Brea Athlete Set World Mark

BREA—Fame came to Paul Moore by mistake.

He was playing in a tennis match at Brea-Olinda High School when he asked for time out to get a sweat shirt. He was directed to Coach Shorty Smith.

The coach mistook the high school senior for someone else and sent him into the track race. Before Moore could protest, he had a running start toward becoming a world champion.

Moore was enrolled in Stanford University April 17, 1940 when he set a new world's record in running $\frac{3}{4}$ -mile in 2.58:7 minutes to beat a world's record of 3.00.6 held by a Frenchman Jules Lado-umegues since 1932.

The record breaker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Elwood Moore who had settled in Brea in 1911.

Brea's Sen Gives Report

Making his first report as senator, (Tommy) Kuchel of the higher legislative body gave a highly informative report to the Brea Lions club yesterday.

Introduced by Program man Ralph Barnes, Senator Kuchel, in speaking of the recent legislative session in Sacramento, said the one soon to follow—three main problems the senate and the senators have are:

1. Relief.
2. Revenue.
3. Reapportionment.

In Favor of Relief

The senator emphasized that there wasn't a legislator in Sacramento who was not in favor of relief to the worthy in need.

He then went on to show that one time in California, 24 per cent of those receiving relief were aliens.

Kuchel also mentioned proposals for state relief administration.

THOMAS H. KUCHEL

...nearer to those who receive state relief administratively, some sections had been 33 1/2 per cent of the total spent.

In Orange county, on hand relief had been 30 per cent at a cost as low as 6 per cent.

Mrs. Catherine Sanderson Dies in Los Angeles

Mrs. Catherine Sanderson, mother of Mrs. Oral Hollowell of 301 North Pomona avenue, passed away in her home last Sunday after an illness of only two days.

Mrs. Sanderson, 71, was the mother of five boys and five girls, nine of which are still living, eight of them living in and around Los Angeles.

She was a grandmother of 15 and had four great-grandchildren. She had lived in California for 45 years.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2 with services from the chapel of Fry H. Overholzer, Inc., 1719 South Flower avenue, Los Angeles.

Interment will be at Odd Fellows cemetery on Whittier boulevard.

Among those surviving her are a daughter, Mrs. Hollowell, grandchildren Bill and Donald Hollowell, Mrs. Pauline Hughes and Stanley Hollowell, all known in Brea. Another daughter is Mrs. Marie H. Young of Buena Park.

Mrs. Sanderson was the widow of Thomas W. Sanderson, builder of the Niagara Falls tunnel. It is reported.

Paul Moore Is Beaten by Cold, Tobacco Smoke

Paul Moore, Brea's world champion contribution to the slender path of the nation, came out of retirement last week-end to race in New York and Jersey City.

Unfortunately for Moore he had been unable to do any training the few days before the race, due to heavy rains at Van Nuys, where he now works and lives.

So, arriving in New York out of training, hours late on the plane, and with a heavy cold, Paul failed to show the speed and stamina which took him to the world championship less than a year ago.

Another handicap which Moore faced was running for the first time on an enclosed track, the heavy tobacco smoke from the crowds which packed Madison Square Garden, New York, and Seaton hall, Jersey City, choked him.

In the New York race Saturday night, Moore ran the full race but finished last.

In the Jersey City race Monday night, Moore led the pack for the first half-mile but the smoke got him and he had to stop.

Moore arrived home Tuesday morning.

He reports he had a wonderful time, that everyone was fine to him, and he now is going into real training for the Compton and Long Beach relays in the spring.

That is the way the army picture looks for Brea at the moment, according to Chairman Ralph Nicoletti of Draft Board No. 174.

Harold Danieley of 244 North Madrona and Duane Ve'Del of South Laurel are sure to go to camp with William Stephens of 107 Redwood the possibility.

These young men will be among 43 men sent by the induction board of this district.

As far as is known now, they will leave for camp sometime between

Boy Scout Drive Starts Today; Do Your Part!

In Brea and the rest of the United States, there begins today the annual drive for funds for the Boy Scouts.

"To do its part toward strengthening and invigorating democracy the Boy Scout movement will during Boy Scout week (February 7-13) reflect the national mood of the United States by readying its members for instant and effective action," said Arnold Berry, chairman of the local Boy Scout drive.

"Scout troops in this community and through the country have prepared plans to quickly mobilize the Scouts in the event of local or national crisis."

