FUN-A-THON

Brea Olinda
High School student Brad Bishop (left) plays tuba during Fanning Elementary School's 14th
Annual Jog-AThon held on Oct. 22; Fanning pupils (below) zip away before the event's official start. The school exceeded its $25,000 goal by collecting more than $43,000 for playground equipment, library books, computers,
other technology and field trips. More than 600 kindergartners through sixthgraders ran around the school track for a half hour.

4-H

túre idle-

r 40

iem-

1 of-ritos

nted

Ven-

who rear.

4-H

Mr.

and five ib as

Brea's Newest Elementary School Dedicated In Special Mason Rites audience. Flags of the state and hatlon, presented by Assemblyman John Briggs and Congressman , Charles Wiggins, were talsed by Cub Scout Troop No.

892, with their presentation at the ceremonies made by Mrs.

Carol Gregg, president of the Fanning P.T.A. Music was by

By J. B. MOORE

Star-Progress Staff Writer BREA - In what must have been one of the most unique ceremonies in the history of the city of Brea, the William E. Fanning School was dedicated with cornerstone laying ceremonles Saturday afternoon.

The ceremonies were of this unusual kind because of the presence of a man who came to Brea 56 years ago to be its first school superintendent, and was able at the age of 93 to be present 28 years after his retirement to speak and to see the new school dedicated in his honor,

William E. Fanning told of how he had come to the village of Brea in 1914 to a one-building school - the only school in the town - which had six classes. He was not only named superintendent at the time, but also took any of the children who were "leftovers" from the other teachers classes and taught them filmself. In the lail of that year there were 200 children in school in Been, Fairning expressed his philosophy of education with the words, "If you don't like children, don't teach, for you will not be a success."

Joining in appreciation to Mr. familing with the audience of some 300 present, as well as 75 members of the Masonic Lodge which laid the cornerstone, was Master of Ceremonies, Princi-pal Leonard MacKain. He said that the new school which has a modern, cluster, type of classfoom arrangement and striking afchilectural features, as well as a superb hilliside location vironment in which to learn?

Coffierstone laying ceremonies and were presided over by Grand and Master of the Grand Lodge of error Free rand Accepted Masons of the States of California and Hai wall, Herbert A. Huebner. Par ticipating in the cerefilons, were Fanning School students Angela Fraziet; and Kelli Colestock; who placed the name plaque for the school. Mementoes of the school district and city were placed in the metal time capsule. behind the cornerstone, includ-ing histories, maps, minutes, yearbooks and records of lead-ing civic, community traterial and school organizations. Fellow Masons With Huebner conducted the tradition al céremonies which include lise of the symbols of Masshiy or me symbols of Masonty had level, blumb and square had selvel, burnb and square had as well as symbols of the partitis productivity. The same ceremonies have been used for centuries by the Masons to dedicate such buildings as independent and the white the same and ence Hall, the White Housey and the Capitol Building in Sacra, mento. The Masons laid the cornerstone of Bred Olinda High School, Oct. 2, 1926.

Also participating in the ceremonles were Carl O, Haivey, Master of Citrol Masonic Longe 656 James L. Stafford, assistant superintendent for instruction, representing Superintendent Dr. Paul E. Bolle, who could not be present, Alan G. West, present of the school board; and Burton Meyer Jr., Grand Orator of the Masons, who gave the address. Architect for the project val Richards, was introduced to the the Brea-Olinda High School band.

Preceding the ceremonies guests were given a luncheon at the Brea High School, and following the program the audience was invited to make a tour of the buildings of the new

Portrait Of A Ro

HERE I COME! - Bob Bluin (47), junior halfback Sonora High School's Raiders, romped over the La Hat High School stadium gridiron as if he owned it Sature hight. He but on a one-man crusade that gave the Raid the Orange League championship. Here he skirts right o for a 20-yard pickup, ohe of 25 times he carried the ball. Ballion Co. State State 1996

Unification Set Tuesday

rustees High onsider t to a tant at et with he elein the school t meet-y night educaa Park Orange-an exion will be the guest speaker. The meet ing will be held for information purposes only and no action will be taken. The districts at lected by the possible unificate tion will be La Habra City School District, Lowell Joint School District, Yorba Linda School District, Buena Park and Fullerton Elementary School

The unification question was bitterly debated, before it was defeated five years ago. Since the last election there have been 30 new trustees elected to the boards of the districts in the area under consideration.

