds, are suspected of being responsible for the theft of Joe Neul's Oldsmobile car and two turkeys from the Millen place on Berry avenue.

Shoeprints found near where the car was stolen are similar to shoes worn by prisoners of war and as some Germans have been taught that Argentina is less than 100 miles from the United States it is thought that the escapees may be trying to make their way to that country.

Police authorities express the opinion that the men are still somewhere in the vicinity of Brea or Fullerton, hiding by day and attempting to travel by night.

Sergeant Carner Jr. Presented Medal

Sergeant Irwin W. Carner jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Carner of 203 east Elm street, has been awarded the bronze star medal, according to information Mrs. Carner received May 8. With General George Patton's fourth armored division, Sergeant Carner wrote his mother of the award in a letter sent from Germany April 2. Further specific details of the individual basis for this award are at present lacking, but the medal normally is pre-

25 Germans, War Captives, Pick Fruit

Twenty-five German prisoners of war were put to work over the week-end picking oranges from trees on the 145 acre Brea Ranch, located on south Pomona avenue. The prisoners have been hired by the Orange Belt Citrus Fruit Distributors of Pomona, owners of the ranch, with the cooperation of military authorities.

Benoite Oxandaboure of 711 south Pomona avenue, who is in charge of affairs on the local ranch, stated Monday night that most of these prisoners of war by now at last seem to have become convinced that Germany has lost the war. One has even condescended, it was reported, to admit that Hitler did do a stupid thing when he entered into war with the United States!

Oxandaboure judges that the prisoners range in age from about seventeen to twenty-three. Generally, they seem to be in good health. One apparently has a good knowledge of the English language, and most of them speak some French as well as German. There have been one or two cases of minor difficulties in dealing with them but, on the whole, it seems that what work they do is usually done well.

Each prisoner of war is expected to pick a quota of thirty-two boxes of oranges a day, according to Benoite. He is of the opinion that if the Germans had treated our prisoners of war as well as these are being treated we would not have had so much cause for concern. (Editor's note: See the item in this issue in which the Progress cites Sergeant Mervin McHenry's information on the subject.)

In April, German prisoners of war also helped pick lemons on the Brea Ranch.

Souvenir Received By Mrs. W. Jeffress

Private First Class Pauline Wagner of the WACS, serving with the armed forces in Italy, has sent her friend, Mrs. W. E. Jeffress of South Walnut avenue, another unique souvenir. This time it is a copy of the Mediterranean edition of the service newspaper, Stars and Stripes, dated May 3, announcing that the "Nazi

at Council Meeting

At a meeting of the city council on Wednesday night Harold P. Fry appeared to request an ordinance that would protect business places and homes against a repetition of the damage and flying sand that was caused last week when a Santa Ana contractor sandblasted the Oilfields National Bank building. The council expressed the belief that similar situations might be controlled by a more strict observance of the licensing of out of town contractors doing business in Brea.

Harold McCabe, a Fullerton lawyer, sat with the councilmen as legal adviser in place of Elmer Guy, who has been ill.

After the meeting adjourned Mayor Carlson and Councilmen Crowe, Jones, Monroe and Schryer bought personal memberships in the new Chamber of Commerce from Membership Committee Chairman Ernest Taylor, who attended the meeting with Elvin Wilson of the Shaffer Tool Works.

Mrs. M. Jeffress and Granddaughter Share Honors at Party

Celebrating both Mother's Day and the birthday of her granddaughter, Mrs. Marie Jeffress was one of two honor guests at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McIlroy of Burbank, Sunday, May 13.

The granddaughter, Patricia Rose McIlroy, who had reached the age of twelve the day before, shared honors.

Guests at the occasion in addition to Mrs. Jeffress and her daughter, Gaynelle, included: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jeffress and daughter, Sylvia, Mrs. Ruth Jeffress and daughter, Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jackson and daughter Patricia, Miss Louise Church, niece of Mrs. Marie Jeffress, and Technical Sergeant D. Vimin of the Santa Ana air base.

Gifts were exchanged and a delicious dinner was served the guests.

City Officials to Attend Meeting of Joint City Leagues

Brea city officials, headed by Mayor Emil Carlson, plan to attend the joint meeting of the City Leagues of Orange and Los Angeles counties to be held next Thursday night, May 24, at Huntington Beach.

The Brea delegation is looking forward to a well spent evening at the Washington room.