"These troops," Berry pointed out, "can often assemble their entire membership of high school age youth within one hour."

The whole program of the movement is built around the Boy Scout motto: "Be Prepared!"

Assisting Berry on the local Boy Scout drive for funds are Chief of Police J. M. Pearson and Avery Brown.

REWARD OFFERED FOR WHEREABOUTS OF BOY

President Reese Taylor leaned back in his chair and smiled to himself. In his hand was a note, written in an uncertain little hand. Attached was a dollar bill. The note read:

Man Is Killed in Brea Accident

Struck on the head Monday by a six-by-six-inch wooden post, Harold Fred Hauptman, a workman on the pipeline construction along Central avenue, died Tuesday in a Whittier hospital from a concussion of the brain.

He was employed by American Concrete and Steel Pipe company, contractors for the pipeline extension work, and he and his family had resided at the Casa Brea Inn.

Hauptman, aged 25, was born in Long Beach. He is survived by his wife, two step-daughters, mother, father, three sisters and five brothers.

The funeral will be held this (Friday) afternoon, 2 o'clock, at Blackman & Skidmore funeral home in Pomona. Burial in Pomona cemetery.

Bud Easton Injured on the Job

According to word received here this week Bud Easton fell about 15 feet while on the job and has been suffering with an injured back.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Easton and Mrs. Jack Escoz drove to Santa Maria to be with their son and daughter.

The accident occurred over the week-end. Full particulars have not been received.

Brea Bowling Teams Doing Well by Themselves

Brea's Union bowling team last Wednesday took two out of four points, putting them in fourth place and only three points out of second.

A Fullerton team is way out in the lead and it will take some "sharp shooting" to catch up with them in the 14 weeks ahead. Those who bowl besides Bud were bought and opened up the then closed Brea theater and did a fine job until the illness which caused his death began to affect his strength.

About a year ago, with his health impaired, Gumm sold the local theater to A. F. Martin, who in turn placed his partner, N. D. Thompson, as manager here.

Since the theater sale, Gumm had retired.

Born in Tennessee

Born in Murfreesboro, Tenn., 67 years ago, Robert Emmett Gumm lived several places before he came to Brea. For five years he lived in Chicago. After leaving there, the Gumm family moved to Seattle, then Los Angeles.

A member of the Lions, Elks and other organizations, Gumm had been active in civic affairs before his illness.

Gumm is survived by his wife, Mrs. Belle E. Gumm; one son, Dick, a senior at Brea-Olinda high school; one daughter, Mrs. Gordon Durham of Seattle; three grandchildren, a brother, Will, of Birmingham, Ala.; three nieces, the Garland sisters, whose real name is Mrs. Gumm and Dick will continue to live.

P. O. MOMAINE, Mac's New and Used Furniture Store: "The news of Mr. Gumm's passing came to me as a shock and surprise although I had known of his serious physical condition for some time.

"Through personal dealings, he and I became friends soon after he came to Brea, which friendship grew into a very close personal one. His visits to my place were many and always looked forward to. I shall always cherish the memory of this fellowship which can never be replaced."

JOE WITTEN, Outlets National bank says: "It was my privilege to have known Bob Gumm intimately during all the time he lived in Brea. In that association I came to know Bob as a real influence in the betterment and advancement of this community and that he was held in such high regard by all was a position he rightly deserved.

"Honesty and integrity guided his every act and his word was the equivalent of a bond. Bob was an excellent citizen and in his death Brea suffers an irreparable loss."

Paul Moore Races in New York This Week

Paul Moore, Brea's (and Stanford's) winged foot Mercury of the cinderpath, will race during the week and in Madison Square Garden, New York, and compete in the famous Wanamaker mile. This is their thirty-fourth annual invitation.

Moore boarded a Strateliner last evening at 8 to fly to his destination, and will leave there to fly back home at midnight Monday.

But Moore will do double duty in New Jersey at Jersey City in another indoor race, the local star will run the Bielly mile Monday evening.

Moore received this invitation via a 140 word telegram. "This is the Seton Hall college's fourteenth annual indoor meet to be held in the Jersey City Armory."

Although he is not at Stanford this year but is employed in Van Nuys by the telephone company, Moore will run under Stanford colors. He will be a scolar his next year.