THE STATE OF STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE STATE OF THE

Fanning School celebrates

BREA — William E. Fanning Elementary School will hold a Re-Dedication Ceremony and Get Together from 7-9 p.m., Feb. 21 in its Media Center.

The evening will begin with an orientation from 7-7:30 p.m. and continue with music by the Fanning Chorus, and introductions by Principal Tim Harvey of school board and district representatives.

The evening will conclude with a social gathering from 8-9 p.m. Memorabilia, inleuding past pictures of staff and each sixth grade class will be on display.

A community birthday party for the school will be held the folling day from 4:30-6:30 p.m.. There will be entertainment, food, and many family activities.

For information, call 529-3908.

STAR-PR

NE (213) 697-1734 or (714) 529-2144

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1969

FOUR SECTIONS — 30 PAGES — 10 CENTS

School Fanning

Fanning Who Will Be 93 Sunday Star-Progress Staff Writer By RICK WILLIAMS

BREA - For 28 years William E. Fanning was an educator in Brea until his retirement in 1942. Sunday the long-time Brea resident will be 93 years old but his birthday present from the Brea-Olinda Unified School District came a little early.

a new 730-student capacity edu- be completed by the deadline-cation center located at the The school will house two Thursday afternoon, the re-rently the plumbing strike, has but district officials are northeast corner of Apricot and kindergartens and the equiva-Brookwood Avenue, northeast lent of 18 classrooms including groundbreaking for the William ably, but district officials are E. Fanning Elementary School, hopeful the $952,000 school will construction consider two classrooms for special edutired .educator attended alslowed Brea Junior High.

City and school officials were cation students.

A classroom for the educa on hand as well as numerous:

CAR-PROGRESS

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1969

FOUR SECTIONS - 30 PAGES

or Fanning School Held

_ Breaking st elementary Villiam E. linda Unified ol after him. st's rendering of the future school is Alan West, president of the board of education. Others present for the ceremony were (far left) Marvin Waronoff, general contractor; William Hamilton, mayor of Brea; and (far right) Dr. Paul Bolie, district superintendent.

(Daily Star-Progress Pl. '

William Fanning Attends Ceremony

Early Birthday Present For Fanning Who Will Be 93 Sunday

> By RICK WILLIAMS Star-Progress Staff Writer

BREA - For 28 years William E. Fanning was an educator in Brea until his retirement in 1942. Sunday the long-time Brea resident will be 93 years old but his birthday present from the Brea-Olinda Unified School District came a little early.

a new 750-student capacity education center located at the northeast corner of Apricot and Brookwood Avenue, northeast of Brea Junior High.

City and school officials were on hand as well as numerous friends and ex - students to officially broke ground on his namesake, an elementary school which is planned to be one of the most modern and progressive in Orange County, according to district officials.

Fanning, who came to Brea as a teacher - principal in 1914 and later served as the elementary school superintendent until his retirement, thanked the district and the city in a clear and y voice for the hon-nrea's newest ter him.

Thursday afternoon, the re- rently the plumbing strike, has lired educator attended a slowed construction consider-groundbreaking for the William ably, but district officials are E. Fanning Elementary School, hopeful the $952,000 school will be completed by the deadline.

The school will house two kindergartens and the equivalent of 18 classrooms including two classrooms for special education students.

A classroom for the educationally handicapped and anwatch as the elder gentleman other for the mentally retarded will be included in the school's master plan.

The new William Fanning School was studied for hearly 10 months by the board and various experts in 1967 before the final plans were accepted. According to district officials, the school is in keeping with the latest in educational trends.

Twenty - two teachers and a principal will be employed by the district to staff the new elementary school when It opens its doors in 1970.

Breaking t elementary Villiam E. inda Unified ol after him. it's rendering of the future school is Alan West, president of the board of education. Others present for the ceremony were (far left) Marvin Waronoff, general contractor; William Hamilton, mayor of Brea; and (far right) Dr. Paul Bolie, district superintendent.

(Daily Star-Progress Photo)

enies Charge ing Weapons

rovided under the

the government only weapons Italy, Dence.

e, as Proxmire pistols." Senate speech of the 1916

In his speech, Proxmité asked both the Pentagon and a spokesman for the State Department to come tnamese Defense up with answers to his charge "at the earliest possible time."

"I am informed that these sales are occurring," he said. "My understanding is that the arms offered to private arms spokesman dealers included over 5,000 M16 M16 markings on rifles as well as grenade eing sold did not launchers. Browning automatic the modern rifles, submachine guns and

> Richard F. Kaufman, of the staff member Congress' Joint Economic Com- students in 10 days. miltee, of which Proxmire is According to James Stafford, vice chairman said the Senator's charge stemmed from a predicted enrollment for the mimeographed document, written in Vietnamese.

