

A Progress

TY, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 1918

Slapped Woman's Face—That's All

Did a woman black another woman's face by slapping her face? The question was asked of Justice this morning, and he declined to rule on it until the trial, which is set for January 18 at 9 in the morning. Josephine Green is the woman who has the black eye. And those who say that it certainly was black. Ella Mueller is the woman who is accused of doing the blacking, and also the woman who asked Justice to rule on the slapping question. Mueller admits that she slapped Mrs. Green. Mrs. Green's story of the bodily contest is quite different. Mrs. Green says it was a hair-pulling and a knock-down blow in the eye with a fist and more blows besides. Mueller said that it was not at that time there had been difficulty. She would like Mrs. Green put under bond so that there would be no marks of combat. She is a larger and younger than her opponent. Mueller admits that there was a struggle, but she says that really she did not do anything but slap Mrs. Green's face for her. Mueller is not the only one who insists on a bond to keep the peace. Mrs. Green wants Mueller under such a bond. Cause of the rumpus? Jealousy, y. At least, that is what the lawyers here hand out.—Santa Ana

HILLS ARE FOUND FULL OF WINDJAMMERS

Barrett, with a little Brea publicity stuff, has scared a band of men in this section than ever dreamed existed out of the county. Following the statement in the paper last week that movement was being made to organize a band for fifty-six willing subjects have volunteered for service in the new military organization.

NO RIVAL TO THE RED CROSS IN BREA

A report that a rival organization to the Red Cross is operating in this community, it seems, has been pretty generally circulated throughout this section of the county and has caused considerable comment. The grounds for this report seem to have devolved about Mrs. Alex Kuenzli and as the report is wholly untrue and unfounded it has done that excellent lady a great injustice and The Progress is more than willing to assist in clearing up the matter.

Whether this report was started through malice, ignorance or idle prattle, it is a great mistake and not only does injustice to person, but casts an unfair and unpopular reflection upon the community.

Mrs. Kuenzli's explanation follows: With the country at war, our boys leaving for the camps and the front, it behooves each and every one of us to do "our bit," and in the place where it will, as we see it, do the most good, at the least expense.

There seems to be some misunderstanding about the "W. B. A. Patriotic Service."

Members of the Red Cross seem to regard it as a rival association, and some seem to think it is only a local patriotic organization. The Women's Benefit Association of the Macabees have nearly two hundred thousand members in good standing.

At a special session of the Supreme Review, held in Port Huron, Mich., last October, the matter of how best our association could co-operate with the government and aid the Red Cross work at a minimum of expense was discussed in detail, with the result that a resolution was adopted authorizing the immediate organization of the W. B. A. Patriotic Service Fund.

The annual membership fee of one dollar, is collected from each member and forwarded to our Supreme Red Cross Keeper and she credits it to the fund established for the purchase of needed materials for sewing and knit-

Brea Oil Fields on Screen Tonight

Brea oil field scenes will be seen on the screen tonight when the film of the oil field story, "The House with the Golden Windows," is shown at the school auditorium. This is a drama of intense interest, presented by a company of star performers.

Many of the scenes were taken on the Graham-Lortus lease and will be readily recognized by people familiar with that locality. There will be musical selections between reels.

In place of "Hulda of Holland," "Poor Little Peppino," another Mary Pickford production, was substituted last Friday night and proved very pleasing.

The picture machine at the school house has undergone the expert readjustment of Jimmie Cfaig and is now in first class condition. The films now show clear and in a most satisfactory manner.

TWO SERIOUS AUTO ACCIDENTS NEAR HERE

At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, a car driven by Mrs. Atwood of Olanda, collided with a milk and bread cart at the intersection of Madison and Bradford avenues in Placentia. Mrs. Atwood was rendered unconscious and was taken to the Fullerton hospital where she soon regained consciousness. Two children who were with Mrs. Atwood when the accident occurred were slightly bruised and scratched. Two men occupied the milk and bread cart and they were both scratched and bruised but not seriously injured. They were taken to Anaheim for treatment.

Two automobiles came together half a mile east of La Habra early Tuesday evening. E. F. Hovort of South Pasadena, in a new Buick six, was going south on a cross road at the alleged rate of 20 miles an hour, and ran into a Regal roadster occupied by V. W. Power, wife and baby of Norwalk.

BREA CHURCH THROWS KETTNER FOR VOI

In their annual meeting last day night the Board of Directors and congregation of the Brea Church unanimously voted the fulness of the church to support William Kettner for the prohibition of the congressman from this district in the halting on the national prohibition legislation. The vote which was forwarded to Congress Kettner is as follows:

Brea, Calif., Jan. 15, 1918.
Hon. William Kettner,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—The Brea Church, assembled in annual session, sends greetings to you and most heartily commends you for your affirmative vote for nationwide prohibition of the manufacture and sale of liquor, and for the prohibition of the womanhood of the world. We praise God and take courage. May we not also express our desire that, in the interests of economy, food conservation, stability, health potency and efficiency of the nation, and the more speedy and successful prosecution of the war, you encourage the President to declare a war emergency to stop our traffic, assuring support and of the people in creating their money, for a righteous victory and peace.