A. J. Barnes Elected
 Principal at Lincoln
 School in Bellflower

Alexander J. Barnes, who taught school in Olinda for many years, was recently elected to the principalship of the Lincoln school in Bellflower and has been on the job now about two weeks.

Mr. Barnes can boast of an unusually fine faculty of nine teachers with whom his students and he already enjoyed his new position immensely.

He is a graduate of Michigan university and is a former principal of Elsinore grammar school. Since leaving Olinda Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and their son, Robert, have been residing in Lakewood Village.

Barnes has been doing part-time work in Fullerton, Long Beach and other localities, also doing some private tutoring.

He was active in the Congregational church and was a member of the choir. Mrs. Barnes was their director of the local church.

Brea friends congratulate Principal Barnes and family in their new location.

Last Rites Are Held for Mrs. Carrie Sachs

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock for Mrs. Carrie B. Sachs, who had been a Brea resident for 18 years. Mrs. Sachs, 66 years of age, died Sunday in her home after having been ill for some time.

She was the mother of Mrs. Mabel F. Russell of 102 South Madrona avenue.

Last rites were held in the McAulay and Suters mortuary in Fullerton. Rev. Cecil B. Prior officiating.

Loquilla Epton Leaves Tonight for Girls State

Loquilla Epton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Epton of 735 North Pomona will leave Los Angeles tonight for Sacramento, where she will represent Brea at the first annual Girls State.

Miss Epton is sponsored by Brea Woman's auxiliary post of the American Legion.

Mrs. Ralph Nicodemus of 327 South Flower is chairman of the local auxiliary committee which has promoted sending a delegate from here.

All delegates from southern California will meet at the union station in Los Angeles and leave on a special train for Sacramento.

Patterned along the line of Boys State, Girls State will operate a mythical state, under the direction of competent instructors and counselors. Over 100 girls will be present.

The convention will last from Saturday, June 23, to Saturday, June 29.

Moore Shows Heels to Nation's Best at Big Ten Meet

Star runners from all over the nation gathered at Evanston, Ill., Monday to take part in the annual Big Ten conference track and field meet.

And, as predicted by more than 300 Brea's, Paul Moore of 201 South Sycamore showed his heels to the whole pack of em!

It was not a walkaway for our Paul, however, because as he passed the tape, the ever-present Louie Zamperini was only a stride or two behind, with Eisenhart of Ohio State and Leibowitz of Idaho crowding the leader.

The time for the mile was an 14.3s.

Legion Steels Itself for More Nominations

Many more nominations for the various offices for 1940-41 are expected to be revealed when Brea post No. 181, American Legion, has its regular meeting at the local Legion hall, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A cordial welcome is extended to all Legionnaires and veterans in Brea, and vicinity by Commander Burton L. Chittenden. And he reaffirms this invitation with the promise that after the "shootin'" is all over, plenty of appetizers will be served.

Starting July 8 and continuing every week-day until and including July 20, Professor Blau from the Red Cross branch at San Francisco, will give free instruction in swimming to men, women and children at the Brea plunge.

The hours will be from 8 to 12 daily.

The only charge will be for a towel for each swimmer. This charge is made by the plunge. The Red Cross service is free, as is the use of the plunge.

Professor Blau will have a complete swimming program which will include expert and personal instruction of everyone from beginners to senior life savers.

Registration blanks for those interested will be at the plunge office on and after July 1, according to Dr. Charles E. Westerhout, who is one of the local sponsors of this Red Cross activity.

Garden Contest Winners to Be Announced Tonight

Who are the winners in the garden contest? What prizes and awards will be given? Tonight at the Woman's clubhouse these questions will be answered. An interesting and delightful program has been arranged to celebrate this occasion. Every contestant will receive some recognition and it is hoped that everyone will be present.

Friends are cordially invited to come and rejoice with the contestants. There is no charge.

Besides the program an interesting and attractive table has been planned where Brea women will display their own flower arrangements. The program follows:

Vocal numbers—"Trees," Joyce Kilmer; and "In My Garden," Isabelle Firestone; by Duane Ve Del.

Parade of Brea's Flowers: Katherine Fanning, Ines Jones, Frances Robinson, Betty Griffith, Marie Bates, Helen Harvey, Eleanor Gheen; Pekins Edmunds; Phyllis Inge, Marjorie Sandman, Virginia Ross, Betty Ross, Dale Neuls, Barbara Jean Smith and Mrs. Vincent Jaster. Pianist, Mrs. Glenn Curtis.