When translated into English, he said, it turned out to be a flyer advertising the weapons for sale to the highest bldder.

He said the South Victnamese acknowledged thê Embassy weapons were being offered for sale.

"It would be an outrage to the taxpayer," Proxmire said, if U.S. arms intended to be used against the Viel Cong are instead being sold by the South Vietnamese.

He addressed these questions to the defense and state departments in letters to them:

"What are the names of the private arms dealers involved in these sales and from what countri do they come? How control of his car

BREA - An increase of over 100 students has been experienced by the Brea - Olinda Utilfied School District since the first day of school, Wednesday, Sept. 10, the Star - Progress learned today.

According to District Supt. Dr. Paul Bolie, enrollment for the entire district is up 104 students since Sept. 8 when the enrollment figure was set at 4,148 students.

The current figure, according n to district records as of Sept. 18, of is 4,252 or an increase of 104 school year 1969-70, exclusive of summer school, is 4,354.

"The district is 102 students short of the administrative prediction, but there are a number of empty homes in the city ready for occupancy, and we expect enrollment to increase as families move into the district," Stafford said.

Car Overturns; Two Youths Escape Injury

n new low-movem capacity con los completed by the deadline. cation center located at the northeast corner of Apricot and kindergartens and the equiva-Brookwood Avenue, northeast of Brea Junior High.

City and school officials were cation students. on hand as well as numerous friends and ex - students to watch as the elder gentleman other for the mentally retardofficially broke ground on his ed will be included in the namesake, an elementary school which is planned to be one of the most modern and progressive in Orange County, according to district officials.

as a teacher - principal in 1914 and later served as the elementary school superintendent until his retirement, thanked the district and the city in a clear and youthful voice for the honor of having Brea's newest school named after him.

"I thank you all and wish to express my feeling of gratitude in having played a part in the development of the educational system in the city of Brea,' the educator said.

Fanning lives at 219 S. Madrona, with his wife, Stella, and his son, Carl Fanning, is currently an educator with the Brea - Olipda Unified School District.

Two members of the groundbreaking audience and members of the board of education, Leo Piantoni and Alan West, were former students under Fanning.

The new elementary school dedicated to the elder man is expected to be completed in the fall of 1970, maybe in time for Fanning's 94th birthday. Strikes by various unions, most cur-

The school will house two lent of 18 classrooms including two classrooms for special edu-

A classroom for the educationally handicapped and anschool's master plan.

The new William Fanning School was studied for nearly 10 months by the board and various experts in 1967 before Fanning, who came to Brea the final plans were accepted. According to district officials, the school is in keeping with the latest in educational trends.

> Twenty - two teachers and a principal will be employed by the district to staff the new elementary school when it opens its doors in 1970.7.

The Weather

Continuing hazy sunshine and overcast skies in evening and morning hours, Slight drizzles expected. II l g h 75, low 64. Beachés: cloudy, 60s. Moun-70s. Deserts: tains: sunny, warm, 90 to 108.

Local Temps

BREA
High	77
Low	61
LA HABRA
High	77
Low	63
(For a 24-hour period endi	ng

Burglar Drops Loot When Shot Fired

LA HABRA - Two shots were fired at a burglar here shortly after midnight last night.

The result was that the fleeing burglar dropped 25 pounds of cold cuts he had taken from a freezer at the residence of Ignacia P. Sainz, 561 S. Wall St., leaged into a waiting car and sped from the scene.

It began at 12:10 a.m. today when the victim of the attempted theft heard noises coming from the house's garagé area.

With pistol in hand the owner of the home went to investigate, and, according to police reports, saw the thief moving from the garage across the front lawn of the home.

