

OUR MISSION

The Brea Historical Society, founded in 1971, collects, preserves and displays the heritage and history of the City of Brea. Through educational programs, research studies, exhibitions, and workshops, the Brea Historical Society continues to document and promote Brea's unique contribution to an ever-changing world.

OUR VISION

- To pursue the highest standards of collection, preservation and historical presentation.
- To provide public access to historical materials.
- To promote discussion and discourse about historical topics.
- To help visitors become witnesses to history.

HISTORY IS ESSENTIAL

Identity

History helps people of all ages explore and appreciate their past.

Critical Skills & Thinking

History teaches critical thinking skills.

Vital Places to Live and Work

History lays the groundwork for strong, resilient communities.

Economic Development

History is a catalyst for economic growth.

Engaged Citizens

History helps people craft better solutions.

Leadership

History inspires local and global leaders.

Legacy

History, saved and shared, is the foundation for future generations because it explains our shared past.

Help Support Our Preservation Efforts

For more than 50 years,
the Brea Historical Society have worked to collect and preserve the rich history of our city.
Through educational programs, research studies,
and exhibitions, we share with the public the story of Brea and Brea's unique contribution to an ever changing world. But preservation efforts are expensive, and we could use your help.

There are programs already in place that will benefit from your support, and each provides a unique payback opportunity for you.

We hope you will consider supporting the Brea Historical Society and become a vested partner in our historic preservation efforts. Here are some of the many ways you can help.

- 1. Membership to the Brea Museum and Historical Society
- 2. Donations
- 3. Corporate Sponsorship
- 4. Legacy and Planned-Giving
- 5. Passive Fundraising
- 6. Volunteer

THE BREA COMMUNITY ORAL HISTORY PROJECT

Recording your memories, writing our history!

- Are you new to the city?
- Has your family been here for generations?
- Did you come from a place far away?
- Do you work, live or play in Brea?

Regardless of where you came from or how long you have been here, your experience of life in Brea is important.