Vocal numbers—"Old Fashioned Garden," Cole Porter; and "Last Rode of Summer," Frederick Von Flotow; by Mrs. Vincent Jaster.

Reading, "Robinson Crusoe," Phyllis Inge.

"Brea Beautiful" in colored pictures taken by Mrs. Ralph McLean.

"Beautiful Gardens in Color" taken by Dr. Glenn Curtis.

The Garden section wishes to take this opportunity to thank all those who have so liberally cooperated in this project.

We are especially grateful for the generosity of the Progress editor, who has given, without price, all the publicity and the space needed to make this project a success. Mr. Duwars, we thank you.

duty in securing a certificate.

But other states have different laws and in many cases such a certificate is hard to obtain. In the case of older people there just isn't any such thing.

However, a certificate issued even at this late date in the state of one's birth is good—if you can get it. The requirements in different states are different, so anyone born in another state must take up the matter in that state.

Failing to secure an official birth certificate from the county in which he was born, the applicant has but one recourse—he must file an action in superior court. This costs him from $35 to $50, according to statements quoted from the lawyers. The application must be supported by affidavits and other evidence which satisfies the court.

It has been only in late years that a record of one's birth became of importance. Now we can look back and see how much better it would have been if birth registration had been required.

If for any reason you might have need for a birth certificate it might not be a bad idea to start looking into the matter now.

MAY LOSE INTEREST ON COUNTY MONEY

Under state law county treasurers (and other custodians of public funds) may deposit money in the bank in active accounts which are regularly checked against, and in inactive accounts which are the same as time deposits, with 30 days' notice required before withdrawal.

In recent years the banks have paid 1 per cent interest on inactive accounts. Nothing on active accounts. Orange county has been collecting about $25,000 a year from this interest. In Los Angeles county the treasurer carries as high as $50 million dollars in inactive accounts.

Now the banks are complaining. Some of them have complained before. Most of them declare they do not want these inactive accounts—that they actually lose money on the deal. There is a definite prospect that they may get together and refuse to pay interest on such amounts.

Which means that much more out of the taxpayers' pockets.

He was a native of Humboldt, Kans., but had lived in Brea for the past 17 years. Stegeman was formerly a resident of Anaheim.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Emma Stegeman, Mrs. Templeman, Ralph Stegeman, and a granddaughter, Margaret Ruth Stegeman, all local residents; and two brothers and four sisters.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon from the Flanagan and Hodges chapel. Dr. Graham C. Hunter of the First Presbyterian church in Fullerton officiated. Stegeman was laid at rest in the Loma Vista mausoleum.

Paul Moore Runs Third in Last Two Races

Brea's Paul Moore slowed down a bit for his last two races of the year.

In the National A. A. Of championships at Fresno Saturday, Paul came in third in the 1640 yard race behind Walter Mehl of the University of Wisconsin and Glenn Cunningham, the Kansas flash.

Coming off the turn into the stretch Cunningham, Moore and Mehl were breast even across the track.

The Wisconsin fiver had more to give the following the terrifically fast pace Cunningham had set, however, and flashed his sprint to win by two yards. Moore was a bare yard behind Cunningham.

In the 880 yard race at Evansville, Ill., the week before, Moore again placed third. The track was heavy, according to reports, and Kane of Indiana and Burrows of Princeton proved to be better "mudders" than our Paul.

Breans Are Urged to Attend Local Recreational Center

A summer recreational program is being conducted at the Brea grammar school with Mrs. Rose Bureta in charge of handicraft.

A great deal of work is in progress and the articles made are reported excellent in every detail.

Classes are open from 10 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon. Both Brea's youth and adults are cordially invited to visit the recreational center to see the splendid work that is under way.

instruction and use of plunge are free.

An Appeal to Dads and Moms

We, the citizens of Brea live in a wonderful place. We have a wonderful ball ground at our high school.

Our city council made it possible by furnishing lights and equipment so the boys of our community might enjoy a game most all boys like.

We have a high ball league of several Brea and neighboring town teams.

We have in Brea one of the best supervisors to be found, in our own Shorty Smith.

We have a very capable and accommodating ground manager in the person of Ted Muir.

We have one of the finest ball grounds in the county.

Now, folks, come out and show your appreciation to our council and these fine boys of ours while we have them.

You will see some good ball games without cost to you. So come out, and encourage these boys in a clean American sport—night ball.