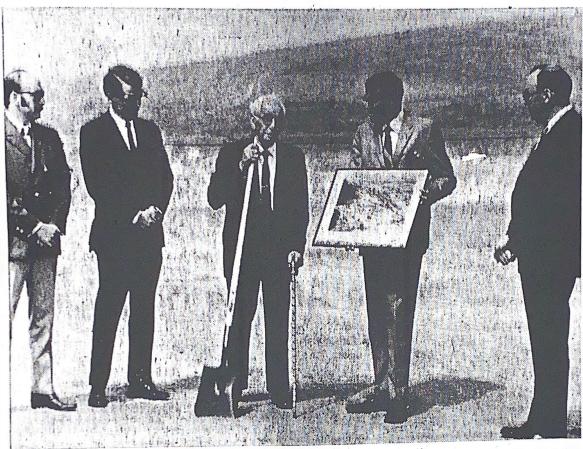

One shot was fired and the burglar dropped the loot and headed for a car parked down the street a short was from the house.

nd shot was fired at the fleeing vehicle,

Wast inch

For Fanning

By ite

igly behind Judge Cleworth and Carolinian redit to the es expects a nortly from ate for the ed strategic

1 the 27 1-2 a allowance years of ped himself list" whose as to get a m Congress ould sign a lowence.

r a "middle esegregation emes "that gration and segregation

· American aos. d that if the to require om Vietnam t year was Senate, he sition would ig such a prolong the

WILLIAM E. FANNING SCHOOL - Breaking ground on the site of Brea's newest elementary school, long-time Brea educator William E. Fanning, 92, thanks the Brea-Olinda Unified School District for naming the school after him. Presenting the educator with an artist's rendering

of the future school is Alan West, president of the board of education. Others present for the ceremony were (far left) Marvin Waronoff, general contractor; William Hamilton, mayor of Brea; and (far right) Dr. Paul Bolie, district superintendent.

(Daily Star-Progress Photo)

Pentagon Denies Ch S. Viet Selling Weapons

e President Pentagon and the Saigon U.S. aid program. e President Pentagon and the Saigon of the Pentagon and the Saigon as pokesman for the State Department to come of hearings charge by Sen. William Proximite, D-Win, that the South Vietnamese Defe Ministry said the government of the South Vietnamese only were selling only were selli r open Vietnamess have been selling oblahed

undle

WASHINGTON (UPI) -The sale of arms provided under the ln his speech, Proxmire asked both the Pentagon and hige of BREA - An increase of over rently an 100 students has been experienced by the Brea - Olinda Unified School District since the first day of school, Wednesday, Sept. 10, the Star - Progress of the boar learned today.

Early Fannir

BREA an educato the long-tir birthday p District car Thursday tired educat groundbre '

E. Fann a new cation north Brook of Br

Cit on hand as friends and watch as th officially bro namesak school which one of the progressive according to

Fanning, as a teacher and later set tary school til his relice district and and youthfu or of having school name

"I thank y express my in having p developmen al system it the educator

Fanning | drona, with his son, Ca Brea - Oli District.

Two mem breaking au Piantoni ar former stud nt superintendent, ool site, which will ill be located just Road. ar-Progress Photol

dopted ard

ve site for a new clemenchool in the Macco deve- forces " it just west of Associatad, off Imperial High-nine - acre school site southwest of the tract's ed city park. A name for or raska ndiana and District of South Vietnam's wish.

kined author to the betsons in the North.

should be able to agree and compromise to de-escalate the He also accused Harriman of the next session, appealed to North Vietnamese delegate Xuan Thuy to discuss these points instead of "rehash-ing old controversies." He said trying to rewrite history "is an unnecessary and unfortunate way to begin these conversations.'

But another indication of the long negotiations ahead came from Thuy who claimed credit for getting the talks started and said the proposals put forward by Harriman "do not steer the talks favorably toward peace."
They "contained no new elements," he said.

Thuy added that the United States must halt unconditionally all bombing and shelling of the North if it wants peace or wants to get formal peace talks started.

By "rewriting history" Harriman referred to Hanol's allegations the United States violated the Geneva accords on Indochl-na. Instead, he said, Hanoi cracked down on the flight of refugees after 900,000 poured into the South and instituted a "brutal farm program (which) resulted in the execution of 50,000 to 100,000 to 100,0

He told of South Vielnam's prosperity until 1960 when he sald Hanol began its program of infiltration and subversion in violation of those accords and said the clear way to restore the 1954 accords was for North Vietnam to "abandon the resort to force, to reestablish the Demilitarized Zone and systeto, withdraw matically

Harriman and Thuy met for 3 1-2-hours today at their second full meeting and agreed to meet again Saturday at 10:30 a.m. (5:30 a.m. EDT). Harriman spoke for an hour and was followed by Thity who spoke for hool is pending construct an hour and a half.

After that the time was taken up with "a verbal dialogue" between the two delegation tired. chiefs, a North Vietnamese spokesman reported.