Sincerely yours,
K. E. NETHAWAY, Chairman

NEW MAN AT NATIONAL
C. F. Damerel, a young Los Angeles man, has accepted a position with California National Supply Co. at Brea and will assist Manager in looking after the big business in the old field. Damerel has had some experience in the oil well supply business and is a bookkeeper and accountant. It is the intention of the new man to bring his family to the city as soon

and year

ON rest

PAY

LIVERY

TI

If for at our

SEE

We the arm who cot work w Do charges

STH

Pay

Much Optimism as Bond Sale Nears

Continued from Page 1

Civilian population had an opportunity to do their share, and that they did it. There can be no such thing as failure. The spirit of the doubter ought not to be allowed to prevail for a single minute.

County Chairman Bisby urged the various community chairmen to begin at once to urge people to get ready to subscribe.

"Get them to thinking about this loan," said he. "Hammer it home to them that it is our duty to subscribe. Orange county by reason of its productiveness has every reason to meet its quota."

"The most necessary thing for success is concrete, concrete organization. My time, day and night, will be at your disposal, and all I ask is that you meet me with like co-operation."

Let Him Know It

"How are we going to dispose of the financial slacker?" was asked of Bisby.

"The answer," said Bisby, "is this: Don't be afraid to tell him what you think of him. Don't be afraid to let the community know just what kind of a slacker he is. In these times, it is our duty to let a man know what the community thinks of him. If five or ten men will join together and let that man know that so far as they are concerned they are done with him, socially and otherwise, because he does not measure up in the time of the country's need, and live up to that agreement, they will get results."

Following the meeting, district maps were distributed among the various chairmen. From now until the opening of the drive, chairmen will be busy finishing details for the drive.

Fourth Liberty Bond Payments

Payment at time of subscribing, 10 per cent; second payment, 20 per cent, on November 21; third payment, 20 per cent, on December 19; fourth payment, 20 per cent, on January 16; fifth payment, 20 per cent, on January 30.

Former Resident Dead

Frank Burkett, a former resident of Brea, died at his home in Whittier on Thursday of last week, after a short illness from pneumonia. Mr. Burkett, with his wife, was formerly a resident of Brea, they having removed from this place to Whittier about nine months ago. He was a brother of Mrs. J. B. Isbell of this place. His wife was Miss Sadie Walker, a graduate

Mr. Roland Bowe of Olinda, who enlisted in the marines and who left Monday, was given a farewell party on Friday evening by Lyman Bowe and Ernest Schriber. Games and music formed a pleasant pastime and late in the evening refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Bowe, Mr. and Mrs. Little, Mr. and Mrs. Swory, Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Conn, Mrs. Robb, Helen Schriber, Ethel Thayer, Ollie Dale, Hattie Conn, Ernie Ford, Gertrude Schryer, Sadie Jones, Mags Miranda, Gladys Conn, Alice Dale, Dorothy Little, Frieda Williams, Mr. Sol, Mr. Schriber, Roland Bowe, Lyman Bowe, Ernest Schriber, Edward Ryan, Marion Vanatta, Charles Byans, Wm. Travers, Leonard Little, Maynard Schriber and Clifford Clyde.

Oil Field Scenes in Film

Scenes taken around the oil fields of Brea will be shown in the program at the Fairyland Theatre Sunday, matinee and night, when that popular theatre presents the new Paralta film, entitled "The Turns of the Cord," featuring J. Warren Carrigan. This picture comes in seven parts and is pronounced a production of extraordinary merit.

On Tuesday and Wednesday of next week the Fairyland will present Wm. S. Hart, in what is termed his best picture, "Riddle Gawne." This big feature held large crowds all last week at Grauman's.

We will make Brea Canyon, Birch and Brea Refinery ice trips on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday on and after Sept. 1st. E. H. Peterkin.

In the superior court, Cox said that he would pass all the cases that involve the law to the superior court until some definite decisions are reached. Woolsey came under the meaning of the ordinance, but he wants the upper court to do the saying.

Farewell Party Given

A most delightful affair was given at the home of Mrs. H. L. Delaney on Monday evening, of this week. The occasion being a farewell to Theodore Buchanan, who came here recently to claim Miss Mary Nichols for his bride.

Mr. Buchanan is serving his country's call as a sailor of the sea and is stationed at present at Mare Island.

A miscellaneous shower was also included in which the many friends of the bride bestowed some very beautiful presents. The decorations were very beautiful, the color scheme being carried out in red, white and blue.

There were thirty-one present and everyone seemed to enjoy the evening immensely. Coffee and cake were served as a refreshment and the old familiar hymn, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," was the farewell song by all.

Phone Gurley, 243-R-2, when you want good laundry service.

FALL OPENING OF Orange County Business College SANTA ANA, CAL.

Bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, and stenotypy courses. Positions for all graduates. Enrollments now active. Write for free catalogue. Address: J. W. McCormac, President.

Sammy SAYS:

"You lick them on the back and we'll lick them on the front."

Lick a W. S. S. Every Day!

od? keep ey are t that dge— buy a month.

ON atch

Angelen 13 a. m. 12 a. m. 26 a. m. 54 p. m. 13 p. m. 16 p. m. 50 p. m. 39 p. m.

AY Sgt. Brea

normality ch abnor of proper Vertebral tism (int ted (dis of the vertebral al Nerve tissue of causing e trunks e, thereby (as step er there- uly nerve

Brea Progress

BREA, ORANGE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1934

Estes-Moore Vows Taken At Pretty Church Wedding

CHARMING CEREMONY HELD AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Miss Catherine Moore daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey F. Moore 116 So. Redwood Ave., became the bride of Mr. James Estes of Torrance, Friday evening.

This event took place at seven o'clock in the Congregational Church which was beautifully decorated with large yellow and lavender dahlias, chrysanthemums and sweet peas. The church was lighted by white tapers in tall candelabra.

The wedding march was preceded by several selections on the pipe organ, played by Paul Woodard who also accompanied Miss Beatrice Woolever who sang "I Love You Truly."

The organ was played very softly while Rev. B. H. Blanchar, pastor of the Baptist Church, read the impressive single ring ceremony. Following the ceremony Miss Phyllis Smith sang "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life." Miss Inez Jones and Miss Maxine Laing were brides maids, being dressed in pink and green formal evening gowns and carrying bouquets of sweet peas. Miss Jimmie dean McCabe, maid of honor, wore a formal yellow gown and carried pink and white sweet peas with maiden hair fern. Lee Haskins from Torrance was best man. The bride was attired in a white satin gown and wore a waist length veil trimmed in orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of white roses and gardenias. Rebecca Estes, little daughter of the groom, was ring

Brea Locale For Motion Picture

Monday the Legions of Hollywood invaded Brea to take a motion picture of the oilfields. Bill Boyd, the man of the movies, and Judith Allen are the principals of the picture, which is evidently a thriller of the ten, twenty-third class.

Tuesday, extras from Brea were hired for a wedding scene. Sound equipment and a bus load of technicians and minor bit actors and actresses moved into the Great American Petroleum's Tuffree lease. Your ed went out there and looked over the dope Monday, but it is too slow and drawn out a process for one who is busy to hang around.

A big fight, touted to come off Tuesday evening was apparently side-tracked, as we could get no authentic dope. A dummy rig was erected on the Union Oil property, adjacent to the Union's Brea office. Lumber was purchased from Jack Collins, of Brown & Dauser Company. The rig was supposed to be burned up, as the climax of a big industrial war, but Jack says his lumber is fire proof and despite a good soaking down with gasoline, the dog-goned rig just refused to burn down, in a flare of high emotional content.

Select Pictures Corp. is the outfit and I guess if they will release the pitcher thru our local theatre, there will be a few folks out to see themselves performing in the movies.

EASTERN STAR ELECTS OFFICERS

A pot-luck supper was held Monday evening at 6:30 by the Brea Chapter of the Eastern Star. The annual election of officers

Keeps Office

S. B. KAUFMAN was elected to fill the office of District Attorney in his first political campaign.

Miss Jerry Woodward Honored On Saturday

Miss Jerry Woodward who is to be married to Dan D. Duff of Banning, November 21st was honored with a shower last Saturday afternoon given by Mrs. Helen Bailey of Burbank, Miss Genevieve Clever of Anaheim and Miss Viola Baker at the home of Mrs. Fred J. Boling, 420 So. Madrona Ave., mother of Mrs. Bailey. The house was decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The afternoon was spent in playing bridge. Mrs. Lillian Mitchell won 1st prize, second prize went to Mrs. Lillian Seckler and Mrs. Audrey Winchel won the consolation prize. Refreshments of fruit salad, nut bread, dates stuffed with cheese and coffee were served.

A lovely blanket was presented

J. E. Ward Fill Vacancies Ranks of C

LIONS DELEGATION WITH PLAN

The regular bi monthly of the Brea City Council in the council room of Hall, on Wednesday eve

James Edward Ward was mously elected by the Council to fill the unexpired term of Baldwin, resigned, on the

W. D. Shaffer, chairman of the Construction Committee of the Brea Lions Club headed the delegation to follow thru on recently included in the program of that club. This delegation with a request to the Lions Club that an be drawn by the Counciling the kind and type of be planted in the future ways of the city. It has covered that certain types develop a root spread to mines sidewalk foundations costs money in repairs angle. Mr. Shaffer read the Whittier ordinance, by the planning commission city. This was turned over to Councilman Frank Schweitzer and for his recommendation Street Commissioner of the Council voted to tract to Tom Claydon for the painting, inside and water tower. Councilmen Wakeman and Street Commissioner Fred Boxall were to select the kind of pavement used. At this point J. E. Ward appointed Councilman