Harriman said the two sides appeared to have some measure of agreement in five areas:

"First, we both speak of an independent, democratic, peacernhusker State, winning ful and prosperous South han 50 per cent of the Victnam. You also speak of a t was Kennedy's third neutral South Vietnam. We have primary win in a week no problem with this, if that is is scalps were hung on -"Second, we both speak of last week. peace, of a respect for the the Republican side Geneva accords of 1954-to Beg M. Nixon scored his which we add the 1962

North Vietnam showed no early to prove United States interven- "the false claims of Harrima Harriman listed five areas on diplomatic breakthrough was in tion and aggression for the past and reserved the right which he said the two sides sight that might lead to a 14 years are legal," Le said.

narringi area oy an incan

comment in detail on them

William Fanning

School To Be Named After

mously the naming of the new Bell Gillaspy of Indianapolis: Brookwood area school after William E. Fanning:

Fanning, a retired superinten-dent of the Breat Elementary District, is 91 and lives in Brea.

Leo Piantoni left his position as president of the school board to make the motion of naming the school after Fanning.

Piantoni is a former student of Fanning's when he was a teacher in the Brea district.

Fanning was named superintendent of the elementary dis-trict in 1917, a position which he held until 1942 when he re-

"This is not unusual to name a former superintendent to this honor," said Plantoni.

Also mentioned for the school's name was Vincent Jaster, who, after 39 years with the district, will retire in June. The board pointed out that Jaster might be considered at

La Habra Resident Killed In Vietnam

Pfc. Edward Gillaspy Becomes Eighth La Habra Casualty

LA HABRA - Marine Private | Local residents previously

The 19 - year - old Marine Sgt. Darwin Ride graduated from La Habra High Alfred Simpson. School last June, Born May 26, 1949 in Indianapolis, Indiana, young Gillaspy had moved to La Habra with his family five years ago.

According to information recéived by the family from the Department of Defense, young Gillaspy was killed May 9 in Quang Tri Province, Vietnam. He was connected with the Third Marine Division, at the Survivors aside from his parfied School District trustees ents, include two brothers, Rich-Tuesday night bypassed its sys- ard and Brian, and a sister, tem of naming schools by area Helia, all at home; and his paand streets and voted unani-ternal grandmother, Mrs. Ella Private Gillaspy is the eighth known La Habran to be lost in action in Vietnam.

Funeral arrangements pending further notification from the Department of De-

First Class Edward A. Gillaspy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gillaspy, 9032 Randall Ave., La habra, has been reported killed in action in Vietnam.

The 19 - year - old Marine Control of the Polymer and Control of Sgt. Darwin Ridenhour and C

Spec. 4 Martin W. Guard the lone Brea resident killed Vjetnam.

Pfc. Edward A. Gillaspy

Green Beret Camp Partially Destroyed

bomb squads partly destroyed had swept into the area. But the U.S. Special Forces camp Black Widow Mountain, the atop Black Widow Mountain defending Berets, plus U. where Americans and Commu-Army signalmen, stayed at nists for a year had shared the recaptured their camp. The Vi same water hole, military Cong fled over the barbed wi spokesmen said today.

the 3,200 foot mountain 55 miles besides the number killed. Th northwest of Saigon Monday Communists began the attac midnight and early Tuesday with mortar, grenade and sma

· a three-hour fight the cliffs. rican defenders finally The Viet Cong bomb square

(UP1)--Viet Cong | the 6,000 North Vietnamese wi through which they had com

They said the guerrillas Twenty-four Americans were scaled the 70 degree heights of wounded in the mountain fight with mortar, grenade and sma blew up buildings throughout arms fire. Then they co through the wire atop the stee

Dedication of William E. Fanning Wehool Eres, November 14, 1970

It is willian Emerson Farming's finest hour. His new blue suit shines bluer and his white heir so dazaling, white. No matter his cans has now become a third support for perpendicularity. His whole face is

The sky is so blue.

The school band -- what else -- plus his glorious symphony -- and recessional. Stelle by his side -- feminine and darling in her pretty pink dress -- no matter the once rosy cheeks are this morning white as chalk -- the wisby hair unruly, the eyes seeing little. She is there.

And the little children gather round.

Appropriate words are spoken by the dignitaries - school board members - the mayor -- the new principal -- the 'aster of Brea 'asons (C.O. Harvey, Jr.) - the Master of the Grand Lodge of the state of Celifor mia in the splendor of his tails, his velvet and broomde apron and his

The ceremony proceeds.

Three silver urns upon the table are poured in turn to release their contents onto a silver plate of offering. They contain the "corn of nourishment" (that the children who go to this school will grow in wisdom), the "wine of refreshment" (that the teachers may ever be renewed and able to present what they have to give in more and more interesting ways) and the "oil of plenty" (that the school will prevail, whatever

Now the cornerstone is raised for all to see. It is a tombstone.... Dark grey granite. WILLIAM E. FANNING. A trowel-full of wet mortar lodges. the stone in its place, among many stones, around the school's flag pole,

A Mason checks with his square that it is square. A Mason checks with his level that it is level. A Mason checks with his plumb line that it is straight. The position of the stone is satisfactory.

Grandpa steps proudly but oh so slowly upon his cane, to the microphone. "I am so proud, I'm about to burst", he says, "but" (with the familiar twinkle in his eye) "I won't). He blesses the little children and the teachers who will attend his school, and then after a brief thank you to all present, his mind manders back, and he speaks of the coyotes and the rabbits that once roamed these bare hills. Now he is speaking to the children. "And oh, how the poyotes howled", he says. We are slightly embarrassed but the little ones are spellbound, as once again he thanks the dignitaries and goes on so slowly back to his seat smidst their applause.

The Master of California tells us all that 'Tr. Fanning was born in 1876, and the little boy and his parents sitting next, take in a breath as though they've never seen one so old.

Now the PTA president gives the principal a new flag that has flown over the nation's capitol, and a representative of the local Senator, a California state flag. The scoutmaster present fastens them to the virgin rope, and as they fly upward we all stand, and the band plays the national anthem.

The sky is blue as blue.
The Santana wind blows the flags in furls that would tear

if the force continued.
The flagpole is high — high.
Te are so proud.

This -- is -- a celebration of a life.

By Inez Fanning

In upper photo, new Fanning School principal Penny Loetterle helps move furniture in kindergarten class; in lower photo, Loetterle helps first-year kindergarten teacher Linda Lane place furniture before class starts.

Fanning's Loetterle: new face

lier, was a teacher in Tustin Uni-fied School District for six years.

"I'm very honored to be part of the Brea district," Loetterle said "They're doing exciting things. The emphasis is on kids and learning."

In addition to serving as Fan-ming's principal, Loetterle uses her background in emerging lit-eracy to train teachers in read-ing and writing educational strategies. She recently taught a course at University of Califor-nia, Irvine, training 96 teachers. "I train teachers how to teach administrative credentials from UC Irvine.

Raised in Northern California, Loetterle attended UC Berkeley, earning a bachelor's degree in 1969. She went on to earn a mas-ter's degree from Pepperdine University and recently earned writing to primary school stu-dents and to develop strategies for struggling students," Loet-terle explained.

Starting out, she taught for two years at inner-city public schools to constant before taking time of the continue framing's success.

"We want to continue to have an eye on students' achievements, look at individual proments, and make sure what the structure of the continue to have the continue to have an eye on students' achievements, look at individual proments, look at the structure of the continue to have sure what the continue to the co we're doing is what students need," Loetterle said.

By Vanessa Jezin Brea Progress

When the bell rings this morning to signify the start of a new school year, Fanning Elementary will have a new face behind the principal's desk.

Penny Loetterle is the school's new principal, replacing David Biniasz. Loetterle was vice principal at Clara Barton School in Anaheim for two years and, ear-

CLASSROOM

Chris Cushingham, a sixthgrader at Fanning Elmentary, shows off a sculpture he constructed by stringing together tubes of construction paper. The three-dimensional colored art pieces hang from a ceiling fan in a classroom. Fanning art instructor Delaina Hofacre, the only permanent art teacher in the district, teaches children creativity and self-expression through hands-on projects. See story, page 3.
Jack E. Hancock/Brea Progress

Fanning's new face Loetterle:

By Vanessa Jezin SEPTEMBER 3, 1998
Brea Progress

When the bell rings this morning to signify the start of a new school year, Fanning Elementary will have a new face behind the principal's desk.

"I'm very honored to be part of the Brea district," Loetterle said. "They're doing exciting things. The emphasis is on kids and learning."

In addition to serving as Fanning's principal, Loetterle uses her background in emerging literacy to train teachers in reading and writing educational strategies. She recently taught a course at University of California, Irvine, training % teachers.

"I train teachers how to teach writing to primary school students and to develop strategies for struggling students," Loetterle explained.

Raised in Northern California, Loetterle attended UC Berkeley, earning a bachelor's degree in 1969. She went on to earn a mas-